- workplace conflict itself does not constitute harassment;
- difficult conditions of employment;
- consensual social relationships between colleagues. This includes consensual workplace jokes and interactions, unless these interactions are based on hurtful and/or offensive remarks; or

Prior to proceeding with the formal grievance process, the parties agree that discussions should occur between employees, Union representatives and Employer representatives when problems or differences arise in an attempt to resolve problems or differences. This grievance procedure is not intended to preclude any consultation process between the employees, their Union representatives and Employer representatives prior to the decision of an arbitrator.

Therefore, the following procedure has been designed with those principles in mind.

25.02 Definition of Grievance

If a difference arises between:

- (a) the Employer and an employee(s), or
- (b) the Employer and the Union concerning the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of the Agreement, or relating to the discipline or discharge of an employee, where such employee believes the discipline or discharge is without just and sufficient cause, the employee(s), the Union, or the Employer shall have the right to file a grievance. Nothing in this provision deprives employees of any rights or remedies to which they are entitled in any legislation including the transfer legislation. All employee grievances must have the approval and support of the bargaining agent.

25.03 Time Limits

The time limits set out in the Grievance and Arbitration procedures are as stated in this Agreement, however by mutual agreement they may be altered. In calculating all time limits, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays shall be excluded.

25.08 Grievance Stages

Stage 1

If the issue cannot be resolved informally, then, within ten (10) days of the employee becoming aware of the matter giving rise to the difference, the Union may submit a written grievance to the Airport Manager, including the details of the grievance, the Article(s) of the Agreement considered to have been violated and the redress requested. Within ten (10) days of the receipt of the grievance, the Airport Manager shall provide the opportunity for a hearing according to Article 25.05 and shall give written response delivered confidentially only to the employee and the Union representative.

A grievance initiated by the Employer shall be processed at Stage 2. Only the Airport Manager may submit a grievance on behalf of the Employer. The Union shall respond to all Employer grievances within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance.

25.09 Arbitration

The parties agree that it is mutually beneficial to make every effort to resolve all differences before reaching this stage in the grievance process, however, if the grievance is not satisfactorily settled under Stage 2, then the grievance may be referred to arbitration, within thirty (30) days of the expiry of the time limits set out in Stage 2.

The parties agree that a single arbitrator shall be used as provided for in the Canada Labour Code. The Employer and the Union shall make every effort to agree on the selection of the arbitrator within twenty (20) days after the party requesting arbitration has delivered written notice of submission of the difference to arbitration.

In the event that the parties fail to agree on the choice of an arbitrator, they shall forthwith request the Minister of Labour to appoint an arbitrator.

The arbitrator shall have all the powers vested in it by the Canada Labour Code, including, in the case of discharge or discipline, the power to substitute for the discharge or discipline such other penalties that the arbitrator deems just and reasonable in the circumstances, including compensation for lost income. The arbitrator shall render their award within a reasonable period.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

Each party shall bear half (½) the cost of the arbitrator. Employee(s) involved and Union representatives shall be given leave without pay to attend arbitration hearings.

When essential overtime becomes the operational norm, the Employer recognizes its obligation to employ sufficient workers to avoid the excessive use of overtime. - (a) Overtime shall be paid out except where, upon request of an employee, it may be accumulated in equivalent leave with pay (compensatory leave). The duration of such leave will be equal to the overtime worked multiplied by the applicable overtime rate. Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort:

- (i) to grant the employee's compensatory leave request during the twelve (12) month period in which it is earned, with five (5) days' notice and no more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the requested leave.
