The Union agrees that subject to the terms of the Collective Agreement, it is the exclusive function of the Association to:

- manage its businesses;
- direct the working forces (including, but not limited to, determining schedules, shifts, hours, and the contents of jobs) in a fair and equitable manner;
- suspend, discharge or discipline Employees for just cause; hire, promote, demote, transfer, and lay-off Employees; and

The other shall be the alternate in cases of the absence of the designate. The Union shall be notified in writing of the names and contact information of the Staff Relations Officers.

ARTICLE 3 – RECOGNITION AND SCOPE

3.01 Scope of the Bargaining Unit

The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees and its Local 1281 as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for "all persons employed by GSA Carleton Inc. in the City of Ottawa, save and except the Hospitality and Operations Manager, Executive Director, and persons above the rank of Supervisor" and hereby agrees to negotiate with the Union, or any of its authorized committees, concerning all matters affecting the relationship between parties, aiming towards a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.

3.02 Indigenous Land Acknowledgement

The Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) Local 1281 and the Carleton University Graduate Student's Association (GSA) acknowledges that the Carleton campus is located on the traditional, unceded, and unsurrendered Algonquin Nation territory. By this acknowledgement, we pay respect to the Algonquin Nation, and we remind ourselves of the ongoing impacts of our colonial communities on Indigenous people, and we also commit to taking action toward reconciliation. Due to the sacrifices and injustices, many Indigenous people faced and still face today, we would not be standing here today, so for this we give thanks as we stand in solidarity with the Anishinaabe Nation.

3.03 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Persons whose jobs (paid or unpaid) are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit, except in cases of emergency, training, or other situations that are mutually agreed upon in writing by the Parties.

- (1) The Union will file a written Grievance with the Employer's Representative within ten (10) business days of the Employer's response provided to the initial complaint at Step One, except for a grievance filed under Article 28 (Health and Safety) in which case the Union will have fifteen (15) business days or Article 4 (No Discrimination/Harassment), in which case the Union will have thirty (30) business days. The statement of grievance shall indicate the name(s) of the grievor(s) where applicable, the facts giving rise to the grievance, and indication by specific reference to the provision or provisions of this Agreement alleged to be violated, and shall indicate the relief sought.

- (5) Should no further request or response be brought forward by the Union within the ten (10) business days of the Employer's response being issued or a meeting taking place, the matter will be considered to be resolved to the mutual satisfaction of the parties, and no further action will be expected or required.

(c) Step Three: Meeting

If the grievance is not settled at Step Two, the Union may, within ten (10) business days of receiving the Employer's response at Step Two, request a meeting with the Employer. The Employer shall meet with the Union and the

(e) Mediation

The parties agree that it is their intent to resolve grievances without recourse to arbitration, wherever possible. Therefore, notwithstanding Step four (4) above, the parties may, upon mutual agreement, engage the services of a mediator in an effort to resolve the grievance and may extend the time limits for the request for arbitration. The parties will share equally the fees and expenses, if any, of the mediator.

11.05 Union Representation

The grievor shall have the right to be present at all steps of the grievance procedure and will be accompanied by a Union Representative. The grievor may delegate a Union Representative to act on their behalf for any step of the grievance procedure.

11.06 No Interference

After a grievance has been initiated, the Employer's representative shall not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved Employees, without the consent of the authorized representative of the Union Executive or the Service Coordinator. Violation of this section shall result in the grievance being allowed.

11.07 Bypassing Step 1 Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving a policy grievance occurs, in which there is a question of the general application or interpretation of the Collective Agreement, or where a group of Employees or the Union has a grievance, Step 1, of this Article will be bypassed.

ARTICLE 12 – ARBITRATION

When a dispute or grievance has been properly carried through all steps of the grievance procedure outlined in Article 11, the request to proceed to arbitration shall be made by registered mail addressed to the other party of the Agreement, indicating the name of its nominee on an arbitration board. Within ten (10) business days thereafter, the other party shall answer by registered mail indicating the name and address of its appointee to the arbitration board. The two appointees shall select an impartial chairperson who will hear the case within ninety (90) days.

ARTICLE 13 – DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

13.01 Just Cause

The Employer will not discipline, suspend, or discharge an Employee without just cause.

13.02 Progressive Discipline Procedure

The Employer accepts and gives effect to the principle of progressive discipline, and therefore agrees that, except in cases of extreme misconduct, discipline will proceed as follows: meeting, written warning, notification of discipline, suspension(s), and discharge. In such cases, the Employee and the Union shall be clearly informed in writing and it shall be clearly stated that it is a meeting or written warning or notification of discipline or disciplinary action. The Employer recognizes that prior to imposing discipline, an Employee will be given a reasonable opportunity to correct the situation about which there has been a complaint. Failure of the Employer to conform with the provisions of this clause shall render the discipline or discharge null and void.

13.03 Discipline Procedure

(a) Step 1 – Meeting

Prior to any discipline, the Employer, who has a complaint or who has received a complaint shall notify the Employee and the Union in writing and schedule a meeting to be held within ten (10) business days to discuss the subject matter of the complaint formally. The notice of meeting shall include a brief but clear statement of the allegations, which form the basis of the complaint, as well as the time, place, and date of the meeting, and shall inform the Employee of their right to Union representation at the meeting. At the meeting the Employer shall outline the complaint and subsequently provide an opportunity for the Employee to respond to the allegation. A Union representative, which may include the Shop Steward, must be present for the meeting to occur.

If the parties agree at the meeting that the complaint is not valid or is dismissed, then the Employer shall immediately expunge from the Employee's personnel file and all Employer records the notification of the Step 1 Meeting and any documents related to the complaint.

(b) Step 2A – Written Warning

If the complaint is not dismissed, or otherwise resolved, as a result of the meeting in Step 1, or where the Employee waives explicitly, or implicitly by not attending their opportunity for such meeting the Employer, within fifteen business days may issue a Written Warning. The Written Warning shall state that disciplinary action may be imposed, in accordance with the procedures herein contained and/or, where the complaint concerns the standard of the Employee's work, if the employee fails to bring their work up to a reasonable standard by a given date to be determined by the Employer. Such date shall give the employee reasonable opportunity to correct the problem(s) referred to in the Written Warning. No act, omission, or failure to conform to a required standard shall appear in a Written Warning, which did not appear in the Notice of Meeting issued at Step 1.

Step 2B

An Employee receiving a Written Warning may respond in writing within ten (10) business days. Any response provided will become part of their personal record and such reply will be prepared by the employee outside of regular working hours. The response may request a meeting to take place between the Employee, the Union and the Employer to discuss the warning.

(c) Step 3 – Notification of Disciplinary Action

The Employer may implement disciplinary action after issuing the Written Warning if the problem is not corrected by the date specified in the Written Warning. The Employer shall advise the Employee and the Union, in writing, of the disciplinary action to be taken.

Suspension and then discharge shall only be imposed following the issuance of Notification of Disciplinary Action and only in accordance with the terms defined in such document. Employees will be notified in writing of the grounds for suspension or discharge with a copy immediately provided in writing to the Shop Steward and to the Union.

13.04 Scope of Discipline

The Employer shall not discipline an Employee for any reason other than those contained in the Notice of Meeting as set out in Step 1, except in cases of extreme misconduct.

13.05 Burden of Proof

In cases of discipline, suspension, and discharge, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

13.06 Probationary Employee

Newly hired Part-time Employees shall be considered to be on a probationary status for a period of three (3) months from the date of hiring. Newly hired Full-time Employees shall be considered to be on a probationary status for six (6) months from the date of hiring. The probationary period may be extended by the Employer after a consultation meeting with the Employee and their Union Representative has occurred to discuss the reasons for the extension. During the probationary period, such Employees shall be entitled to all applicable rights and privileges of this Collective Agreement except with respect to discharge, unless the Union identifies a discrimination claim (as noted in Article 4) as the basis of the termination. Furthermore, in assessing the discharge of a probationary Employee, an arbitrator shall take into account whether the standards expected were reasonable, whether the Employee was notified of them, and given a fair opportunity to demonstrate their ability, whether the Employee was notified of deficiencies in their performance, and given an opportunity to correct them, and whether the Employer's assessment of the Employee was fair and reasonable.

13.07 Right to Have Steward and authorized CUPE Representative Present

An Employee shall have the right to have their Steward present at any disciplinary meeting as agreed to in the Discipline Procedure. The Shop Steward or local Union officer will have the right to consult with a CUPE Staff Representative and to have them present at any discussion with supervisory personnel.

13.08 Right to Confidentiality

The Employer and the Union agree that all correspondence and meetings related to the disciplinary procedures and grievances will be kept strictly confidential, and limited to the parties directly involved in the investigation and processing of the complaint.

13.09 Personnel Records

- (a) An Employee file may contain entries of a disciplinary nature, and such files will be deemed as evidence of the Employer's implementation of progressive discipline with regard to any directly related grievance and arbitration.
- (b) The record of a disciplinary action, including matters forming the basis of or raised during such a disciplinary action, will not be referred to or used against an Employee after a period of twelve (12) months following such an action.
- (c) Employees will have the right at any time to access and review their personnel records; furthermore, Employees have the right to respond in writing to any document contained therein. All such replies will become part of the Employee's permanent record.
- (d) All personnel records will be kept in a secure location on the Employer's premises to ensure strict confidentiality.
- (e) The Employer will keep all personnel records for a period of twelve (12) months after Step One. All files are to be shredded after this twelve (12) month period.

13.10 Justification for Immediate Disciplinary Action

Notwithstanding the above, where an Employee's misconduct is of an extreme nature, the Employer reserves the right to discipline an Employee for just cause, without first having such Meeting, or issuing a Written Warning or Notification of Discipline. The onus of just cause is on the Employer and if the Employer cannot prove just cause, the Employee shall be reinstated with full pay and benefits retroactive to the date of termination without any seniority change.

13.11 Business Day

For the purposes of Article 13 only, the definition of Business Day shall not include vacation time and/or sick days taken by the employee, the Staff Relations Officer, and/or the authorized Union Representative.
