- (8) A Terms of Reference will be mutually developed and agreed upon by the Union and Employer. The Terms of Reference may be amended from time to time as agreed to by the Union and Employer.

6.03 Negotiating Committee

The Employer agrees to recognize a negotiating committee comprised of Employee representatives of the Union for the purpose of negotiating a renewal Agreement. The Employer agrees to pay members of the negotiating committee for straight time wages lost from their regularly scheduled working hours spent in direct negotiations for a renewal Agreement, up to the time one party notifies the other that it wishes to discontinue bargaining pursuant to paragraph 1 of Schedule B (Essential Services Agreement). Nothing in this provision is intended to preclude the Union Negotiating Committee from having the assistance of any representative of the Union when negotiating with the Employer.

The number of Employees on the negotiating committee shall not exceed four (4) Union members including the Union President, with not more than one (1) member representing any one (1) work location.

When direct negotiations begin or end within ten (10) hours of a negotiating team member's scheduled shift, the Employer will endeavor to provide one (1) day's leave of absence without pay, to provide a sufficient rest break if the Employee so requests.

Such request shall not be unreasonably denied. Such leave shall be considered leave of absence for Union business, but shall not be deducted from the union entitlement under Article 12.02.

6.04 Union Stewards

The Employer agrees to recognize a maximum of one (1) Union Steward per work location, to be elected or appointed from amongst Employees in the bargaining unit who have completed their probationary period for the purpose of dealing with Union business as provided under this Agreement.

The Union shall keep the Employer notified, in writing, of the names of Union Stewards appointed, selected, or removed under this Article as well as the effective date of their respective appointments or removal. The Employer shall not be required to recognize any Employee(s) appointed or selected as a Steward until the Employer has been notified, in writing, of the name(s) of the Steward(s) so appointed or selected.

It is agreed that Union Stewards have their regular duties and responsibilities to perform for the Employer and shall not leave their regular duties without first obtaining permission from their immediate supervisor or designate. If, in the performance of his duties, a Union Steward is required to enter a work location in which he is not normally employed, he shall report his/her presence to the supervisor or designate in the work location immediately upon entering it. Permission to enter such work location shall not be unreasonably withheld. When resuming his regular duties and responsibilities, such Steward shall again report to his immediate supervisor or designate. A Union Steward shall suffer no loss of earnings for reasonable time spent in performing the above duties during his regular scheduled working hours.

A Chief Steward or designate may, in the absence of any Steward, assist in the presentation of any grievance or with any Steward function.

Nothing in this Article shall preclude a Full-time Steward from representing Regular Part-time and Casual Employees and vice versa.

6.05 Bulletin Boards

The Employer will provide a bulletin board at each work location, which will be available for the posting of notices affecting Employees.

The Employer shall be provided with copies of notices, which shall be approved by the Employer prior to their posting, and may require the Union and/or any Employee to refrain from posting any notices which the Employer considers objectionable.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

7.01 Definition of Grievance

For purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

7.02 Presence of Union Steward

At the time discipline is imposed, or at any stage of the grievance procedure, an Employee shall have the right, upon request, to the presence of his/her Steward. In the case of suspension or discharge, the Employer shall notify the Employee of this right in advance.

7.03 Grievance Procedure

- (a) It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of Employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is understood that an Employee has no grievance until he has first given his immediate Supervisor or designate the opportunity of adjusting his complaint. The grievor may have the assistance of a Union Steward if he so desires. Such complaint shall be discussed with his immediate Supervisor or designate within nine (9) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to it have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of the Employee and, failing settlement within nine (9) calendar days, it shall then be taken up as a grievance within nine (9) calendar days following the receipt of his immediate Supervisor's or designate's decision in the following manner and sequence:

Step 1

The Employee or the Union Steward may submit a written grievance signed by the Employee to his immediate Supervisor or designate. The grievance shall specify the nature of the complaint, the article(s) of the Agreement alleged to have been violated, documentation supporting the alleged violation and the relief sought. The immediate Supervisor or designate will deliver his decision, in writing, within nine (9) calendar days following the day on which the grievance was presented to him. Failing settlement or response, then:

Step 2

Within nine (9) calendar days following the date of the decision under Step No. 1, the Employee may submit the written grievance to his Director or designate who will deliver his decision in writing within nine (9) calendar days from the date on which the written grievance was presented to him. The parties may, if they so desire, meet to discuss the grievance at a time and place suitable to both parties. This step will be omitted where the Employee's immediate Supervisor and Director or designate are the same person. Failing settlement or response, then:

Step 3

Within nine (9) calendar days following the date of the decision at Step No. 2, the grievance may be submitted, in writing, to the Administrator or his designate. A meeting will then be held between the Administrator or his designate, the grievor and the Steward and/or Chief Steward at the Employer's Administrative Office or by teleconference within nine (9) calendar days of the submission of the grievance at Step No. 3. It is understood and agreed that a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees may be present at the meeting. It is further understood that the Administrator or his designate may have such counsel and assistance as he may desire at such meeting. The decision of the Administrator or his designate shall be delivered in writing within nine (9) calendar days following the date of such meeting.

- (b) In Article 7, a written grievance or response shall be deemed to have been delivered on the third day following the date of mailing (regular or electronic mail).

7.04 Policy Grievance

A complaint or grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union concerning the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Agreement, by either party, shall be submitted, in writing, at Step No. 3, within fourteen (14) calendar days following the date the circumstances giving rise to the complaint or grievance have occurred or ought to have reasonably come to the attention of either party. It is expressly understood however, that the provisions of this Article may not be used with respect to a grievance directly affecting an Employee who could file a grievance himself and the regular grievance procedure shall not thereby be bypassed.

7.05 Group Grievance

Where a number of Employees have identical grievances and each Employee would be entitled to grieve separately they may present a group grievance, in writing, identifying each Employee who is grieving, to the Director or his designate within fourteen (14) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of the Employee(s). The grievance shall then be treated as being initiated at Step No. 2 and the applicable provisions of this article shall then apply with respect to the processing of such grievance.

7.06 Suspension or Discharge of an Employee

A claim by an Employee that he has been unjustly discharged or suspended shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged by the Employee with the Employer at Step No. 3 within seven (7) calendar days after the date the discharge or suspension is affected.

Wherever the Employer deems it necessary to suspend or discharge an Employee, the Employer shall notify the Union of such suspension or discharge in writing. The Employer agrees that it will not suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline an Employee who has completed his probationary period, without just cause.

Such special grievance may be resolved under the Grievance or Arbitration procedure by:

- (1) confirming the Employer's action in dismissing or suspending the Employee; or
- (2) in the case of suspension or discharge, reinstating the Employee with or without full compensation for the time lost; or
- (3) by any other arrangement which may be deemed just and equitable.

7.07 Abandonment of Grievance

Failing settlement under the foregoing procedure of any grievance between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, such grievance may be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided. If no written request for arbitration is received within eighteen (18) calendar days after the decision under Step No. 3 is given, the grievance shall be conclusively and finally deemed to have been abandoned.

Where such a written request is postmarked within sixteen (16) calendar days after the decision under Step No. 3, it will be deemed to have been received within the time limits.

7.08 Effect of Disposition of Grievances

All agreements reached under the grievance and arbitration procedure between the representatives of the Employer and the representatives of the Union will be final and binding upon the Employer and the Union and the Employee(s) affected.

7.09 Requisite Steps of Grievance Procedure

No matter may be submitted to arbitration, which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the grievance procedure.

7.10 Submission of Grievance to Arbitration

Should any grievance fail to be satisfactorily settled under the foregoing procedure, either party may, within fifteen (15) calendar days following receipt of the answer at Step 3, notify the other party, in writing, of its desire to submit the grievance to arbitration. The Employer and the Union shall agree upon a single arbitrator to hear the matter and, for this purpose, the party submitting the grievance to arbitration shall provide, with its notice of intent to proceed to arbitration, a list of arbitrators whom it wishes to hear the grievance.

Within 15 calendar days after receipt of such notification the other party shall provide a list of arbitrators whom it wishes to hear the arbitration and the parties shall attempt to agree upon an arbitrator. If the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator to hear the matter, either party may request the Ministry of Labour to appoint an arbitrator.

7.11 Restriction of Arbitration Chairperson

No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance except as permitted by the Ontario Labour Relations Act, 1995, as amended from time to time.

7.12 Authority of Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to, subtract from or amend any part of this Agreement, or to deal with any matter that is not a proper matter for a grievance under the Agreement.

7.13 Final and Binding Decision

The arbitrator shall hear and determine the grievance and shall issue a decision in conformity with the terms of the submission to arbitration and the decision shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon any Employee(s) affected by it.

7.14 Fees and Expenses of the Arbitrator

Each of the parties hereto shall share equally the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

7.15 Time Limits

All time limits set out in the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement are mandatory. Any agreements to extend the time periods must be in writing.

The parties agree that Section 48(16) of the Ontario Labour Relations Act, 1995 shall not apply and failure of the Employee or the Union to meet the time limits in processing the grievance will cause the grievance to expire and be abandoned and such grievance shall not be the subject of a new grievance or of arbitration. Failure of the Employer to meet its time limit shall permit the aggrieved Employee or the Union to take the grievance to the next succeeding step.

7.16 Reference to Arbitration Board

- (a) Wherever "arbitrator" is referred to in this Agreement, the parties may mutually agree, in writing, to substitute "an arbitration board" at the time of reference to arbitration and the other provisions referring to arbitration shall apply accordingly.
- (b) Should any grievance fail to be satisfactorily settled after completing all required steps of the grievance procedure, the parties may mutually agree to submit a matter to a board of arbitration rather than a single arbitrator. Upon mutual agreement, the party wishing to proceed by way of a board of arbitration shall advise the other party, in writing, and at the same time name its nominee. Within seven (7) calendar days thereafter the other party shall name its nominee. The two (2) nominees shall attempt to select, by agreement, a Chairperson to the arbitration board. If they are unable to agree upon such Chairperson within a period of fourteen (14) calendar days, they shall then request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint a Chairperson.

In the event the parties agree to a board of arbitration to hear any grievance involving the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Agreement the parties shall share equally in the fees and expenses of the arbitrator and shall be responsible for the fees and expenses of its own nominee.

7.17 Arbitration of a Discharge Grievance

Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, in the case of the arbitration of a discharge grievance the parties shall, unless agreed otherwise in writing, proceed by way of Arbitration Board and in such case the provisions of Article 7.16 shall apply.

ARTICLE 8 - ACCESS TO PERSONNEL FILE

8.01 Access to Personnel File

Each Employee shall have access to his personnel file at the Employer's Administrative Office during regular business hours for the purpose of reviewing any formal performance evaluations or formal disciplinary notations contained therein and for the purpose of ensuring accuracy and completeness in the presence of the Manager of Human Resources or his designate. An Employee has the right to request, in writing, that copies of specified documents in this file be mailed to him or her.

Access is gained through advance written notice of seven (7) working days to the Manager or immediately upon receiving any formal discipline.

An Employee having had access to his/her records may request correction of or amendments to the contents of any such records. If the request is denied, the Employee may submit a notation indicating the nature of the disagreement.

8.02 Clearing of Record

Any letter of reprimand, suspension or any other sanction (other than discharge) will be removed from the record of an Employee on a date which is eighteen (18) months following the receipt of such letter, suspension or other sanction (the "review date") provided that such Employee's record has been discipline free for one (1) year immediately preceding the review date.

ARTICLE 9 - SENIORITY

9.01 Probationary Period

A new Employee will be considered on probation until he has completed six hundred (600) hours of work within any twelve (12) consecutive calendar months. Upon completion of the probationary period he shall be credited with seniority since last date of hire. With the written consent of the Employer and the President of the Local Union or designate, such probationary period may be extended. Any extensions agreed to will be in writing and will specify the length of the extension.

9.02 Definition of Seniority

- (a) Full-time Employees will accumulate seniority on the basis of their continuous service in the Bargaining Unit from the last date of hire, except as otherwise provided herein.
- (b) Regular Part-time Employees and Casual Employees will accumulate seniority on the basis of one (1) year's seniority for each 2080 hours worked in the Bargaining Unit from the last date of hire, except as otherwise provided herein. Regular Part-time and Casual Employees will accumulate seniority up to 2080 hours in a year. Hours worked in excess of 2080 hours will not count toward seniority. Regular Part-time and Casual Employees shall not accrue more than one (1) year's seniority (2080) hours in a 12 month period starting from their anniversary date.
- (c) The "date of hire" shall be deemed to be an Employee's first day of work.
- (d) Seniority will operate on a Bargaining Unit wide basis.
- (e) Where seniority among two (2) or more Employees is equal, the determining factor will be, in order, as follows: seniority, date of hire, full-time start date, then the date the probationary period was completed. In the event all these factors are the same, the Employee with the highest ranking at their initial hiring shall be used as the determining factor.

9.03 Seniority Lists

The Employer agrees to post seniority lists for all Employees covered by this Agreement who have completed their probationary period. The Employer agrees to post the seniority list six (6) times per calendar year, being January, March, May, July, September, and November in each base. The list will be posted no later than one (1) week after the end of the first pay period in the associated month.

No objection may be taken or grievance filed by the Union or by any Employee to a seniority list unless written notice of objection is given to the Employer within thirty (30) calendar days after the posting of the seniority list. If no objections are received within the thirty (30) day period, the lists will be deemed to be accurate.

9.04 Loss of Seniority

(a) An Employee shall lose all seniority and service and shall be deemed terminated if he:

- (i) resigns;
- (ii) is discharged and not reinstated through the grievance/arbitration procedure;
- (iii) retires at any age;
- (iv) is absent from scheduled work for a period of three (3) or more consecutive working days without notifying the Employer of such absence and providing to the Employer a satisfactory reason;
- (v) has been laid off for twenty-four (24) months;
- (vi) has been laid off and fails to return to work within seven (7) calendar days after having been notified to return to work by the Employer through Registered Mail (which notification shall be deemed to be received on the third day following the date of mailing) addressed to the last address on the records of the Employer subject to Article 9.11(g);
- (vii) Is absent due to illness or disability for a period of thirty (30) calendar months from the time the disability or illness commenced. This shall not be applied in a manner which is inconsistent with the Ontario Human Rights Code, 1990.
- (viii) Allows mandatory qualifications under the Ontario Ambulance Act, 1990 and other relevant legislation to expire, unless he or she is on an approved sick leave supported by a duly qualified medical practitioner or other approved leave of absence. Employees will notify management as soon as they become aware of such lapse in qualifications and be allowed a thirty (30) day unpaid leave to rectify. Circumstances beyond the Employee's control causing the loss of qualification or delays in reinstatement will be considered extenuating circumstances and shall not result in loss of all seniority, service, and termination.

(b) In addition to the grounds listed in (a), a Casual Employee shall lose all seniority and service and shall be deemed terminated if:

- (i) the Employee moves permanently from the district and is no longer available to work; or
- (ii) the Employee fails to provide a minimum availability of eight (8) shifts over a six (6) week cycle, two (2) of which must be on weekends.

9.05 Effect of Absence

(a) Effect of Absence for Full-time Employees

- (i) It is understood that during an approved unpaid absence not exceeding thirty (30) continuous days or any approved absence paid by the Employer, both seniority and service will accrue.
- (ii) During an approved unpaid absence exceeding thirty (30) continuous calendar days, credit for service for purposes of salary increment, vacation, sick leave, or any other benefits under any provisions of the Agreement or elsewhere, shall be suspended for the period of the absence in excess of thirty (30) continuous calendar days, the benefits concerned appropriately reduced on a pro rata basis and the Employee's anniversary date adjusted accordingly. In addition, the Employee will become responsible for full payment of any subsidized Employee benefits in which he/she is participating for the period of absence, except that the Employer will continue to pay its share of the applicable group benefit premiums up to thirty (30) months from the time the absence commenced while an Employee is in receipt of WSIB or LTD benefits, or is on an approved sick leave supported by a duly qualified medical practitioner. Notwithstanding this provision, an Employee shall accrue service from the time the absence commenced, if an Employee's absence is due to a disability resulting in WSIB, LTD, or STD.

- (iii) It is further understood that during such approved unpaid absence, credit for seniority for purposes of promotion, demotion, transfer, or lay-off shall be suspended and shall not accrue during the period of absence. Notwithstanding this provision, an Employee shall accrue seniority from the time the absence commenced, if an Employee's absence is due to a disability resulting in WSIB, LTD, or STD.

(b) Effect of Absence for Regular Part-time Employees

Regular Part-time Employees shall accrue seniority for a period of eighteen (18) months and service for a period of fifteen (15) weeks if absent due to a disability resulting in WSIB benefits, on the basis of what the Employee's normal regular hours of work would have been. Regular Part-time Employees shall not accrue seniority or service during any other type of absence except as otherwise set out in the Agreement.

- (c) The parties agree that any reference to absence due to disability resulting in WSIB benefits in this Article applies only where the disability arises out of and in the course of employment with the Employer.

9.06 Transfer Within the Bargaining Unit to a Different Location

It is understood that the Employer shall not transfer an Employee to a Bargaining Unit position located at a different location without his consent except in the case of emergency. It is understood that in the event of an emergency a transfer will not exceed two consecutive weeks' duration.

- (a) Where no Employee agrees to the transfer, Employees will be assigned the transfer as follows:
  - (i) to Regular Part-time Employees in reverse order of seniority, up to eighty-four (84) hours per two week period.
  - (ii) then to Regular Full-time Employees on the basis of reverse order of seniority.
  - (iii) an Employee shall not be assigned more than once per year.
- (b) In the event that the Employee agrees to the transfer, no less than one (1) weeks' written notice shall be given. Failure to give less than one (1) weeks' notice shall result in the Employee being paid at the rate of time and one half (1 ½) his straight hourly rate for the duration of the notice period.

- (c) Where such transfer requires the Employee to live away from home, reasonable accommodation shall be provided and meal allowance shall be paid.
- (d) The Employee shall not have a reduction in earnings as a result of the transfer.

9.07 Transfer and Seniority Outside the Bargaining Unit

- (a) It is understood that the Employer shall not transfer an Employee to a position outside the Bargaining Unit, either at the same location or at another location, without his consent.
- (b) Employees on temporary assignments not exceeding six (6) months shall remain members of the Bargaining Unit and shall accumulate seniority.
- (c) In the event that the Employee agrees to transfer to a position outside the Bargaining Unit at a different location, no less than one (1) weeks' notice shall be given. Where such transfer requires the Employee to live away from home, reasonable accommodation shall be provided and meal allowance shall be paid.
- (d) Failure to give less than one (1) weeks' notice shall result in the Employee being paid at the rate of time and one half (1 ½) his straight hourly rate for the duration of the notice period.
- (e) The above noted Employee shall be allowed a trial period of up to thirty (30) days, during which the Employer will determine if the Employee can satisfactorily perform the job. Within this period the Employee may voluntarily return, or be returned without loss of seniority to his former duties on the same shift in the same department and at the appropriate rate of pay, subject to any changes, which would have occurred, had he not transferred.
- (f) Where the Employer temporarily assigns an Employee to carry out the assigned responsibilities of a classification outside the Bargaining Unit, the Employee shall be paid the rate of pay for the position for all hours worked. It is understood that the Employee shall not have a reduction in earnings as a result of the transfer.
- (g) An Employee who is transferred to a position outside the Bargaining Unit shall not, subject to (b) above, accumulate seniority. In the event the Employee is returned by the Employer to a position in the Bargaining Unit within twenty-four (24) months of the transfer he or she shall be credited with the seniority held at the time of transfer and resume accumulation from the date of his or her return to the Bargaining Unit. An Employee not returned to the Bargaining Unit within twenty-four (24) months shall forfeit Bargaining Unit seniority.

9.08 Transfer of Seniority and Service

For application of seniority for purposes of promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff and recall and service including meeting any waiting period or other entitlement requirements for purposes of vacation entitlement, STD, LTD, health and welfare benefit plans (subject to the terms of such plans) and wage progression:

- (a) an Employee whose status is changed from Full-time to Regular Part-time or Casual shall receive full credit for his seniority and service, at the rate of:
  - A maximum of 2080 hours for each completed year of service for Employees with the calculated seniority date being no earlier than the date of hire as per Article 9.02 (c).
- (b) an Employee whose status is changed from Regular Part-time or Casual to Full-time shall receive credit for his seniority and service, at the rate of:
  - one (1) year for each 2080 hours worked for Employees with the calculated seniority date being no earlier than the date of hire as per Article 9.02 (c).

9.09 Job Posting

- (a) Where a permanent vacancy occurs in a classification within the Bargaining Unit or a new position within the Bargaining Unit is established by the Employer, such vacancy shall be posted electronically for a period of seven (7) consecutive calendar days. Applications for such vacancy shall be made in writing within the seven (7) day period referred to herein.

The postings shall stipulate the qualifications, classifications, rate of pay, work location, and department and a copy shall be provided to the Secretary of the Local Union or designate.

- (b) The successful applicant will be placed into the position within thirty (30) calendar days after acceptance or as stated on the job posting. The successful applicant shall be allowed a trial period of up to thirty (30) calendar days, during which the Employer will determine if the Employee can satisfactorily perform the job. Within this period the Employee may voluntarily return, or be returned by the Employer to the position formerly occupied, without loss of seniority. The vacancy resulting from the posting may be filled in the Employer's discretion on a temporary basis until the trial period is completed.

- (c)
  - (i) In matters of promotion (except those referred to in subparagraph (ii)) and staff transfer the initial appointment shall be made of the senior applicant able to meet the normal requirements of the job. For purposes of clarity, the most senior applicant will be determined based on the bargaining unit seniority as at the last posted seniority list.

The Employees eligible for consideration shall be limited to those Employees who have applied for the position in accordance with this Article, and selection shall be made in accordance with this Article.

- (ii) The Employer and the Union agree that in case of promotions to the PCP AEMCA-Coordinator position the following factors shall be considered:
  - (a) current qualifications, including ability, knowledge, education, skill, and experience;
  - (b) three (3) or more years of seniority.

The Union agrees that where the factors set out in paragraph (a) are relatively equal, factor (b) shall govern.

- (d) The name of the successful applicant will be posted on the bulletin board, at each work location, for a period of seven (7) calendar days.
  - (i) Where a Temporary Full-time or Temporary Part-time position becomes available at a specific work location, that is expected to exceed ninety (90) calendar days, the Employer shall post the vacancy in accordance with Article 9.09(a). The temporary posting will be based on the location and status (i.e., Full-time or Part-time), not the specific schedule of the regular incumbent of the position.
  - (ii) When the temporary position is finished, the Employee in that position may have the option to accept another temporary position or displace another Employee in a temporary position at the same work location who has lesser Bargaining Unit seniority.
  - (iii) Any vacancy of less than ninety (90) calendar days will be filled at the Employer's discretion.
  - (iv) The Employer may fill temporary vacancies created by vacation scheduling in its absolute discretion.
- (e) A Regular Part-time or Casual Employee who is awarded a Temporary Full-time position shall retain his Regular Part-time or Casual status while filling the Full-time position.
- (f) Regular Full-time Employees who are awarded a Temporary Part-time position will assume the benefits and rights for that position.

9.10 Notice of Layoff

- (a) "Layoff" shall be defined as a reduction in the number of Regular Full-time or Regular Part-time Employees or a reduction in the normal weekly hours of work of one or more Regular Full-time or Regular Part-time Employees, as defined in Article 14.
- (b) Notice
In the event of a proposed layoff from the Employer of a permanent or long-term nature or the elimination of a position within the Bargaining Unit, the Employer shall:
  - (i) provide the Union with no less than two (2) months' written notice of the proposed layoff or elimination of position; and
  - (ii) provide to the affected Employee(s), if any, no less than two (2) months' written notice of layoff, or pay in lieu thereof.

Note: Where a proposed layoff results in the subsequent displacement of any member(s) of the Bargaining Unit, the original notice to the Union provided in (i) above shall be considered notice to the Union of any subsequent layoff.

- (iii) Prior to issuing notice of layoff pursuant to Article 9.10(b)(i) and (ii) in any classification(s), the Employer will offer early-retirement allowance to a sufficient number of Employees eligible for early retirement under OMERS within the classification(s) in order of seniority, to the extent that the maximum number of Employees within a classification who elect early retirement is equivalent to the number of Employees within the classification(s) who would otherwise receive notice of layoff under Article 9.10(b)(i) and (ii).

An Employee who elects an early retirement option shall receive, following completion of the last day of work, a retirement allowance of one week's salary for each year of service, plus a prorated amount for any additional partial year of service, and, in addition, Full-time Employees shall receive a single lump-sum payment equivalent to one-thousand dollars ($1,000) for each year less than age sixty-five (65) to a maximum of five-thousand dollars ($5,000) upon retirement.

- (c) A layoff shall not include a reassignment of an Employee from her or his classification or area of assignment who would otherwise be entitled to notice of layoff provided:
  - (i) the reassignment of the Employee is to an appropriate permanent job with the Employer having regard to the Employee's skills, abilities, qualifications, and training or training requirements;
  - (ii) the reassignment of the Employee does not result in a reduction of the Employee's wage rate or hours of work;
  - (iii) the job to which the Employee is reassigned is located at the Employee's original work site or at a nearby site in terms of relative accessibility for the Employee;
  - (iv) the job to which the Employee is reassigned is on the same or substantially similar shift or shift rotation; and
  - (v) where more than one Employee is to be reassigned in accordance with this provision, the reassigned Employees shall be entitled to select from the available appropriate vacancies to which they are being reassigned in order of seniority provided no such selection causes or would cause a layoff or bumping.

9.11 Layoff and Recall

- (a) In the event of a layoff, Employees shall be laid off from their work location in the reverse order of their seniority within their job classification subject to the ability and qualifications of the remaining staff to perform the available work.

An Employee in receipt of notice of layoff pursuant to Article 9.10 may:

- (i) accept the layoff; or
- (ii) Opt to receive separation allowance:

Where an Employee resigns within 30 days after receiving notice of layoff pursuant to Article 9.10 that his or her position will be eliminated, he or she shall be entitled to a separation allowance of one (1) weeks' salary for each year of continuous service to a maximum of four (4) weeks' pay, and, on production of receipts from an approved educational program, within twelve (12) months' of resignation, may be reimbursed for tuition fees up to a maximum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

- (iii) opt to retire, if eligible under the terms of OMERS; or
- (iv) displace another Employee at the same work location who has lesser Bargaining Unit seniority in the same or a lower or an identical-paying classification in the Bargaining Unit if the Employee originally subject to layoff has the qualifications and ability to meet the normal requirements of the job. An Employee so displaced shall be deemed to have been laid off and shall be entitled to notice in accordance with Article 9.10.

Or failing sufficient seniority and/or qualifications:

- (v) displace another Employee at any work location who has lesser Bargaining Unit seniority in the same or lower or an identical paying classification in the Bargaining Unit if the Employee originally subject to layoff has the qualifications and ability to meet the normal requirements of the job. An Employee so displaced shall be deemed to have been laid off and shall be entitled to notice in accordance with Article 9.10.
  - (vi) In determining the ability of an Employee to perform the work for the purposes of the paragraphs above, the Employer shall not act in an arbitrary or unfair manner.
- (b) An Employee who chooses to exercise the right to displace another Employee with lesser seniority, shall advise the Employer of his or her intention to do so, and the position claimed within seven (7) days after receiving the notice of layoff.

Note: For purposes of the operation of clause (a) (iv), an identical-paying classification shall include any classification where the straight-time hourly wage rate at the level of service corresponding to that of the laid off Employee is within ten percent (10%) of the laid off Employee's straight time hourly wage rate.

- (c) An Employee who is subject to layoff other than a layoff of a permanent or long-term nature including a Full-time Employee, whose hours of work are, subject to Article 14.01, reduced, shall have the right to accept the layoff or displace another Employee in accordance with (a) and (b) above.
- (d) An Employee shall have opportunity of recall from a layoff to an available opening, in order of seniority, provided he or she has the ability to perform the work, before such opening is filled on a regular basis under a job posting procedure. The posting procedure in the Agreement shall not apply until the recall process has been completed.

13.01 Sick Leave

Regular Full-time Employees shall earn sick leave credits at the rate of one day per month based on the Employee's normal daily hours of work as defined in Article 14.01. ### 13.04 Sick Leave Administration

Employees absent on account of sickness must notify their Immediate Supervisor at their earliest opportunity, and in any event before the commencement of their working hours, in order to permit the Employer to obtain a replacement. Employees failing to report as herein provided will be treated as absent without leave unless excused by the Employer.

Any Employee may be required to produce, at the Employer's expense, a certificate from a duly qualified practitioner for any absence due to illness or accident at the discretion of the Employer. The certificate must state that such Employee is unable to carry out his regular duties due to illness or accident and the Employee's expected date of return to work.

If a Regular Full-time Employee claims sick leave for any day prior to, or subsequent to a statutory holiday, or for any day prior to, or subsequent to his normal day off, his sick leave pay will not be granted, unless satisfactory proof of illness or accident is presented by way of a doctor's certificate, provided however, that any other evidence of such sickness satisfactory to the Employer may be accepted in lieu of such certificate.

Sick leave credits may be used by an Employee up to his/her accumulated total where the Employee has made application and is awaiting a determination of WSIB or STD benefits. In the event the WSIB or STD benefit claim is approved, the Employee shall reimburse the Employer for sick leave pay in respect of the claim and the Employee's sick leave credits will be reinstated accordingly. If no sick credits are available, the Employee may utilize any lieu time or vacation time under the same conditions as above.

The Employer will indicate the number of hours of sick leave accumulated and used by each Employee at the end of each pay period.

13.06 Medical Examinations

Employees may be required to undergo medical examinations from time to time as designated by the Employer. Any expenses associated with such examinations shall be borne by the Employer. ## ARTICLE 14 - HOURS OF WORK

14.01 Daily and Weekly Hours of Work

The following provisions are intended to define the normal hours of work and shall not be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week or of days of work per week.

The work week shall be defined as Friday to Thursday.

(a) Paramedic

(1) Eight hour shift

The normal daily hours of work for Regular Full-time and Regular Part-time Employees will be eight (8) hours per day inclusive of one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) hour paid meal break.

(2) Twelve hour shift

The normal daily hours of work for Regular Full-time, Regular Part-time and Casual Employees will be twelve (12) hours per day inclusive of a three quarter ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) hour paid meal break.

(3) Both shifts

- (i) Employees are entitled to one fifteen (15) minute rest period in each four (4) hours of work.

Where an Employee performs authorized overtime work of at least three (3) hours duration, the Employee will be entitled to one fifteen (15) minute rest period.

- (ii) When an Employee is out of his catchment area and unable to return to base for a meal, the Employee will be compensated for the cost of a meal of $20.00.

Employees are entitled to this reimbursement once after 4 hours, and once after each subsequent consecutive 8 hour period that the Employee is outside his catchment area in a shift.

- (iii) The normal work week for Regular Full-time Employees shall be forty (40) hours per week inclusive of paid meal breaks averaged over the scheduling period at each work location.

- (iv) The Employer shall not establish any shift of less than four (4) hours duration. The Employer may also arrange for "up staffing" shifts, where Employees are asked to work shifts, the duration of which is not known at the time of commencement of the shift.

In such cases Employees will only be paid overtime rates for such hours exceeding twelve (12) hours for each "up staff" shift.

- (v) Relief coverage and/or up-staffing will be offered separately at each work location as follows:

(d) to Casual Employees who have made themselves available at another work location in order of seniority, up to eighty-four (84) hours per two week pay period providing they have not exceeded 240 hours per six week schedule.

- (e) if relief coverage cannot be filled in accordance with this article then relief coverage will be filled on a mandatory basis from the bottom of the seniority list amongst Regular Part-time and Casual Employees at that work location.

Employees are required to advise the Employer, at the time of being offered relief shifts under this provision, if accepting such shift(s) would put the Employee in an overtime position, and in such case the Employer shall not be required to offer the shift to such Employee. In no event shall the Employer be required to pay overtime to Employees filling relief shifts under this provision notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement.

- (4) Call-in or up-staffing conducted by the Central Ambulance Communications Centre (CACC) for emergencies and/or to maintain sufficient emergency coverage shall not be required to adhere to the procedure set out in subparagraph (v).

The Employer will provide CACC with a copy of the call-in protocol and up to date Employee seniority lists including the Employee's primary phone number, from each work location.

14.02 Scheduling

- (a) An Employee shall not be required to work more than five (5) consecutive 8 hour shifts or more than four (4) consecutive 12 hour shifts without the Employee's consent. If an Employee is required to work more than the stipulated number of consecutive shifts, the Employee shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the regular hourly rate for all scheduled hours worked on the next consecutive shift.
- (b) An Employee working a combination of 8 and 12 hour shifts shall not work more than five consecutive shifts. If an Employee is required to work more than the stipulated number of consecutive shifts, the Employee shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the regular hourly rate for all scheduled hours worked on the next consecutive shift.
- (c) There shall be at least twelve (12) consecutive hours off between shifts and at least 48 consecutive hours following a period of night shifts when changing to the day shift. Failure to provide such time off will result in pay at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) regular hourly rate for the Employee's next shift. This will not apply when an Employee has accepted an extra shift or a change in the start time for a shift.
- (d) The Employer will schedule days off on the basis of no less than forty-eight (48) consecutive hours. Failure to provide forty-eight (48) consecutive hours off shall result in pay at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the regular hourly rate for all scheduled hours worked on the Employee's next shift. This will not apply when an Employee has accepted an extra shift during their scheduled days off.
- (e) At least thirty-three (33%) percent of weekends shall be scheduled off in each master rotation. This shall not preclude scheduling more frequent weekends off. An Employee will be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) for all scheduled hours worked on additional weekends in a rotation save and except where:

1. such weekend has been worked by the Employee to satisfy specific days off requested by such Employee; or
  2. such Employee has requested weekend work; or
  3. such weekend has been worked as the result of an exchange of shifts with another Employee.
- (f) A weekend is defined as a minimum of forty-eight (48) consecutive hours scheduled off work between 1800 hours Friday and 0800 hours Monday.
- (g) The Union and the Employer agree that it is of mutual benefit to have schedules that provide a balance between adequate coverage to meet operational demands and promotes health and wellness of Employees. Where schedule change is proposed by the Union, the Employer may consider the change, with the final approval being made by the Employer.
- (h) Shift schedules and on-call schedules will be posted at least four (4) weeks in advance, utilizing accepted posting practices, as determined by the Employer.
- (i) Requests for change in posted time schedules must be submitted using the accepted method as determined by the Employer and co-signed by an Employee willing to exchange days off or shifts. It is understood that such change in days off or shifts initiated by the Employee and approved by the Employer shall not result in overtime or premium payment.
- (j) When a tour shift schedule is changed by the Employer without twenty-four (24) hours' notice, the Employee shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1½) the regularly hourly rate for the first shift of the schedule.

14.03 Daylight Savings Time

It is understood that normal hours of work include those required to accommodate the change from Daylight Savings Time to Standard Time, and vice versa, to which the other provisions of the Articles dealing with Hours of Work and Overtime do not apply. It is further understood that all hours worked will be paid at the regular straight rate as a result of the change-over to Daylight Savings Time from Standard Time or vice versa.

14.04 Court Duty (Work Related)

If an Employee (Regular Full-time, Regular Part-time, or Casual) is required by subpoena to attend a court of law or coroner's inquest in connection with a case arising from the Employee's duties with the Employer, Employees shall be paid at their regular straight time hourly rate for all hours for which the Employee's attendance is required in court and travelling to and from court provided that the Employee:

In addition to the foregoing, where a Full-time Employee or Regular Part-time Employee is required by subpoena to attend a court of law or coroner's inquest in connection with a case arising from the Employee's duties with the Employer on his regularly scheduled day off, the Employer will attempt to reschedule the Employee's regular day off.

Should the Employer not be able to reschedule the Employee's regular day off, the Employee shall be paid for such attendance at the appropriate rate of pay as per Article 20.03.

Where the Employee's attendance is required during a different shift than he is scheduled to work that day, the Employer will attempt to reschedule the shift to include the time spent at such hearing. It is understood that any rescheduling shall not result in the payment of any premium pay.

14.05 Travel Time

When an Employee is required to travel to/from a work location other than his home work location at the request of the Employer, or is required to attend courses in a community outside his home work location, the Employee shall be entitled to pay at their regular straight time hourly rate for hours spent in travel. Employees may be required to travel to such courses during their regularly scheduled hours. Time spent in travel pursuant to this article outside an Employee's regular scheduled hours will not be counted as hours of work for overtime purposes. No other travel time will be compensated except as provided herein.

14.06 Travel - Training

If the Employer offers training in the Employee's home work location, the Employer will not pay travel time if the Employee chooses a location outside their home work location. Employees who have approved vacation during the mandatory training whose vacation was approved prior to the Employer releasing the dates to the Employees and Employees who are off on approved sick leave supported by a duly qualified practitioner or other approved leave of absence will not be subject to this clause.

An Employee who has followed the training schedule deadlines and who has not been provided an available spot for training at their home work location and is therefore required to attend training at another work location will not be subject to this clause.

The Employer agrees to introduce a pre-paid leave program, funded solely by the Employee subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) The plan is available to Employees wishing to spread four (4) years' salary over a five (5) year period, in accordance with Part LXVIII of the Income Tax Regulations, Section 6801, to enable them to take a one (1) year leave of absence following the four (4) years of salary deferral.
- (b) The Employee must make written application to the Employer at least six (6) months prior to the intended commencement date of the program (i.e., the salary deferral portion), stating the intended purpose of the leave.
- (c) The number of Employees that may be absent at any one time shall be determined between the local parties. The year for purposes of the program shall be January 1st of one year to December 31st the following year or such other twelve (12) month period as may be agreed upon by the Employee, the Local Union and the Employer.
- (d) Where there are more applications than spaces allotted, seniority shall govern.
- (e) During the four (4) years of salary deferral, 20% of the Employee's gross annual earnings will be deducted and held for the Employee and will not be accessible to the Employee until the year of the leave or upon withdrawal from the plan.
- (f) The manner in which the deferred salary is held shall be at the discretion of the Employer.
- (g) All deferred salary, plus accrued interest, if any, shall be paid to the Employee at the commencement of the leave or in accordance with such other payment schedule as may be agreed upon between the Employer and the Employee.
- (h) All benefits shall be kept whole during the four (4) years of salary deferral. During the year of the leave, seniority will accumulate. The Employee shall become responsible for the full payment of premiums for any health and welfare benefits in which the Employee is participating.

Contributions to the OMERS Pension Plan will be in accordance with the Plan. The Employee will not be eligible to participate in the disability income plan during the year of the leave.

- (j) If the Employee terminates employment, the deferred salary held by the Employer plus accrued interest, if any, will be returned to the Employee within a reasonable period of time. In case of the Employee's death, the funds will be paid to the Employee's estate.
- (k) The Employer will endeavour to find a temporary replacement for the Employee as far in advance as practicable. If the Employer is unable to find a suitable replacement, it may postpone the leave. The Employer will give the Employee as much notice as is reasonably possible. The Employee will have the option of remaining in the Plan and rearranging the leave at a mutually agreeable time or of withdrawing from the Plan and having the deferred salary, plus accrued interest, if any, paid out to the Employee within a reasonable period of time.
- (l) The Employee will be reinstated to his or her former position unless the position has been discontinued, in which case the Employee shall be given a comparable job.
- (m) Final approval for entry into the pre-paid leave program will be subject to the Employee entering into a formal agreement with the Employer in order to authorize the Employer to make the appropriate deductions from the Employee's pay. Such agreement will include:
  - (i) A statement that the Employee is entering the pre-paid leave program in accordance with this Clause of the Collective Agreement.

MEMORANDUM OF SETTLEMENT (RE: Code 8's)

IN THE MATTER OF an arbitration arising out of grievance LASL-16-13 filed against Kenora District Services Board pursuant to a Collective Agreement between:

KENORA DISTRICT SERVICES BOARD

(the "Employer")

-and-

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES - LOCAL 5911

(the "Union")

WHEREAS the Union filed grievance LASL-16-13 alleging, among other things, a breach of Article 15.09, the Memorandum of Settlement for Grievance L-01-06-02 (the "Call-in MOS");

AND WHEREAS the Union filed related grievance LASL-16-20;

AND WHEREAS the parties appeared before Arbitrator Dana Randall on May 18, 2017;

AND WHEREAS the parties now wish to resolve the matters between them;

NOW THEREFORE the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties agree that the Call-in MOS is still in effect.
2. The parties agree that the Employer may call in to work Employees who are on-call for a Code 3, Code 4, or Code 8, but not call into work Employees who are on-call for a Code 1 or Code 2.
3. An Employee called in to work pursuant to Article 15.09 of the Collective Agreement may be assigned subsequent calls, prior to being cleared from duty by CACC, as part of the original call (and eligible for only the single call in premium) where subsequent calls are a Code 3, Code 4, or Code 8.
4. Code 8 is a Standby Call, which is defined in the Manual of Practice (effective November 1, 2006) as vehicle or ambulance crew utilization to provide emergency coverage or for anticipation of a call, as amended from time to time by the Ministry of Health and Long-term Care.
5. Code 8 can be used for assigning an ambulance resource to provide on-site EMS coverage at police or fire service incidents, relocating an ambulance or emergency response vehicle to provide standby coverage for another land ambulance service operator, and the assignment of an ambulance or emergency response vehicle to a predetermined location for the purpose of re-establishing emergency coverage. For clarity, a predetermined location can include any location within Kenora District, including any ambulance base, where the Employer determines assigning a vehicle to that location is required to re-establish emergency coverage.

6. Article 15.09(d) states as follows:

(d) An Employee may return home after having completed the work for which he was called in. This includes having cleaned and restocked the vehicle, completed and submitted the e-ACR, and contacting CACC to be cleared from base.

7. The parties agree that the time at which the e-ACR is submitted is not necessarily the time that coincides with the end of the Employee's call-in shift.

8. The call-in shift ends when the Employee has cleaned and restocked the vehicle, completed and submitted the e-ACR, and contacted CACC to be cleared from base.

9. The parties agree that grievances LASL-16-13 and LASL-16-20 are resolved.

10. This Settlement is without prejudice or precedent to any other matter and will not be relied on in any other matter except for the purposes of enforcing the terms herein.

11. This Settlement cannot be relied on by either party in future grievances/arbitrations as evidence of either party's understanding of the issues covered in this Settlement prior to the date of this Settlement or as evidence supporting a past practice, or lack thereof, with respect to any of the issues covered in this Settlement prior to the date of this Settlement.

12. The parties agree to refer any issues or disputes relating to the terms or implementation of this Memorandum of Settlement to binding arbitration.
