8.5 Policy Grievance

8.5.1 Where a dispute involves a question of general application or interpretation, the Union shall refer the grievance in writing to the Director of Administrative Services (or designate) within fourteen (14) days of the occurrence giving rise to the matter or of the Union becoming aware of the matter. Within fourteen (14) days of the referral, a meeting shall be held to discuss the grievance. Within fourteen (14) days of the meeting, the Library shall provide a written response to the Union.

8.5.2 If the grievance has not been resolved, the Union may refer it in writing to the Chief Librarian (or designate) within fourteen (14) days of receiving the Library's response. Within fourteen (14) days of the referral, a meeting shall be held to discuss the grievance. Within fourteen (14) days of the meeting, the Library shall provide a written response to the Union.

8.8 Time Limits

Extension to time limits referred to herein may be extended upon mutual consent of the Parties in writing.

8.9 Arbitration

- 8.9.1 If the grievance is not resolved through the Grievance Procedure, the Union may advance the grievance in writing to a single Arbitrator within twenty-one (21) days of the last response.
- 8.9.2 If the Parties cannot agree on the Arbitrator, either Party may apply to the Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau to make the appointment.
- 8.9.3 The expenses and compensation of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally between the Parties and the Parties shall bear their own costs.
- 8.9.4 The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on all persons bound by this Agreement.
- 8.9.5 In the event the Arbitrator finds that an employee has been dismissed or suspended for other than proper cause, the Arbitrator may direct the Library to reinstate the employee and pay to the employee a sum equal to the wages or salary lost by reason of such suspension or discharge, or such lesser sum as in the opinion of the Arbitrator is fair and reasonable or make such other order as the Arbitrator consider fair and reasonable having regard to the terms of the Collective Agreement between the Parties.
- 8.9.6 The Parties may mutually agree to a three (3) person Board of Arbitration instead of a single Arbitrator.

8.10 Expedited Arbitration

- 8.10.1 The Parties shall determine, by mutual agreement, those grievances suitable for expedited arbitration. Failing mutual agreement, the terms of Article 8.9 will apply.
- 8.10.2 Those grievances agreed to be suitable for expedited arbitration shall be scheduled within one month. Such time may be extended with the mutual agreement of the Parties.
- 8.10.3 The location of the hearings is to be agreed by the Parties. If no agreement is reached, the Arbitrator shall set the location.

- 8.10.6 Where mediation fails, or is not appropriate, a decision shall be rendered as contemplated herein.

- 8.10.7 The decision of the Arbitrator is to be completed and mailed to the Parties within fourteen (14) working days of the hearing. The Arbitrator may provide a verbal decision at the conclusion of the hearing with written reasons within fourteen (14) working days.
- 8.10.8 The expenses and compensation of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally between the Parties and the Parties shall bear their own costs.
- 8.10.9 The Expedited Arbitrator, who shall act as sole arbitrator, shall be determined by mutual agreement of the Parties. If agreement cannot be reached, the Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau will name the Expedited Arbitrators.
- 8.10.10 The Arbitrator shall have the power and authority to conclusively settle the dispute and the decision shall be binding on both Parties. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. However, the Arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a grievance in a manner deemed just and equitable.
- 8.10.11 All decisions of the Arbitrator are to be limited in application to that particular dispute and are without prejudice. These decisions shall have no precedential value and shall not be referred to by either Party in any subsequent proceedings.
- 8.10.12 Both Parties agree that they will not use outside legal counsel during the hearing.

ARTICLE 9—SENIORITY

9.1 General

The Parties hereto recognize that all employees are entitled to a measure of employment security, based on seniority; and that the employee shall accrue certain preference in this respect as provided in this Agreement.

9.2 Seniority Defined

Seniority shall be calculated on the accumulation of hours worked from the last date upon which the employee commenced employment with the Employer.

Newly-hired employees shall be considered on a probationary basis pursuant to Article 2—Definitions. During the probationary period, employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of hire.

9.5 Seniority List

The Library shall maintain a seniority list showing each employee's hourly accumulation. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union on a bi-monthly basis.

9.6 Retention of Seniority

It is agreed between the Parties hereto that seniority shall be retained and accumulated on the following basis:

9.6.1 Employees who are laid-off after six (6) months but less than one (1) year of service shall retain seniority for a period of six (6) calendar months;

9.6.2 Employees who are laid-off after one (1) year of service shall retain their seniority for a period of one (1) year;

9.6.4 Authorized leave of absence;

9.6.5 Absence due to a Worker's Compensation Claim;

9.6.6 Absence while on Maternity/Paternity Leave.

9.7 Loss of Seniority

Employees shall not lose seniority rights if they are absent from work because of sickness, accident, or leaves of absence approved by the Library.

Employees shall only lose their seniority in the event they:

9.7.1 are discharged for just cause and are not reinstated;

9.7.2 resign;

9.7.3 are absent from work in excess of two (2) working days without sufficient cause or without notifying the Library, unless such notice was not reasonably possible;

9.7.4 fail to return to work within ten (10) calendar days following a lay-off and after being notified by personal email or registered mail to do so, unless through sickness or other just cause, provided, however, that the ten (10) calendar days commences on the date the Library emails or registers the notification of recall. It shall be the responsibility of the employees to keep the Library informed of their current personal email and residential addresses and acknowledge notification upon receipt;

Re: City Centre Branch Employee Parking

In follow up to previous notifications that staff parking will become employee paid at City Centre Branch (CCB), the Library can confirm the following:

Staff parking at CCB will become a paid parking model commencing in 2013. The Library is not responsible for how employees manage their commute to and from the workplace, nor is it responsible for guaranteeing parking at a work site.

The specific decision to provide paid staff parking is determined by the Library, and is related to local area parking standards, Canada Revenue Agency definitions, and the availability of parking and transportation options for staff. The Library will discuss the implementation of paid staff parking with the Union in advance of implementation of such a paid parking model in a Library work location.

With respect to parking at CCB, employees who are required to provide their personal vehicle as a condition of their job will not be required to pay for work related parking.

The Library will provide employee paid, scramble workplace parking for CCB staff at the New City Hall (NCH) Parkade. Staff parking rates are determined by the City, in consideration of street parking fees and private/public sector parking lot fees for the geographic region, as determined by periodic surveys.

Specific to CCB, the initial staff parking rate(s) were determined using the criteria above. Staff paid parking rates have been set on a monthly basis. Staff will have the periodic and/or annual option of committing to or not committing to paid staff parking at CCB.

The City will periodically increase staff parking rates to reflect increases in Vancouver CPI, increases in Surrey’s street parking rates, and/or increases to the local area parking rates. It is anticipated that the first such increase in parking rates will occur in January 2015.

If CCB staff opt to participate in the paid staff parking model, they will have the options of:

- Daily parking – paid at the public rate for the time required, based on a ‘pay as you go model’, and no designated parking spot.
- Monthly Scramble Staff Parking – monthly staff rate of $75 per month, no designated parking spot (first come first served), Monday to Friday parking coverage during normal business hours, and non-transferrable. The exact payment method will be determined in consultation with the successful parking vendor.

- Monthly Reserved Staff Parking – paid at a monthly staff rate of $130 per month, designated parking spot, Monday to Friday parking during normal business hours, and non-transferrable. The exact payment method will be determined in consultation with the successful parking vendor.

Specific administrative guidelines for the paid staff parking at CCB will be discussed in advance with the Union. Examples of guidelines to be discussed may include payment collection practices (leave of absences, workers compensation absence, sick leave), overtime parking, parking option selection model, registration practices, etc.

The City or its contractor will enforce parking standards in the area. Any tickets, towing costs, etc. incurred by Staff as the result of failure to follow the parking standards, are the responsibility of the staff. The Library assumes no liability for vehicles parked in its parking structure.

Staff not located at a paid staff parking location, but who are required to visit the location for a Library business purpose, will be reimbursed for parking charges.

Staff are expected to support the parking of local residents/businesses by not seeking unpaid, residential/commercial parking in the geographic area. It is important that the Library is viewed as a good neighbour by area residents and businesses.

To facilitate the transition of impacted staff to the paid parking model at CCB, the Library will provide eligible staff with the following accommodations:

1. Initial CCB Parking Fee Reduction:

- Scramble Parking: Eligible Staff (Working at CCB and pre-registered for Parking), will not be required to pay for scramble parking until the first of the month that is three months after the City's last full move wave to the New City Hall (the City currently estimates that the last move wave will occur in early October 2013, therefore charging for scramble parking for eligible staff will commence on February 1, 2014). Reserved Parking: Eligible Staff (Working at CCB and pre-registered for Parking), who prefer reserved parking will receive a $75 per month reduction in parking fee for the same timeframe as describe under scramble parking.

2. 12 Month Additional CCB Parking Subsidy: Eligible staff (Working at CCB and pre-registered for Parking) will receive a $35 monthly subsidy for twelve months following the completion of the initial CCB parking fee reduction. (The City estimates the 12-month period will commence on February 1, 2014 and terminate on January 31, 2015). No subsidy will be paid outside the 12 month Additional Parking Subsidy timeframe. To be eligible for this subsidy, a staff member must participate in either the monthly scramble or monthly reserved parking model during the first year of operation of the New City Hall Parkade. It will be a taxable benefit.

3. TransLink Pass Supplement: The Library currently provides a 15% subsidy to regular staff for the TransLink Employee Pass Program passes (in addition to the discount provided by TransLink). The Library reserves its right to review, modify or end this subsidy program with one month's notice. However, for the full period of the "Initial CCB Parking Fee Reduction" and the "12 month Additional CCB Parking Subsidy" the Library will increase its subsidization of the TransLink Employee Pass Program (EPP) to a total amount of 30%, for regular employees. It is a taxable benefit.
4. Transportation Fee Options: The Library commits that during 2013 it will meet with the Union to explore options for expanding transportation subsidies/support to staff to encourage sustainable commuting.
5. Opportunity for 24/7 Parking: The City does not anticipate that the NCH Parkade will initially be fully occupied by other paying users. Until the NCH Parkade is more fully utilized, the City will permit CCB staff, who are registered for Scramble or Reserved parking, to use the NCH Parkade on a 24 hour/7 day per week basis, with the registered vehicle with no additional cost. This supplemental benefit will end when the City deems that there is sufficient paid parking demand for non-traditional hours (those hours outside of Monday – Friday 7am-6pm). The Library will provide impacted staff with 30 days' notice of any change to this practice.

The Library recognizes that the introduction of paid staff parking is a new and complex concept for staff. It will work with the Union over the coming months, to develop and implement an effective communication program to ensure staff fully understand staff parking options. It is anticipated that further discussions on paid staff parking will occur and future amendments of this letter may be required.
