- (a) An individual grievance is a dispute affecting one (1) Employee. Such grievances will be initiated at Step 1 of the grievance procedure as outline in Article 11.06 (a) except in cases of suspension or dismissal which will commence at Step 2. The form will be signed by the Union; or

- (b) A group grievance is a dispute affecting two (2) or more Employees. Such grievances will be initiated at Step 2 and processed from there in the same manner as an individual grievance as outlined in Article 11.06 (b). A group grievance will list all Employees affected by the grievance and the results of such grievance will apply, proportionately if applicable, to all Employees listed on the original grievance; or
- (c) A policy grievance is a dispute between the parties, which, due to its nature is not properly the subject of an individual or a group grievance. If the policy grievance is a Union grievance, it will commence at Step 2. If the policy grievance is an Employer grievance, it will be directed to the President of the Local, or designate, and the Local President, or designate, will hold a meeting within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance. The Local President, or designate, will render a written decision within ten (10) days of the date of the meeting. Upon receipt of response or failure to reply, the Employer may advance the grievance to Arbitration.

11.04 Authorized Representatives

- (a) An Employee may be assisted and represented by an authorized Union Representative at each step of the grievance procedure. Only one (1) Union Representative may assist the Employee at any time, unless there is mutual agreement for a second Union Representative to attend.
- (b) The Employer agrees that the Shop Steward will not be hindered, coerced, or interfered with in any way in the performance of their functions while investigating disputes and presenting adjustments as provided in this Article. However, no representative will leave the Employee's work without obtaining consent from the Employee's supervisor, which will not be unreasonably withheld. The Shop Steward will not suffer any loss of pay for time spent in the performance of duties involving a grievance, provided that the Shop Steward does not leave the Employer's premises.

11.05 Mandatory Conditions

- (a) It is agreed that the presentation and processing of any grievance must be within the applicable time limits set out. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.
- (b) During any and all grievance proceedings, the Employee will continue to perform the Employee's duties, except in cases of suspension or dismissal.

11.06 Steps of the Grievance Procedure

(a) Step 1

An Employee, with or without a Shop Steward (at the Employee's option), will attempt to resolve a grievance through discussion with their immediate supervisor or designate within ten (10) days of when the Employee became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of the occurrence which led to the grievance. Both parties will make every effort to settle the dispute at this stage. If the grievance is not settled at this stage, it may be advanced to Step 2 within ten (10) days.

(b) Step 2

- (i) If the matter is not resolved at Step 1, the Union, on behalf of the Employee, will submit the grievance in writing to the Executive Director or designated representative, clearly outlining the full particulars of the alleged violation, including the article(s) involved, the nature of the grievance and the redress sought. The written grievance must be submitted within ten (10) days of the Step 1 discussion with the supervisor.
- (ii) For a group grievance, the grievance must be submitted in writing within ten (10) days of the date any of the aggrieved parties became aware of the event or reasonably should have become aware of the event leading to the grievance. The grievance should clearly outline the full particulars of the alleged violation, including the article(s) involved, the nature of the grievance and the redress sought.

The Executive Director or designated representative will hold a meeting within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance. The Executive Director or designated representative will render a written decision within ten (10) days of the date of the meeting.

If the grievance is not settled at this stage, it may be advanced to Step 3.

(c) Step 3

Within ten (10) days of the reply from the Executive Director or designated representative, the Union, on behalf of the Employee, will submit the grievance in writing to the Provincial Director or the designated representative. The Provincial Director or designated representative will hold a meeting within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance. The Employee will be entitled to have a representative of the Union present during the meeting. The Provincial Director or designated representative will render a written decision within ten (10) days of the date of the meeting.

If the grievance is not settled at this stage the Union may decide to proceed to Arbitration.

ARTICLE 12 - ARBITRATION

12.01 The parties to this Agreement acknowledge that any difference which has been properly carried through all steps of the grievance procedure outlined and which has not been settled, will, at the written request of either of the parties, be referred to an Arbitration Board within thirty (30) working days of receipt of the reply of the final step. The parties, in writing, may mutually agree to the appointment of a sole Arbitrator. If they cannot agree on the appointment of the sole Arbitrator in fourteen (14) calendar days, the selection of the sole Arbitrator shall be referred to the Director of Mediation Services for the Province of Alberta. Upon appointment, the sole Arbitrator shall be governed by the provisions of this Agreement dealing with an Arbitration board.

12.02 The party referring the difference to arbitration shall notify the other party of its desire to proceed to arbitration and in the notice, the party requesting arbitration shall include the name of its Nominee to the Arbitration Board.

Within seven (7) days of receiving this notice, the party receiving the notice shall name its nominee to the Arbitration Board and notify the other party.

12.03 Within seven (7) days of the appointment of the second nominee, the two (2) nominees shall select a Chairperson of the Arbitration Board. If such an agreement cannot be reached in that time, the nominees will request the Director of Mediation Services for the Province of Alberta to appoint a Chairperson. The decision of the majority of the Board is the decision of the Board. Its decision is final and binding on the parties and the persons covered by this Agreement.

12.04 The Board's decision shall not alter, amend, add to or change the terms of this Agreement. It has no jurisdiction to determine any matter other than the difference arising out of the dispute. If the Arbitration Board determines that an Employee has been discharged or otherwise disciplined for cause, the Arbitration Board may substitute some other penalty for the discharge or discipline that the Board deems to be just and reasonable in all the circumstances.

12.05 The parties will pay their own expenses including those of their witnesses and the expenses of their respective nominee. The parties to this Agreement shall share the expenses of the Chairperson equally.

12.06 Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Board's decision, either party may apply to the Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration to reconvene the Board to clarify the decision, which it shall do within five (5) days. Any application to the Chairperson must be made within sixty (60) days of the date of the decision of the Arbitration Board.

ARTICLE 13 - SENIORITY

13.01 Seniority Accrual

Employees will accumulate seniority on the basis of one (1) year for each one thousand nine hundred and fifty (1,950) hours worked. Seniority will be acquired when an Employee has completed their probationary period and be retroactive to the last date of hiring.

Casual Employees will not accrue seniority; however, a record will be kept of the hours worked by a Casual Employee. In the event the Employee is accepted for full-time or part-time employment, they will be credited with seniority equivalent to all hours worked as a Casual Employee in that classification.

A separate call-in list for Casual Employees will be used for the purpose of filling available shifts in each classification. The list will be based on the number of hours worked in that classification.

Employees will accumulate seniority (based on their normal work schedule) during:

- (a) Periods of sick leave paid by the Employer.
- (b) Leaves of absence with pay.
- (c) Bereavement leave
- (d) Employer paid Jury/Witness duty
- (e) Paid vacations
- (f) When in receipt of Worker's Compensation as a result of an injury or illness incurred while in the employ of the Employer
- (g) While on approved Union leave of absence
- (h) While on maternity/parental leave

13.02 The Employer will provide a seniority list by Employee number only for the purpose of posting on the Union bulletin board in December and June of each year. A copy shall be provided to the Union.

13.03 Upon five (5) business days written notice (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and named holidays) to the Employer, an Employee will be provided with their current seniority status.

13.04 Transfer to Full-Time Employment

All seniority, vacation and other credits obtained under this Agreement shall be retained and transferred with the Employee when they are reclassified from full-time employment to part-time employment and/or from part-time employment to full-time employment.

13.05 Loss of Seniority

An Employee will not lose accrued seniority if the Employee is absent from work because of sickness, layoff, or leave of absence approved by the Employer.

An Employee will lose their seniority and their employment will be deemed terminated in the event:

- (a) they are discharged for just cause and not reinstated;
- (b) they resign;
- (c) they are absent from work in excess of three (3) working days without sufficient cause or without notifying the Employer, unless reasonable proof is provided;
- (d) they fail to return to work within three (3) calendar days following a layoff and after being notified by certified mail to do so, unless through sickness or other just cause. It will be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address. An Employee recalled for casual work or employment of short duration at a time when they are employed elsewhere will not lose their recall rights for refusal to return to work;
- (e) they are laid off for a period longer than twelve (12) months;
- (f) they are absent from work for more than thirty (30) months by reason of illness or other physical disability and there is no reasonable likelihood the Employee will return to work within the near future;
- (g) they are absent from work for more than thirty (30) months by reason of absence while on WCB and there is no reasonable likelihood the Employee will return to work within the near future.

13.06 A part-time Employee and temporary Employee cannot use seniority for the purpose of bumping a full-time Employee.

ARTICLE 14 - PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

14.01 A newly hired full-time or part-time Employee must successfully complete a probationary period of four hundred and fifty (450) hours worked or five (5) months of work whichever comes first, on or before the expiry of the initial probationary period. The Employer will confirm to the Employee the decision to confirm their appointment as having completed their probation or extend the probationary period by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

The probationary period is for the purpose of training Employees and to allow the Employer to assess Employee's suitability for continued employment.

ARTICLE 15 - JOB POSTING, PROMOTIONS, TRANSFERS, VACANCIES

- 15.01 All permanent or temporary vacancies in a bargaining unit position shall be posted within five (5) days and remain posted for seven (7) days. The posting shall indicate the date of the posting, the closing date for applications, the department in which the vacancy is to be filled and the classification, qualifications, hours of work and rate of pay for the posted position. For temporary positions the end date of the temporary positions shall also be included on the posting.
- 15.02 If no applications are received by completion of the posted time the Employer may fill the vacancy at its discretion.
- 15.03 Until the vacancy is filled, the Employer may fill the vacancy at its discretion on a temporary basis.
- 15.04 Both Parties recognize:
- (a) The principle of promotion within the seniority/service of the Employer;
 - (b) That job opportunity should increase in proportion to length of seniority/service. Therefore, in a case where bargaining unit Employees who are willing, able and qualified apply (applications shall be in writing) for a posted position, the Employer shall select the Employee with the greatest seniority within fourteen (14) days of the closing date of the posting. The qualifications for the new position or vacancy shall be consistent with the responsibilities specified in the job description including education, skills, training and acceptable performance. If all these factors are equal, seniority shall be the deciding factor. The Employer will give every consideration to applicants for full-time employment from part-time Employees, providing they are willing, have acceptable job performance, able and qualified for the posted position. Successful applicants should be posted on the Union board with a copy to the Union.

ARTICLE 16 - BULLETIN BOARDS

- 16.01 The Employer shall provide separate boards only for Union use to be placed in the Health and Wellness Center in order that the Employees named in the certificate shall have access to it and upon which the Union shall have the right to post seniority lists, notices of meetings, education conferences and Union conventions. No other notices will be posted without prior written or initialled approval of the Employer.

This leave must be applied for in writing at least one (1) month in advance of the leave and must indicate the expected date of return to full employment status. The Employee may choose to work at the Residence on a temporary basis during this period. The Employer has the right to approve or disapprove such leave.
- 17.04 Benefits will accrue from the date of return to employment following such leave of absence. No Employee will accumulate seniority, sick leave, or earned vacation nor will other benefits be paid or accrued while on a leave of absence, other than those outlined below:
