Non-bargaining unit Employees shall not perform bargaining unit work to the extent that it causes the layoff of a bargaining unit Employee, unless mutually agreed upon in writing.

5) Temporary Employees

Employees may be hired for a temporary position to replace a regular Employee who is absent due to sickness, accident, vacation, or leave of absence approved by the Employer, or for special tasks or projects that are mutually agreed upon by the Parties to this Agreement. ARTICLE 5 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

5:01 The parties to this Agreement are agreed that it is of the utmost importance to adjust complaints and grievances concerning the interpretation or alleged violation of the Agreement as quickly as possible.

5:02 No complaint shall be considered where the circumstances giving rise to it occurred or originated more than seven (7) full working days before the filing of the complaint. No grievance shall be considered until the Employee has first given his/her immediate supervisor the opportunity of adjusting his/her complaint. Such complaint must be discussed with the immediate supervisor within seven (7) working days after the circumstances giving rise to it occurred or originated. Notwithstanding the above, if the complaint is against the immediate supervisor, the Employee may skip the complaint stage. The immediate supervisor shall respond within two (2) working days. It is agreed that the Employee shall be allowed to have the presence of his/her steward at any meeting regarding complaint/grievance.

5:03 Grievances properly arising under this Agreement shall be adjusted and settled and an earnest effort shall be made to settle grievances fairly and promptly in the following manner:

STEP 1

The employee may submit a written grievance, within five (5) working days after the Supervisor has provided a response at the complaints stage, signed by the employee and/or the Union, to the employee's department manager and to Human Resources. The grievance shall identify the nature of the grievance and the remedy sought and should also identify the provisions of the agreement which are alleged to be violated. He/she shall have the assistance of his/her steward if he/she so desires. The manager shall give his/her decision, in writing within seven (7) working days following the discussion. If the decision is not satisfactory to the employee concerned, then the grievance may be presented, in writing as follows:

STEP 2

Within five (5) working days after the decision is given at Step 1 the employee, together with the Union President, or designate, may submit his/her grievance to the Chief Administrative Officer, or designate. Step 2 meetings shall be held on a designated day of each and every month. Copies of the grievance will be provided to the Administrator and Human Resources at the same time as the grievance is presented to the CAO or designate. The CAO or designate will render a decision, in writing within seven (7) working days following such meeting.

- 5:04 If final settlement is not reached at Step 2, then the Parties may proceed, by mutual agreement, to a Grievance Mediation Officer (GMO). If final settlement is not reached through the use of a GMO, or if the Parties do not agree to proceed to Mediation, then the grievance may be referred, in writing, by either party to an Arbitrator as provided in Article 6 below at any time within ten (10) working days after the decision is given under Step 2 and if no such written request for arbitration is received within the time limit, then the grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned. The name of the next Arbitrator in the rotation shall be contained in the Notice to Arbitrate.
- 5:05 In this Article and in the Articles 6,7 & 8 in calculating working days, Saturdays, Sundays and paid holidays shall not be included.
- 5:06 Any of the time limits mentioned in the above procedure may be extended by mutual agreement in writing.

ARTICLE 6 - ARBITRATION

6:01 Both parties to this Agreement agree that any dispute or grievance relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or an alleged violation of the Agreement, which has been properly carried through all the steps of the grievance procedure outlined in Article 5 above, and which has not been settled, will be referred to an Arbitrator, at the written request of either of the parties hereto.

6:02 Arbitrators

Where a grievance is referred to arbitration, it shall be heard by a single arbitrator, chosen in rotation from the following list. The parties agree that the following persons shall, in turn, serve as single arbitrators on a rotating basis:

1. Brian Sheehan
2. Jules Bloch
3. William Kaplan
4. Steve Raymond
5. Barry Stephens

If an arbitrator is not available (i.e. within six (6) months), the next person on the list shall be selected, and so on, until one of those on the list is available. For the next grievance moved to arbitration, the person who appears on the list immediately after the arbitrator last selected shall be next in sequence of selection. By mutual agreement in any particular case, the parties may select a listed arbitrator out of turn or select an arbitrator not on the list. If none of the persons on the list is available, and if the parties are unable to agree upon an alternative arbitrator, the parties shall ask the Minister of Labour to appoint a single arbitrator. Whether or not the matter is settled or withdrawn thereafter, the arbitrator selected is deemed to have been “used” for purposes of rotation.

6:03 The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on both parties.

6:04 The Arbitrator shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement nor to substitute any new provision for any existing provisions, nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

6:05 Each of the parties to this Agreement will jointly bear the expenses of the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER GRIEVANCES AND UNION GRIEVANCES

7:01 Any grievance instituted by the Employer may be referred in writing to the President of the Local within ten (10) full working days of the occurrence of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance and the Grievance Committee shall meet within ten (10) working days thereafter with the Employer to consider the grievance.

At this time they may be accompanied by a Full-Time representative of the Union if his presence is requested by either party. If final settlement of the grievance is not completed within five (5) working days of such meeting, the grievance may be referred, by either party, to an Arbitrator as provided in Article 6 at any time within ten (10) working days thereafter, but not later.

7:02 A Union policy grievance, which is defined as an alleged violation of this Agreement concerning the Union as such or concerning all or a substantial number of Employees in the bargaining unit, may be lodged by the Union in writing with the Home Administrator at Step 1 of the grievance procedure at any time within ten (10) full working days after the circumstances giving rise to such grievance occurred or originated.

ARTICLE 8 - DISCHARGE CASES

8:01 A claim by an Employee who has completed the probationary period that he has been discharged without just cause shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Home Administrator at Step No. 1 of the grievance procedure within five (5) full working days after the Employee ceases working for the Employer. Such special grievances may be settled by:

- a) confirming the Employer's action in dismissing the Employee or
- b) reinstating the Employee with full compensation for time lost; or
- c) Any other arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties or the Arbitrator.

8:02 Personnel Records

Any Employee shall have the right to have reasonable access to his/her personnel record under the supervision of the Employer. Any written response of the Employee to discipline will be included as part of the file. An Employee shall have the right to make copies of any material contained in his/her personnel record.

8:03 Investigations

In the case where the Employer needs to investigate an incident regarding an employee and where the employee will be placed on a Leave of Absence as a result, such Leave shall be with pay. The Employer shall notify the Union President or designate with as much advanced notice as possible of any employee being investigated. The employee shall be provided with a written letter within twenty-four (24) hours.

The employee will be reimbursed based on the average of the hours worked within the preceding four (4) week period not including premium payments.

8:04 Any letter of reprimand, suspension or other sanction will be removed from the record of any Employee eighteen (18) months following the receipt of such letter, suspension or other sanction, provided the Employee's record has been discipline free for such eighteen (18) month period.

8:05 At the time formal discipline is imposed an Employee shall have the right to request a steward be present. The Employer shall have the right to equal representation at such meeting.

In the case of suspension or discharge the Employer shall notify the Employee of his right in advance. In addition, the employer will notify the Union President, in writing, of any discharge or suspension. Such notification shall be sent within one (1) working day of such suspension or discharge confirming the said discharge or suspension.

ARTICLE 9 - NO STRIKES, NO LOCK-OUTS

9:01 In view of the orderly procedures established by this Agreement for the settling of disputes and the handling of grievances, the Union agrees that, during the life of this Agreement, there will be no strike, unlawful picketing, slow-down or stoppage of work, either complete or partial and the Employer agrees that there will be no lock-out.

9:02 The Employer shall have the right to discharge or otherwise discipline Employees who take part in or instigate any illegal strike, unlawful picketing, stoppage or slowdown contrary to Clause 9:01 but a claim of unjust discharge or discipline may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as provided in Article 5 above.

9:03 Should the Union claim that a cessation of work constitutes a lockout, it may take the matter up with the Employer at Step No. 2 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 10 - WAGES

10:01 Schedule "A" hereto headed "Wages and Classifications" is hereby made a part of this Agreement.

10:04 Any Employee who is designated by the Employer to relieve in the absence of the Supervisor shall be paid a premium of five (5%) percent above their hourly rate for such time worked. This also applies to Dietary Aides who are working as a Cook in the absence of the Lead Hand Cook.

10:05 Where an employee has posted into a position in a different wage level, she shall be placed on the grid in accordance with her current years, or hours, of service, to a maximum of the After 2 Years Service rate. If the employee is not at job rate, progression on the wage grid will occur based on the hours worked in the new classification.

11:01 The normal full-time hours of work shall consist of an average of seventy-five (75) hours in a two (2) week period comprised of ten (10) seven and a half (7.5) hour days. This provision is not to be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week, or of days of work per week.

11:02 Regularly scheduled part-time Employees will be scheduled up to forty-eight (48) hours bi-weekly. This provision is not to be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week, or of days of work per week.

Re: Return to Work Program

The parties agree to the following to be included as part of the Collective Agreement:

It is the mutual desire of the parties to assist in the rehabilitation of ill or injured Employees and to ensure their return to meaningful employment and the resumption of an active role in the workplace.

The parties will make reasonable efforts to place disabled Employees in their regular classification. The full range of accommodation will be considered to enable Employees with disabilities to perform the core duties of their positions. If this is not possible, the parties will cooperate in finding suitable alternative employment.

In complex cases when Employees may need to be accommodated outside their classification or if representation is requested by the Employee, the parties agree to establish a Joint Return to Work Core Committee consisting of the President of the Local or his or her designate and a Human Resources representative, who will serve as Co-chairpersons. The Committee will be augmented by, but not limited to, the manager from the Employee's work location, an Occupational Health Services representative and the Employee. The Occupational Health Services representative will serve as the Committee's liaison with the treating physician, rehabilitation specialists, etc.

Where the Employee cannot be accommodated in their regular classification, the Core Committee will meet for the purpose of reviewing and recommending appropriate individual case strategies for:

1. The safe and successful return of disabled workers to the workplace as soon as possible after an illness or accident, whether work-related or not.
2. The return to productive and gainful employment, where practicable, for those Employees who have become incapable of fully performing the core duties of their own classification but who are medically certified as capable of performing duties of another classification.

Re: Call-In Procedures for all departments

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

- Call-in: Any shift that comes available after the schedule is posted.
- Available Staff: All those who have indicated their availability and under normal circumstances are available to work the shift.
- Non-Available Staff: Staff who are working;
Staff on medical/sick leave, jury duty, union leave, vacation, or any other authorized leave.
- Availability Sheets: All part-time Employees must submit their availability monthly, at least two (2) weeks prior to the date the next schedule will be posted. (see Appendix A).

PRINCIPLES

A call-in is any shift that comes available after the schedule is posted. Shifts may be offered in blocks up until the senior employee reaches as close as possible to seventy-five hours or ten (10) shifts bi-weekly. A call-in shift is offered one at a time only where the senior employee eligible does not immediately answer the call and where there is less than forty-eight (48) hours notice.

The Employer will utilize an electronic scheduling program. Call-ins must be recorded in the system. Call-ins will be documented and retained for the length of the schedule.

All shifts will be offered by seniority and the following principles will be followed:

1. Full-time employees who are not scheduled to work seventy-five (75) hours or ten (10) shifts biweekly until such time as they reach the limit without incurring overtime who have indicated their availability for the shift;
2. Part-time employees, who have not been scheduled up to seventy-five (75) hours or ten (10) shifts without incurring overtime costs, who have indicated their availability for the shift;
3. Casual employees will be called after number 1 and 2 above, prior to overtime being incurred.
4. Out of classification without incurring overtime costs.

Shifts Incurring Overtime

If overtime will be incurred, the Employer shall offer the overtime shift to the Employee, by seniority, who would incur the least amount of overtime (see Appendix B, page 53) with part-time Employees being offered the shift prior to full-time Employees, overtime costs being equal.

5. Part-time employees who would incur the least amount of overtime will next be called;
6. Full-time employees who would incur the least amount of overtime will next be called;
7. Casual employees who would incur the least amount of overtime will next be called.

Note: Last resort will be employees working a double.

PROCEDURE

1. When the absence is reported the person who takes the call will first complete the Absence Report Form.
2. Mark the absence and reason on the master schedule in the electronic scheduling program.
3. Check the master schedule to see who is eligible for the call.
4. Making the call:
 - Allow the one designated telephone number to ring six (6) rings and/or send a text message.
 - If a message is left or there was no answer, record in the electronic scheduling program.
 - Continue on with the call-ins.
 - When there is an acceptance, document the response. (Note callbacks with time, even if the shift is gone.)
 - Document as to who will be working the shift.
 - Inform the unit of the absence and the name of the replacement.
5. Document the shift on the Schedule in the electronic scheduling program by the appropriate staff name and under the correct date.
6. Call-ins may be made several weeks in advance.
7. When the call-in comes in outside of normal office hours, the staff will only complete the necessary call-ins to cover until the designated scheduling personnel are available. All staff performing the call-ins must follow this call-in procedure.
8. When calling to cover a weekend shift that is less than a week away, or a week day shift that will occur within forty-eight (48) hours, Employees who do not answer lose the 'call in opportunity' for that shift unless they call back before the shift is filled. Statutory holidays connected to the weekend are considered part of the weekend shift.
9. Staff may be called more than once a day and this will be tracked through documentation.
10. Busy signals and answering machines (unless the message states they are accepting GPL shifts) are considered refusals unless the Employee phones back before the shift is filled.

Re: On Call, Environmental Support Person

The employee in the classification of Environmental Support Person will be required to be part of an on call rotation. "On call" refers to time periods during which a designated employee must be available and able to respond, within a reasonable time, to resolve an unexpected problem or issue.

The Environmental Services Manager is responsible for scheduling the employee for on call duty and the schedule will be posted in accordance with Article 11.03 (a) of the collective agreement. On call responsibility will be shared with the Environmental Support Person, the Environmental Services Supervisor and the Environmental Services Manager.

The employer will make every attempt to schedule the Environmental Support Person for on call duty on the off hours of their regularly scheduled shift. For clarity, the Environmental Support Person will not normally be scheduled for on call on their scheduled days off.

The employee assigned to be on call is not required to stay at home, but he must ensure that he can be contacted and is able to respond within a reasonable time. A reasonable response time if a phone call is required is 15 minutes. If it is necessary to report to the Golden Plough Lodge, a reasonable response time is up to one hour. If minimum response times are not met, the employee is ineligible for on call pay.

An employee assigned to be on call cannot engage in any activity that would impair judgment or prohibit a response while on call. When Employees are on call they must be available for work in a variety of ways including:

They may be required to leave home or the place where they are contacted and travel to work to deal with situations that require their presence

They may be required to deal with problems by working from home.

Employees designated for on call duty on a per-day basis will be paid an allowance of $28.57 per day for all hours that he is required to be on call on the specified day. On call duty is not subject to overtime provisions.

In the event an employee who is on call must leave his home or the place where he is contacted and travel to work, a minimum of three (3) hours call in pay will be provided in accordance with Article 11:07 (b). This is in addition to the on call rate. If an employee is called to do work and the work-related request or problem is resolved from home, the employee does not receive call in payment unless the time required is greater than one (1) hour.
