- (c) In such case, the Employee must provide a written undertaking to the Employer and the required notification to the WSNB that the initial payment(s) from the WSNB is to be provided directly to the Employer on behalf of the Employee, up to the level of the payment advanced by the Employer.

ARTICLE 24 TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

24.01 Definition:

In this Article, "Technological Change" means the introduction of equipment or material of a different nature or kind than that previously used by the Employer, and a change in the manner in which the Employer carries on its operations that is directly related to the introduction of that equipment or material.

24.02 Training:

Where the equipment or material so introduced is to be operated by Employees of the same classification as those formerly carrying on the operation, the incumbents are to be given an opportunity for training at the Employer's expense, without loss of pay or benefits to the Employee, in the operation of the equipment or material in question, with the intent that they may be retained in their positions.

24.03 Introduction:

If, after the period of training referred to in X.02 the Employee is unable to acquire sufficient competence, the Employer will make every effort to retain the Employee in such position as may be available within the competence of the Employee (including the exercise of such rights as are otherwise contained in this Agreement).

24.04 Notice:

The Employer agrees to give the Union at least sixty (60) days' notice of the introduction of technological change that is expected to result in the displacement of Employees in the bargaining unit, or substantial changes in the hours of work or the duties performed by Employees in the bargaining unit.

24.05 Layoff:

An Employee who is affected by a layoff because of technological change shall have all rights set out in Article 12.

ARTICLE 25 NO STRIKE NO LOCKOUT

25.01 It is agreed that there shall be no slow down, curtailment of work, strike or lockout during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 26 JOB SHARING

26.01 Taking into consideration the fact that the Employer wishes to retain well-qualified staff who are unable to provide a full-time commitment and that a job sharing arrangement can enable this to happen, the Employer agrees to the following provisions:

- (a) Job sharing requests with regard to Full-time positions shall be considered on an individual basis and the Employer reserves the right to determine the appropriateness of any such arrangement and whether or not to grant a request to job share.
- (b) An Employee who is in a job sharing arrangement shall be considered a Part-time Employee as defined in Article 4.01 of this Agreement and shall share rotation of the position.

- (c) Either of the Employees in a job share arrangement may discontinue the job sharing by giving the Employer and the partner thirty (30) days prior written notice.
- (d) The Employer may cancel any job sharing arrangement by giving thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employees affected. The affected Employees will return to their former or equivalent positions. The Employer will make every reasonable effort to continue job sharing arrangements.
- (e) If one job partner leaves a job sharing arrangement which the Employer has agreed to, and the Employer agrees to continue with that job share arrangement, the vacancy will be posted by the Employer in accordance with the provisions of Article 13.01.

If one of the job partners leaves and the Employer does not wish to continue the job sharing arrangement, the regular Part-time Employee(s) in the job sharing arrangement will return to their former or equivalent positions. In the event that this is not the original full-time position which became the job share position, the full-time position will be posted in accordance with the provisions of Article 13.01.

- (f) The Employees will determine the division and scheduling of their assigned hours between them and then seek agreement to that schedule from the Employer.
- (g) The Employer will be responsible for scheduling a replacement Employee where it deems necessary in cases of absence due to illness, or holidays.
- (h) Overtime shall be payable to an Employee who is participating in a job sharing arrangement in accordance with this Agreement, unless the Employee has exchanged shifts with another Employee for their convenience.
- (i) The overall cost to the Employer for holidays or any other employment related benefits shall not increase because of a job sharing arrangement.

ARTICLE 27 TERM OF AGREEMENT

- 27.01 This Agreement shall be for a term commencing on the 30th day of January, 2019 and ending on the 29th day of January, 2023.
- 27.02 Any changes to the existing terms and conditions of employment provided for in this Agreement shall be effective on the date of signing of this Agreement or such other date as may be agreed upon by the Union and the Employer.
- 27.03 This Agreement shall remain in effect from year to year after unless one of the parties hereto notifies the other within a period of not less than thirty (30) working days prior to the automatic renewal date of its intention to revise or amend this Agreement or to conclude a new Agreement. Such notices in order to be effective must be in writing and given in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act (New Brunswick).
