ARTICLE 1 PURPOSE

- 1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to:
- a. Outline the terms and conditions of employment.
 - b. Promote and maintain harmonious relationships between the Employer and all Employees.
 - c. Provide an amicable method of preventing and settling differences which may arise from time to time; and
 - d. Provide for the carrying on of the Employer's business which will further, to the fullest extent possible, efficiency and economy of operations while promoting the safety and welfare of Employees.

ARTICLE 2 RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 5446 as the exclusive bargaining agent for all Full-time, Part-time and Casual Employees of the Employer working at Carleton Hall, Saint John, New Brunswick in the following classifications:

- a. Cook 1
- b. Cook 2
- c. Lead Server
- d. Wait Staff
- e. Dishwasher
- f. Housekeeper

The bargaining unit excludes the General Manager, Client Services Manager, Executive Chef, Sous Chef, Residence Maintenance Staff, Business Manager, Workforce Coordinator and those persons excluded by the Industrial Relations Act and hereby consents and agrees to negotiate with the Union or any of its authorized committees concerning all matters affecting the relationship between the parties to this Agreement, looking forward to a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.

- 2.02 The benefits contained herein may be waived only by a written agreement of the parties. No Employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the Employer, its representatives, or supervisors which is contrary to the terms of this Agreement.

2.03 Bargaining Unit Work

Non-bargaining unit employees shall not perform jobs in the Bargaining Unit if that causes Employees to be laid off or have their hours of work reduced. This article excludes services or care provided, directly or indirectly, by family members of residents.

- 2.04 The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing with the Employer.

ARTICLE 3 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 3.01 The Union recognizes and agrees that the Employer has the exclusive right and authority to manage the business and operations of the Residence, and direct the workforce of the Employer, in all respects including but not limited to:
- (a) establishing standards and procedures for the service, care, safety, welfare, and comfort of residents of the Employer; and
 - (b) maintaining order and efficiency and to make or alter Policies and Procedures to be observed by Employees, in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
- 3.02 All Employees will be expected to familiarize themselves with and follow Operating Procedures which are established by the Employer from time to time, including any changes to those Operating Procedures, and which will be available in the workplace. These Operating Procedures are developed to ensure that the Employer is in the best position to provide the highest service and care possible to residents and to meet the requirements of the law.

ARTICLE 4 DEFINITIONS

- 4.01 The following definitions shall apply to the terms of agreement:
- a. "Agreement" means this Collective Agreement.
 - b. "Casual Employee" means an Employee who works "on-call" or on an "as-needed basis" but is not regularly scheduled.

- 6.10 A representative of the Union shall be given an opportunity to speak to new employee for the purposes of acquainting them with the benefits and duties of Union membership. A maximum of thirty (30) minutes will be allowed for this purpose within regular working hours, at a time agreeable to the Employer and while operational requirements permit, without loss of pay for either employee.
- 6.11 A Union Bargaining Committee will be elected or appointed consisting of not more than two (2) member of the Bargaining Unit plus the Union President. The Union will advise the Employer of the names of the Bargaining Committee members. The two (2) members elected or appointed to the Union Bargaining Committee, plus the Union President, shall not suffer loss of pay as a result of involvement in direct negotiations between the Employer and the Union for up to two (2) days. As much notice as possible, but not less than three weeks' notice, shall be provided for request for leave and every effort will be made to have the representations come from more than one classification. For any further days, the Employer shall continue the wages and benefits of the representatives of the Union and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for such wages including the cost of benefits.
- 6.12 All correspondence between the parties arising out of this agreement or incidental thereto shall pass to and from the General Manager and/or designate and the 2nd Vice President of the Local or their designate.
- 6.13 Work Site Access
- The President of the Union will be given access to work sites to meet with Employees covered by this Collective Agreement during their meal and other scheduled unpaid breaks.

ARTICLE 7 LABOUR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

7.01 Local Labour Management Committee

A Labour Management Committee ("Committee") shall be established consisting of two (2) Employee representatives of the Union and two (2) representatives of the Employer; meeting six (6) times per year.

- a. The Committee shall meet at mutually agreeable dates and times. Unless otherwise mutually agreed, there shall be a minimum of six (6) meetings per year.

Where the parties agree or an emergency arises, an additional meeting(s) can be called by either party.

- b. Matters for the proposed agenda to be discussed at any meeting shall be exchanged at least three (3) days prior to the meeting. Should the need arise, a meeting can be requested by either party. By mutual agreement of the Committee, other persons may be invited to attend a meeting of the Committee.
- c. Employee representatives shall not suffer a loss of pay for time spent at meetings of the Committee.
- d. The Committee shall concern itself with matters of the following general nature:
 - (i) Identification and resolution of common problems.
 - (ii) The facilitation of communications between Employees and the Employer; and
 - (iii) Development of viable solutions to identified problems and the recommending of proposed solutions to problems.

The Committee shall not have any jurisdiction over salary or any condition of employment.

- e. Minutes shall be prepared and signed by representatives of each of the parties who attended a meeting of the Committee as promptly as possible after the meeting.

ARTICLE 8 GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

8.01 A grievance under this Collective Agreement shall be defined as any difference or dispute arising out of the interpretation, application, or administration of this Collective Agreement.

8.02 The Union shall appoint any Employee and the Employer will recognize a Committee of Job Stewards who are employed as Employees of the Employer. These representatives shall be known as the Grievance Committee to deal with complaints and grievances.

8.03 The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the name of each Steward and the name of the Chief Job Steward. The Employer shall be required to recognize them. The Employer will notify the Union of the names of supervisors, managers or designates for each level of the grievance procedure.

8.04 Step 1 - Formal Written Grievance

Within ten (10) working days after the date of the occurrence or discovery of the grievance, the Employee, and a Union representative or the Union representative shall submit a grievance in writing to the immediate supervisor (or designate). The immediate supervisor (or designate) shall give their reply in writing, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance. In the 10 days prior to filing a grievance, the parties may meet to attempt to resolve the grievance informally.

8.05 Step 2 - Review by General Manager

Should the reply given by the supervisor (or designate) at Step 1 not be acceptable to the grievor, the grievance shall be submitted in writing to the General Manager (or designate) within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the decision in Step 1. The General Manager (or designate) shall reply in writing, within ten (10) working days following such meeting. Either Party may request to meet to discuss the grievance before the General Manager's written reply.

8.06 Step 3 - Review by Vice President

If the decision of the General Manager (or designate) is not acceptable to the grievor, the grievance shall be referred to the Vice President (or designate) who shall meet, if requested, with the grievor and Chief Job Steward (or designate) within ten (10) working days. The Vice President (or designate) shall reply in writing, within ten (10) working days following such meeting.

8.07 Arbitration - Should the decision of the Vice President (or designate) in Step 3 not be acceptable, the Union shall notify the Vice President (or designate) in writing within thirty (30) working days of its desire to proceed to arbitration.

8.08 Arbitration - In the event that a grievance is submitted to arbitration, the case shall be heard by a single Arbitrator unless it is mutually agreed by the Employer and the Union that the case should be heard by a three-person Board of Arbitration. A three (3) person Board shall be selected as follows: The Union and the Employer shall each appoint a member of the Arbitration Board within ten (10) days' notice of arbitration. The nominees for the Board shall then jointly appoint a Chairperson within ten (10) days of the date when the last of those nominees is appointed. Should the nominees fail to agree in the selection of a Chairperson, the Chairperson shall be named by the Minister responsible for Labour.

8.09 The Union and the Employer shall agree upon a single Arbitrator within four (4) weeks. In the event of a failure to agree, the single Arbitrator shall be appointed by the Minister responsible for Labour.

8.10 Pre-Hearing Disclosure - The Arbitrator or Arbitration Board has the power to order pre-hearing disclosure of relevant documents at the request of one party to the arbitration with notice to the other affected party.

8.11 Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the Board of Arbitration or single Arbitrator shall be requested to render a decision in writing within thirty (30) days following the hearing. Arbitration awards shall be final and binding as provided in the Industrial Relations Act. An Arbitrator or Board of Arbitration may not alter, modify, or amend any part of this Agreement, but shall have the power to modify or set aside any unjust penalty or discharge, suspension or discipline imposed by the Employer on an Employee.

8.12 The Employer and the Union shall pay the fees and expenses of the member it appoints to the board and bear an equal share of any expenses incurred by the Chairperson of the board.

- 8.13 Policy Grievance - Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or in case of a Union Grievance, Step 1 of the grievance procedure may be by-passed.
- 8.14 Employer Grievance – Within ten (10) working days after the date of the occurrences or discovery of the grievance, the Employer may institute a grievance by delivering the same in writing to the President of the Union or designate and the President of the Union shall answer such grievance within ten (10) working days. If the answer is not acceptable to the Employer, the Employer may, within ten (10) working days from the day the President of the Union gives their answer, give ten (10) days' notice to the President of the Union of its intention to refer the dispute to arbitration.
- 8.15 Any member of the Union who is designated by the Union to handle grievances shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time, without loss of pay to assist in matters relating to the Collective Agreement, provided that staff replacement is not thereby made necessary. Such a representative must request and must obtain permission from their immediate supervisor prior to leaving their workplace and report to the supervisor immediately upon their return. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 8.16 For the purposes of this Article only, workdays shall be Monday to Friday inclusive. The calendar date of holidays is exempt from this count.
- 8.17 Mediation may be used as an additional or an alternate process to arbitration with mutual agreement of the Union and the Employer.
- 8.18 No grievance shall be defeated by any formal or technical objection and an Arbitrator or Board of Arbitration shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of the grievance.
- 8.19 The time limits fixed in both the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by consent of the parties to this Agreement.
- 8.20 The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a staff representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing with the Employer at Steps 1, 2 or 3 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 9 DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

- 9.01 Employees shall be notified in writing of the reasons for suspension or discharge, with a copy to the Union.
- 9.02 Notwithstanding that the disciplinary procedure is progressive, there is certain conduct of an extremely serious nature which may lead to the immediate discharge of an Employee.
- 9.03 An Employee may have a Union representative present when the Employee is being disciplined with a written warning or more serious discipline. The Employer will notify the Employee of this right prior to the start of any disciplinary meeting and allow the Employee the opportunity to contact a Union representative. The parties mutually agree that there will be no unreasonable delay due to the unavailability of the Union representative.

- 9.04 If an Employee refuses the right to union representation, the Employer shall ask the Employee to confirm in writing that they know they have the right to union representation and refused representation.
- 9.05 An Employee shall provide two (2) weeks' notice of resignation of employment by the Employee, unless mutually satisfactory arrangements are made otherwise. Accrued vacation, holiday and overtime benefits shall be paid out on the day of resignation or on the next regular pay day where the resignation day and payday are not the same.
- 9.06 When an Employee resigns, is discharged, retires, or dies, the Employee or their estate shall receive payment in proportion to any unused vacation leave credits, holiday leave credits and overtime lieu credits, computed as of the last day of employment. The Employer is entitled to withhold any monies owed to the Employer from any accrued benefits.

ARTICLE 10 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

10.01 Probationary Period

- a. The first six hundred (600) Hours Worked as an Employee, excluding orientation hours, shall be considered as the Probationary Period.
- b. The employment of a Probationary Employee may be terminated at any time during the Probationary Period without recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure unless the Union alleges a violation of Article 5 of this Agreement as the basis of termination of employment. The Employer will provide the Union with notice of any bargaining unit member terminated in their probationary period.
- c. All the terms of this Agreement except as per (b) above shall apply to Probationary Employees.
- d. Any Employee who resigns after completing their probationary period but who is rehired by the Employer within three (3) months of their resignation shall be required to serve a Probationary Period of up to three hundred (300) Hours Worked; and
- e. The Probationary Period may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 11 SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority Lists

- a. Up-to-date seniority lists of all Employees including probationary Employees shall be sent to the Union and posted on the bulletin board(s) by February 15 and August 15 of each year, showing the total seniority hours of the previous period, the total seniority hours for the current period and the total seniority hours from the date of hiring to the end of the last full pay period prior to January 31 and July 31, respectively.

- b. Any changes in the scheduling of Employees, due to the posted seniority list, shall be implemented within three (3) weeks.
- c. Within the thirty (30) days following the posting of the seniority list, an Employee in disagreement with their seniority thereon must indicate their disagreement in writing to the Employer. Within five (5) working days following, the Employer shall respond to the Employee in respect of the problem raised.
- d. In the event that more than one Employee commences work on the same date, and at the same hour, all such Employees shall have their seniority determined by a draw in the presence of all such Employees and a representative of the Union. Results of such draw are to be acknowledged in writing and signed off by the affected Employees.

11.02 Accumulation of Seniority

- a. An Employee shall accumulate seniority for all Hours Worked and for unpaid hours as follows:
 - (i) Maternity leave up to the maximum set out in the New Brunswick Employment Standards Act.
 - (ii) Childcare leave up to the maximum set out in the New Brunswick Employment Standards Act.
 - (iii) The period of disability on account of an occupational accident that is recognized by WorkSafeNB, as compensable within the meaning of the Workers' Compensation Act of New Brunswick.
 - (iv) Leave of absence without pay for a period of up to two (2) years which is granted to an Employee who is elected or appointed to a full-time position with the Union. Such leave may be extended with the approval of the Employer.
- b. The amount of seniority to be credited to a Full-time Employee under (a) above shall be based on thirty-seven and one-half (37 ½) hours per week. The amount of seniority to be credited to a Part-time Employee under (a) above shall be equal to the highest number of hours of seniority credited to any less senior Employee in the same classification and department during the period of the leave. Employees on Workers' Compensation Benefits should not receive less seniority than what they are actually paid for by the WorkSafe NB.
- c. The accumulation of seniority as set out in (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) above shall not entitle the Employee to any credits for vacation, sick leave, and statutory holidays during the period of leave, save and except as provided under Article 22.05(b).

11.03 Loss of Seniority

An Employee shall only lose their seniority in the event that:

- a. They are discharged for just cause and are not reinstated;
- b. They resign or retire;
- c. They are absent from work in excess of three (3) working days without notifying the Employer, unless such notice was not reasonably possible;
- d. If after receiving notice of recall from a layoff they have failed to notify the Employer as to whether or not they will accept the recall within seven (7) calendar days. It shall be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address;
- e. They are laid off for a period longer than one (1) year;
- f. They fail to report to work at the expiration of a leave of absence or maternity leave unless they have advised the Employer of their inability to return to work with a reasonable excuse; and
- g. An Employee who retires or resigns from employment loses seniority, but if within six (6) months of the retirement or resignation, the Employee returns to work at Carleton Hall, the Employee will maintain the seniority the Employee had prior to retirement or resignation and will accumulate additional seniority on regular basis depending on the status of the appointment after retirement or resignation.

11.04 Transfer and Seniority outside the Bargaining Unit

No Employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without their consent. If an Employee is transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit, they shall retain their seniority acquired at the date of leaving the unit but will not accumulate any further seniority. Such Employee has a period of twelve (12) months in which to return to the bargaining unit. If they return within the twelve (12) months, they shall be placed in a job consistent with their seniority. Such return shall not result in the lay-off or bumping of an Employee holding greater seniority.

ARTICLE 12 LAYOFF AND RECALL

12.01 Definition of Layoff

A lay-off shall be defined as a reduction the work force or a reduction in the regular hours of work of a Full-time or a Part-time Employee.

- b. (i) A minimum of forty-eight (48) hours' notice in advance of the scheduled shift shall be given to the Employee when a shift to be worked is changed. change of shift occurs when both scheduled start time and length of time for a scheduled shift are changed or the calendar date of the shift is changed.

(ii) Except where a change is by mutual agreement between the Employee and the Employer, if a schedule is changed by the Employer without the minimum of forty-eight (48) hours' notice prior to the start of the original shift, the Employee shall be paid at an overtime rate of one and one-half (1½) times the Employee's regular rate (excluding Casual Employees and Part-time Employees working on a casual basis);

(iii) If a shift is cancelled by the Employer without the minimum forty-eight (48) hours' notice prior to the start of their original shift, the Employer shall offer a makeup shift within two weeks. Such a make-up shift shall be in addition to any previously scheduled shifts over that two-week period.
- c. The Employer recognizes that Full-time Employees want and deserve as much regularity and predictability in their hours of work as possible. The Employer agrees there will be no arbitrary or unreasonable changes in shifts;
- d. Shift rotations will be part of the schedule;
- e. When any major changes are being considered in the shift schedule, the Employer agrees there will be prior consultation with the Employees affected and the Employer will take into consideration the preferences of a clear majority of the Employees affected provided that such wishes do not adversely impact upon operational or cost requirements of the Employer; and
- f. The Employer shall post the Christmas and New Year's work schedule by November 15th each year.

14.03 Breaks

- a. The following breaks will occur during each shift of eight (8) hours or more, but less than twelve (12) hours:

- (i) An unpaid meal break of thirty (30) minutes; and
 - (ii) Two paid breaks of fifteen (15) minutes.
- b. The following breaks will occur during each shift of twelve (12) hours or more:
- (i) One unpaid meal break of forty-five (45) minutes; and
 - (ii) Three paid breaks of fifteen (15) minutes each; or
 - (iii) At the discretion of the Employer, the breaks may be combined to provide two (2) meal breaks and two (2) coffee breaks.
- c. For Employees working shifts of four (4) hours, there will be a paid break of fifteen (15) minutes.
- d. The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to organize the work assignment on a shift in such a way as to allow each Employee to have designated meal and rest break(s) at regular intervals during the shifts.
- e. Operational requirements may require that Employees remain within the Residence for their meal and rest break(s).
- f. Where operational requirements prevent an Employee from having an uninterrupted meal or rest break(s) and it is not possible to reschedule the missed break(s) or a portion of the break(s) during the remainder of the shift, the Employee shall be paid their current rate for their one-half (½) hour or forty-five (45) minutes lunch period provided they notifies the Employer prior to or at the end of their shift and shall not be entitled to overtime pursuant to this Agreement under these circumstances.

14.04 Days Off

The Employer will endeavor to:

- a. For Employees regularly scheduled for shifts that are eight (8) hours or more, but less than twelve (12) hours, not schedule them more than five (5) consecutive days; and
- b. For Employees regularly scheduled for shifts that are twelve (12) hours or more, not schedule them more than four (4) consecutive days.

It is agreed that (a) and (b) do not apply where there is a new shift schedule determined in accordance with Article 14.02(e).

14.05 Weekends Off

- a. Full-time Employees may be required to work two (2) out of four (4) weekends; and
- b. Part-time Employees may be required to work two (2) out of three (3) weekends.

- c. It is agreed that (a) and (b) do not apply where there is a new shift schedule determined in accordance with Article 14.02(e).

14.06 Time Off Between Shifts

Except by agreement with an Employee, the Employer will schedule at least twelve (12) hours off between regularly scheduled shifts.

14.07 Additional Shifts

- a. When extra shifts or hours of work are available to be assigned to Employees, such extra hours of work will first be offered by seniority to Part-time Employees who have declared their availability and then by seniority to Casual Employees who have declared their availability, provided that by following the provision of this Article no overtime is incurred.
- b. If the Employer fails to follow the process stated in Article 14.07(a) and fails to schedule and/or call by seniority, the Employee(s) not scheduled and/or called will be given the opportunity to work a make-up shift within a four (4) week period. Should the make-up shift not be given within four (4) weeks, the Employee shall be paid for all hours lost and benefits under the Collective Agreement. The make-up shift shall be as close as possible to the day and shift that was missed and will not be considered overtime and shall be at a mutually agreed time.
- c. The Employee shall not decline reasonable offers made by the Employer pursuant to the rules defined within 14.07(b). If the Employee declines reasonable offers made with the four (4) week period, they shall have no claim to pay for hours lost and benefits under the Collective Agreement.

14.08 Shift Exchanges

An Employee shall be permitted to exchange a shift with another Employee in the same classification, subject to the following:

- a. The Employees exchanging shifts shall submit the request at least twenty-four (24) hours before the requested shift exchange, and must receive the consent of their immediate supervisor (or designate), such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- b. There shall be no increased cost to the Employer; for example, no shift exchange can be made if any Employee would receive overtime because of the exchange unless the Employee and the Employer mutually agree that overtime will not apply; and
- c. The shifts exchanged shall be in the current or following pay period.

14.09 Guaranteed Work

- a. Employees who report for work as scheduled by the Employer will be guaranteed work for that shift.

- b. Nothing in this Article 14 shall be construed as a guarantee by the Employer to any Employee of a minimum or maximum number of hours of work in a day, a week, or in a bi-weekly period.

14.10 Overtime

- a. Full-time Employees and Part-time Employees will be paid an overtime rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the Employee's hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of eleven and one quarter hours (11.25) paid hours in a day, or seventy-eight and three quarters (78.75) paid hours in a bi-weekly period.
- b. A Full-time Employee who is required by the Employer to work on their scheduled day off will be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) for all Hours Worked.
- c. Management must approve overtime in advance;
- d. Overtime shall be paid within the pay period in which it is worked whenever possible, but no later than the following pay period;
- e. Overtime shall not be claimed for less than fifteen (15) minutes at the end of a shift, but if overtime amounts to fifteen (15) minutes or more, the overtime rates shall apply to the total period in excess of the shift; and
- f. No Employee shall receive for any work performed more than time and one-half (1½) the Employee's normal hourly rate of pay.
- g. Where an overtime shift is posted by the Employer, it shall first be offered by seniority to Full-time Employee who meet the overtime threshold, then to Part-time Employees, who meet the overtime threshold and then to Casual Employees, who meet the overtime threshold.

The calculation for prorating will be point zero two four zero eight two (.0234082) times the paid hours worked in the sixty (60) days prior to the holiday.
- 17.05 a. When a Full-time Employee is required to work on any of the paid holidays, the Employer shall pay the Employee for all hours worked at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times their regular rate of pay and grant their seven and one-half (7½) hours off with pay subject to Article 17.02. The time off must be mutually agreed upon between the Employer and the Employee thirty (30) days before or after the calendar date of the holiday where operational requirements permit.
- 17.06 When a Part-time Employee is required to work on any of the paid holidays, the Employer shall pay the Employee for all hours worked at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times their regular rate of pay. Subject to Article 17.02, based on the pro-rata formula in Article 17.04, the Part-time Employee shall also be granted time off with pay at a time mutually agreed upon between the Employer and the Employee after the calendar date of the holiday where operational requirements permit.
- 17.07 The Employer will request employees to volunteer to work on Christmas Day and New Year's Day and will meet with and consult with employees and reasonably consider proposals advanced by employees regarding the scheduling of shifts for Christmas Day and New Year's Day.
- 17.08 Every reasonable effort shall be made to ensure each Employee holding a position has two (2) consecutive days off either during the Christmas or New Year's holiday period, one day of which must be Christmas or New Year's Day, provided there are no additional costs to the Employer (e.g. overtime). Such days off may include any combination of holidays and/or regularly scheduled days off.
- 17.09 Subject to Articles 17.11 and 17.14, an Employee shall be entitled to accumulate holidays to a maximum of nine (9) days at any one time and take such days off at a mutually agreed time.
- 17.10 When a holiday falls within the employee's vacation period or on an employee's scheduled day off, the Employee may schedule another day at a time mutually agreeable to the Employee and the Employer. If the Employer is unable to accommodate an alternate day due to operational requirements, the Employee will be paid for the holiday.
- 17.11 For a Full-time Employee who is working a twelve (12) hour rotating shift schedule, the seven and one-half (7½) hour holiday off referred to in Article 17.03 may be built into the rotation as a combination of seven and one-half (7½) hour holiday pay.

- 17.12 In the event that any of the seven and one-half (7½) hour holidays are not built into the rotation, the holiday off will be scheduled at a mutually agreed upon time, no later than January 31 of the subsequent calendar year.
- 17.13 In the event that the Employee has any banked holiday time remaining on January 31, the holiday will be paid out on the first pay period in February.
- 17.14 Casual Employees will be paid at the rate of time and one-half for all hours worked on the holidays listed in Article 17.01.
- 17.15 Full-time employees are entitled to two (2) Float Holidays each year and may be taken at a time mutually agreed upon between the Employee and the Employer. Float Holidays cannot be carried beyond December 31 of any year. Float Holidays for full-time employees will be paid at the rate of seven and one half (7 1/2) hours at the full-time employee's regular hourly rate. Full-time employees hired after July 1 in each year will receive one (1) Float Holiday for the remainder of the calendar year and then two (2) Float Holidays thereafter.
- 17.16 Part-time employees are entitled to two (2) Float Holidays in each year which may be taken at a time mutually agreed upon between the employee and the Employer. Float Holidays cannot be carried beyond December 31 of any year. Float Holidays for part-time employees will be paid on the basis of each employee's paid hours worked calculated excluding any overtime for the sixty (60) calendar days prior to January 1 or July 1 of each year. Part-time employees hired after July 1 in each year will receive one (1) Float Holiday for the remainder of the calendar year and then two (2) Float Holidays thereafter.
- 17.17 When Employees request vacation, the Employer will utilize any accrued Float Holidays before using vacation time.

18.02 Pay Day

- a. Payment of wages will be on a bi-weekly basis and is on a direct deposit system;
- b. If an Employee has a shortfall in their pay of more than four (4) hours pay, the Employer shall pay the shortfall to the Employee within four (4) business days of being notified by the Employee provided the Employee has followed the procedure for reporting time worked; and
- c. The Employer recognizes the importance of regularity in pay practices and to the greatest extent possible the Employer will not alter the payment routines. Employees will be notified in writing by the Employer not less than sixty (60) days in advance of a change to the pay practices.

18.03 When an Employee is promoted permanently into a higher paid position, they will be paid the rate for the new position.

18.04 When an Employee is assigned temporarily to perform work in a classification paying a higher rate than their own, they shall receive the rate for the higher classification. When an Employee is assigned temporarily to perform work in a classification paying a lower rate than their own, they shall receive the rate of their own classification. This sub-article does not apply to employees who chose to work in a classification with a lower rate of pay.

ARTICLE 19 BENEFITS

19.01 Full-time and Part-time Employees shall participate in the benefit plans currently made available by the Employer, in accordance with the terms and conditions of those plans.

19.02 The premiums for such benefit plans shall be shared as follows:

- a. Extended Health (including Prescription Drugs) - 50% Employer and 50% Employee;
- b. Dental - 50% Employer and 50% Employee;
- c. AD&D - 100% Employer paid; and
- d. Life - 100% Employer paid.

ARTICLE 20 RETIREMENT SAVINGS

20.01 The Employer will make up to five percent (5%) matching contributions to the Registered Retirement Savings Plan offered by the Employer to Full-time and Part-time Employees, subject to the plan's eligibility criteria.

ARTICLE 21 EMPLOYEE HEALTH AND SAFETY

21.01 Comply with OH&S Act

The Employer, the Union and employees shall comply with the provisions of the New Brunswick Occupational Health and Safety Act and Regulations.

21.02 Joint Occupational Health and Safety

- a. The Employer and the Union will mutually cooperate to maintain a safe workplace.
- b. The Occupational Health and Safety Committee shall be established pursuant to the provisions of the Occupational Health and Safety Act. The Committee shall be composed of equal numbers of employee and Employer representatives. Such Committee shall be authorized and directed to carry out the functions and duties of the Committee as required by the said Act and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges accorded to the Committee and to the individual Members thereof by the said Act.

- c. An employee who is a member of the Joint Occupational Health and Safety Committee is entitled to time off from work without loss of regular pay or benefits as is necessary to attend meetings of the Committee, to take any training programs prescribed by the Occupational Health and Safety Act and Regulations or as determined necessary by the Committee and to carry out the employee's functions as a member of the Committee. Time spent by the employee in activities shall be considered as time worked at straight time rates.

21.03 Make Reasonable Provisions

The Employer shall make reasonable provisions in respect to the health and safety of employees during their hours of employment. Protective devices and other equipment deemed necessary by the Employer to protect employees from injury or health hazards shall be provided by the Employer and employees shall be required to use them. Employees and the Employer shall co-operate to the fullest extent possible towards the prevention of accidents and in reasonable promotion of health and safety of employees through the Occupational Health and Safety Committee.

21.04 Modified Work Program

Employees and Employer recognize that a modified work program is a process which gives structure and organization to the activity of returning injured or ill Employees to the workplace as soon as possible after an injury or illness. The Employees agree to cooperate in the Early and Safe Return to Work Program implemented by the Employer in partnership with the WorkSafeNB for workplace related injuries or illness. The Employees agree to cooperate in the accommodation process and the Employer's return to work program implemented for non-occupational injury or illnesses.

21.05 Injury on Duty – Worksafe NB

- a. Where an Employee asks the Employer in writing at the time of a WSNB claim to pay their any supplement amount from the accumulated sick leave credits of the Employee, the Employer shall pay an Employer Workers' Compensation payment supplement to the Employee to the extent of the pre-injury bi-weekly pay of the Employee while maximizing the amount payable from WorkSafeNB. It is the intent of the parties that in no circumstance shall the Employee receive an increase of income while in receipt of Workers' Compensation benefits with the exception of increments and pay increases. When this Employer supplement is being paid, the Employer shall deduct from the employee's sick leave credits an equivalent number of sick leave hours as were paid in the supplement. When an employee's sick leave credits are exhausted, the Employee shall be paid only the Workers' Compensation Benefits payment; and
- b. Where an Employee is being compensated under the Workers' Compensation Act the Employee shall continue to accrue up to one year's maximum vacation credits.

21.06 Sick Leave while waiting for Workers' Compensation Benefits

- a. An illness or injury for which Workers' Compensation benefits are payable, shall not be deemed to be sick leave except for the supplement as provided in Article 21.05(a).
- b. A Full-time or Part-time Employee who is unable to attend work for greater than one pay period due to workplace illness or injury and who is awaiting approval of a claim for Workers' Compensation benefits may have the Employer provide payment equivalent to the benefits they would earn under the Workers' Compensation Act providing the Employee is able to establish, satisfactory to the Employer, that the illness or injury prevents the Employee from working and the Employee has sufficient sick leave credits; and
- c. In such case, the Employee must provide a written undertaking to the Employer and the required notification to the WSNB that the initial payment(s) from the WSNB is to be provided directly to the Employer on behalf of the Employee, up to the level of the payment advanced by the Employer.

21.07 WorkSafeNB and Return to Work

Where an Employee has returned to work after being absent for injury on duty for which Workers' Compensation Benefits are not payable, and where the absence due to injury on duty was for two (2) days or less after the day of the injury, the Employee shall receive an amount equal to regular pay from accumulated sick leave credits for the period in which the Employee was unable to work as a result of the employee's injury on duty.

21.08 Personal Property

The Employer agrees that in a case where damage to an employee's uniforms, swipe cards, eyeglasses, contact lenses, hearing aid, dentures, or watch is done by a resident, either the Employer or WorkSafeNB will reimburse the Employee for damages. The Employee shall report the damages during the shift they are incurred.

ARTICLE 22 PERSONNEL FILE

- 22.01 A electronic personnel file shall be maintained for all employees. Employees can access and/or print their electronic personnel file.
- 22.02 The Employer will not introduce in any hearing relative to a disciplinary action any disciplinary document from the file of the employee the existence of which the employee was not made aware of at or before the time of the filing.
- 22.03 Except for discipline relating to residents, the disciplinary record of an Employee shall not be used against them at any time after eighteen (18) months following a suspension or disciplinary action provided that there have been no other suspensions or disciplinary action during that eighteen (18) month period.

ARTICLE 23 GENERAL

23.01 Position Descriptions

An Employee shall have access to a copy of their current position description. The Employer will endeavor to ensure that position descriptions are reviewed and revised where necessary. - b. The Employer will make every effort to arrange for the presentation of the required training/education during an employee's scheduled hours of work;
- c. The Employee is expected to maintain any certifications or requirements as stipulated by the regulatory bodies at the employee's expense;

- d. The Employer will endeavor to assist the employees to maintain these requirements;
- e. Hours spent in Employer required training/education will be paid at the regular rate of pay and will not be subject to the overtime provisions in Article 14.10.

ARTICLE 24 TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGES

24.01 Definition

In this article, "Technological Change" means the introduction of equipment or material of a different nature or kind than that previously used by the Employer, and a change in the manner in which the Employer carries on its operations that is directly related to the introduction of that equipment or material.

24.02 Training

Where the equipment or material so introduced is to be operated by the employees of the same classification as those formerly carrying on the operation, the incumbents are to be given an opportunity for training at the Employer's expense, without loss of pay or benefits to the Employee, in the operation of the equipment or material in question, with the intent that they may be retained in their positions.

24.03 Introduction

If, after the period of training referred to in Article 25.02, the Employee is unable to acquire sufficient competence, the Employer will make every effort to retain the Employee in such position as may be available within the competence of the Employee (including the exercise of such rights as are otherwise contained in this Agreement).

24.04 Notice

The Employer agrees to give the Union at least sixty (60) days' notice of the introduction of technological change that is expected to result in the displacement of employees in the bargaining unit, or substantial changes in the hours of work or the duties performed by employees in the bargaining unit.

24.05 Layoff

An Employee who is affected by a layoff because of technological change shall have all rights set out in Article 12.

24.06 This agreement is made on the understanding that in the event that the Employee does not successfully achieve the new competence and thus need to be retained in an alternate position (24.03), that the Employee will be paid the rate of pay for the position which they are moved to.

ARTICLE 25 NO STRIKE NO LOCKOUT

25.01 It is agreed that there shall be no slow down, curtailment of work, strike, or lockout during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 26 TERM OF AGREEMENT

26.01 This Agreement shall be for a term commencing on February 17, 2023, to February 28, 2027.

26.02 Any changes to the existing terms and conditions of employment provided for in this Agreement shall be effective on the date of signing of this Agreement save and except that Schedule "A" wages shall be effective from the first day of the Agreement.

26.03 This Agreement shall remain in effect from year to year after unless one of the parties hereto notifies the other within a period of not less than thirty (30) working days prior to the automatic renewal date of its intention to revise or amend this Agreement or to conclude a new Agreement. Such notices in order to be effective must be in writing and given in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act (New Brunswick).

26.04 This Agreement and everything contained herein shall ensure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their successors and assigns.

DATED this 6th day of September, 2024.
