

we are MRI technicians, we are clerical support workers, we are custodians, we are community workers, we are recreation workers, we are flight attendants, we are bus drivers, we are developmental services workers, we are associations for community living workers, we are teaching assistants, we are hospital workers, we are nurses, we are electrical workers, we are early childhood educators, we are class monitors, we are ESL teachers, we are counsellors, we are secretaries, we are researchers, we are chiropractors,

WE'RE MOBILIZING

we are building inspectors, we are shelter workers, we are water workers, we are engineers, we are university lecturers, we are lab technicians, we are union representatives, we are library technicians, we are clerks, we are radiographers, we are speech language pathologists, we are chemists, we are arts administrators, we are zoo keepers, we are communications workers, we are videographers, we are writers, we are editors, we are child service workers, we are family service workers, we are swim instructors, we are lifeguards, we are continuing and adult education instructors, we are outreach counsellors, we are fire fighters, we are police officers,

PUBLIC SERVICES HELPED BUILD OUR COUNTRY, LAYING A FOUNDATION OF DIGNITY AND EQUALITY.

we are emergency workers, we are paramedics, we are dance instructors, we are librarians, we are kindergarten aides, we are food service workers, we are city planners, we are building inspectors, we are ticket takers, we are ushers, we are zamboni operators, we are mechanics, we are escalator service personnel, we are RPNs, we are transportation workers, we are air quality inspectors, we are ergonomists, we are zoo workers, and many other workers in municipalities, education, hydro, airlines, child care, social services, and health care. We are MRI technicians, we are clerical support workers, we are custodians, we are community workers, we are recreation workers, we are flight attendants, we are bus drivers, we are developmental services workers, we are associations for community living workers, we are teaching assistants, we are hospital workers, we are nurses, we are electrical workers, we are early childhood educators, we are class monitors, we are ESL teachers, we are counsellors, we are secretaries, we are researchers, we are chiropractors, we are building inspectors, we are shelter workers, we are water workers, we are engineers, we are university lecturers, we are lab technicians, we are union representatives, we are library technicians, we are clerks, we are radiographers, we are speech language pathologists, we are chemists, we are arts administrators, we are zoo keepers, we are communications workers, we are videographers, we are writers, we are editors, we are child service workers, we are family service workers, we are swim instructors, we are lifeguards, we are continuing and adult education instructors, we are outreach counsellors, we are fire fighters, we are police officers,

Access to public services is a right that Canadians have earned and one that CUPE members are proud to deliver. Those publicly delivered services are the key to keeping Canada strong and healthy—city by city, town by town, village by village, farm by farm—community by community.

we are emergency workers, we are paramedics, we are dance instructors, we are librarians, we are kindergarten aides, we are food service workers, we are city planners, we are building inspectors, we are ticket takers, we are ushers, we are zamboni operators, we are mechanics, we are escalator service personnel, we are RPNs, we are transportation workers, we are air quality inspectors, we are ergonomists, we are zoo workers, and many other workers in municipalities, education, hydro, airlines, child care, social services, and health care. We are MRI technicians, we are clerical support workers, we are custodians, we are community workers, we are recreation workers, we are flight attendants, we are bus drivers, we are developmental services workers, we are associations for community living workers, we are teaching assistants, we are hospital workers, we are nurses, we are electrical workers, we are early childhood educators, we are class monitors, we are ESL teachers, we are counsellors, we are secretaries, we are researchers, we are chiropractors, 560,000 CUPE members work in communities right across Canada. This week more than 2,000 representatives of those workers met in Toronto and committed to working harder than ever at keeping those services public.

we are building inspectors, we are shelter workers, we are water workers, we are engineers, we are university lecturers, we are lab technicians, we are union representatives, we are library technicians, we are clerks, we are radiographers, we are speech language pathologists, we are chemists, we are arts administrators, we are zoo keepers, we are communications workers, we are videographers, we are writers, we are editors, we are child service workers, we are family service workers, we are swim instructors, we are lifeguards, we are continuing and adult education instructors, we are outreach counsellors, we are fire fighters, we are police officers, we are emergency workers, we are paramedics, we are dance instructors, we are librarians, we are kindergarten aides, we are food service workers, we are city planners, we are building inspectors, we are ticket takers, we are ushers, we are zamboni operators, we are mechanics, we are escalator service personnel, we are RPNs, we are transportation workers, we are air quality inspectors, we are ergonomists, we are zoo workers, and many other workers in municipalities, education, hydro, airlines, child care, social services and health care. We are MRI technicians, we are clerical support workers, we are custodians, we are community workers, we are recreation workers, we are flight attendants, we are bus drivers, we are developmental services workers, we are associations for community living workers, we are teaching assistants, we are hospital workers, we are nurses, we are electrical workers, we are early childhood educators, we are class monitors, we are ESL teachers, we are counsellors, we are secretaries, we are researchers, we are chiropractors, we are building inspectors, we are shelter workers, we are water workers, we are engineers, we are university lecturers, we are lab technicians, we are union representatives, we are library technicians, we are clerks, we are radiographers, we are speech language pathologists, we are chemists, we are arts administrators, we are zoo keepers, we are communications workers, we are videographers, we are writers, we are editors, we are child service workers, we are family service workers, we are swim instructors, we are lifeguards, we are continuing and adult education instructors, we are outreach counsellors, we are fire fighters, we are police officers,

CUPE / Canadian Union of Public Employees

Visit CUPE.ca and find out how you can help CUPE promote public services.