In addition, should any of the applicable parties be unavailable to attend within this sixty (60) day period, then they shall appoint a substitute to attend.
- 8.05 Any concessions, discussions or offers to settle the grievance, which occur during the mediation process, will not prejudice either party at arbitration should the matter not be resolved.
- 8.06 The mediation session will normally be conducted at the workplace. This may be altered at the consent of both parties. Attendance at the mediation session shall be without loss of regular pay or benefits.
- 8.07 Any resolution for grievances submitted to this mediation process shall be conditional on the agreement of both parties. Any matter unresolved at the end of the mediation session may continue to arbitration or be withdrawn.

Such notice shall contain the name of the appointee to a Board of Arbitration named by the party invoking arbitration and shall state the matter at issue. The recipient of the notice shall, within ten (10) working days, advise the other party of the name of its appointee to the Board of Arbitration. The two appointees so selected shall within ten (10) working days of the appointment of the second of them, endeavour to appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson. If the two appointees fail to agree upon a Chairperson, either appointee shall request the Ontario Labour Management Arbitration Commission to assist in the selection of an Impartial Chairperson. The decision of a majority shall be the decision of the Board of Arbitration.

Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chairperson shall be the decision of the Board of Arbitration and such decision shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.

- 8.09 The Sole Arbitrator or Board of Arbitration shall not have jurisdiction or authority to alter or in any way modify the provisions of this Agreement or to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, or to give any decision that is inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Collective Agreement.
- 8.10 No person may be appointed as an arbitrator or nominee who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

10.06 No employee shall be appointed to a position outside the bargaining unit without her consent. If an employee accepts a position outside the bargaining unit the employee shall retain her seniority acquired at the date of leaving the bargaining unit, but will not accumulate any further seniority. If at the end of the eighteen (18) month period, or any period of extension, the employee has not returned to the bargaining unit such employee will lose all seniority and the name of the employee will be removed from the seniority list, and all seniority lost. Notwithstanding the above, the parties may agree to an extension. Such request for extension will not be unreasonably denied.

10.07 Effect of Absence

With the exception of an employee in receipt of WSIB benefits consistent with 10.01, or any paid leave of absence under this Agreement, where any leave of absence without pay exceeds thirty (30) consecutive working days:

- (b) the employee may, however, continue her benefit coverage under Article 20 – Employee Benefits by contributing the full cost of the premiums by submitting monthly post dated cheques in advance to the Employer and the Employer will make the payments to the appropriate agency.

ARTICLE 11 – PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

11.01 A newly hired employee on probation shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement. Seniority shall be calculated back to the date of hire within the bargaining unit. The probationary period shall be as follows:

- (a) regular full-time employees – four hundred and twenty (420) hours worked from date of hire within the bargaining unit;
- (b) regular part-time employees and casual employees – four hundred and twenty (420) hours worked or twelve (12) months whichever comes first;

11.02 A probationary employee shall be subject to ongoing assessment/performance reviews which shall be reviewed regularly with the employee during her probationary period.

An employee's probationary period may be extended to six hundred and thirty (630) hours worked provided the Employer has provided an assessment of the employee's performance at or near the completion of the initial four hundred and twenty (420) hours worked period.

The probationary period may be extended by a further maximum of sixty (60) calendar days.

On successful completion of this extended probationary period(s), the employee's name shall be placed on the seniority list and shall be credited with seniority earned based on the number of hours worked during this total probationary period.

11.04 The discharge of a probationary employee is not subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures, unless the discharge violates the Human Rights Code.

The Employer agrees to provide a probationary employee with written reasons for her release within seven (7) days of such release, with a copy to the Local Union.

A claim by a probationary employee that she has been unjustly released shall be treated as a grievance, provided the employee is entitled to grieve as set out above, if a written statement of such grievance is lodged by the employee with the Employer at Step 2 within seven (7) days after the date the release is effective.

It is understood and agreed that the timelines set out in Article 7 - Grievance Procedure will commence upon receipt of the written reasons.

The parties agree that the written reasons are deemed received on the date of delivery to the employee.

ARTICLE 12 – JOB POSTINGS

- 12.01 (a) When a vacancy occurs that the Employer intends to fill that requires posting, or a new position is created within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall post notice of the position on the Employer's intranet and a copy will be provided to the Recording Secretary of the Union. Such notice will be posted for seven (7) calendar days. Notwithstanding the above, the Union shall be permitted to post such notices on all designated CUPE bulletin boards.
- (b) The posting of new jobs and vacancies shall be limited to new jobs, new vacancies that require posting and the first subsequent vacancy, and to no others.

- (d) The successful applicant shall be moved into the position within sixty (60) days of the position being accepted by the employee, unless another mutually agreeable date has been agreed to by the Union and the Employer.

- 12.02 Such posting shall contain the following information: job title, Initial FTE Allocation, position summary, location, initial work assignment, hourly salary range, skills and qualifications required.
- 12.03 Both parties recognize the principle of promotion within service of the Employer. Employees shall be selected for positions posted on the basis of their skill, ability, experience, qualifications and performance. Where these factors are relatively equal among the employees being considered, seniority shall govern providing the successful applicant, if any, is qualified to perform the available work within an appropriate familiarization period. Notwithstanding the above, qualified internal applicants shall be considered before external applicants.
- Note: Seniority will be calculated based on the last complete pay period as of the date the posting expires.
- 12.04 Successful applicants and newly hired employees will not be considered for job postings or any subsequent vacancies for a period of nine (9) months from date of commencement in the new position, unless otherwise mutually agreed or which provides for a change in the following: classification, FTE, office location or permanent status.

- 12.05 The Union will be notified of all appointments, new hires, lay-offs, transfers, recalls and terminations of employment (including temporary employment) of those within the bargaining unit once monthly for the previous month.
- 12.06 (a) The successful applicant will be placed in the vacancy for a trial period not exceeding three hundred and fifty (350) hours worked and if the employee proves satisfactory shall be considered permanent to the vacancy.
- If the employee proves unsatisfactory during that time, or if the employee feels she is unable to perform the duties of the vacancy to which posted or the employee wishes to revert to her former position, such employee will be returned to her former position at her former salary or rate of pay, as will any other employee, who was promoted or transferred by reason of such placing. Any employee who was hired to fill a vacancy which ensued from the placement of the transferring employee into the new position may be discharged. If the former position referred to herein no longer exists, the employee(s) will receive notice of lay-off in accordance with Article 13 – Lay-Offs and Recalls.
- (b) If the applicant is returning to her former position under this clause, the Employer will give consideration in accordance with the provisions of 12.01 to those employees who were unsuccessful applicants for the initial vacancy and should the Employer place any such employee in the vacant position the above paragraph of this clause shall apply.
- 12.07 Unsuccessful applicants may, if they wish, inquire of the Director, Human Resources or designate as to the reason(s) for their non-acceptance.
- 12.08 (a) Vacancies which are not expected to exceed four (4) months may be filled and or posted at the discretion of the Employer. In filling such vacancies, consideration shall be given to regular part-time employees in the bargaining unit on the basis of seniority who are qualified to perform the work in question. In the case of a vacancy, the Employer shall either fill the vacancy within a reasonable period of time or provide the Union with written notice that the Employer intends to postpone or not fill the vacancy.
- (b) Where a temporary vacancy occurs for a period of four (4) months or longer, the vacancy shall be posted. As a result of an employee being the successful applicant to a temporary posting, the first subsequent vacancy shall be posted. Any further subsequent vacancies need not be posted and the new vacancies shall be filled at the discretion of the Employer. The status of the regular employee shall not change where she is the successful candidate.
- 12.09 (a) Regular full-time, regular part-time or casual employees filling temporary positions may not apply for other temporary positions which begin before the expiry of their current temporary positions.

- (b) A temporary position will not extend past the original scheduled end date for a period longer than six (6) months, unless it is the result of a long-term disability or maternity/parental leave. In such case the temporary position will not exceed thirty (30) months. An extension past the six (6) month period requires Union approval.
 - (c) Any casual employee who accepts a temporary assignment within the bargaining unit will not be removed from the casual employee seniority list while on such assignment.
- 12.10 (a) Should any new classification(s) not covered by Appendix "A", be established within the bargaining unit during the life of this Collective Agreement, or the Employer makes a substantial change in the job content of an existing classification which in reality causes such classification to become a new classification, the Employer will notify the Union of such classification(s) and of the range of wage rates for such classification(s).
- (b) When any position not covered by Appendix "A", which is included in this bargaining unit, is established during the term of this Agreement, or the Employer makes a substantial change in the job content of an existing classification which in reality causes such classification to become a new classification, the rate of pay shall be subject to negotiation between the Employer and the Union. If the parties are unable to agree on the rate of pay of the job in question, the Employer may determine a job classification and rate therefore, but the dispute may be submitted to grievance and arbitration. The Arbitrator shall be confined to comparison with rates already established under Appendix "A." The new rate shall become retroactive to the time the position was first filled by an employee.
- 12.11 Employees hired externally to temporary full-time positions may be released and such release shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration unless a claim can be made as indicated in Article 11.04.
- 12.12 An employee on leave of absence may apply for vacancies provided that she is available to start working within four (4) weeks of the commencement of the position unless the successful incumbent is on pregnancy/parental leave at which time they will commence the new position upon completion of their leave provided the delay does not significantly impact operations.

ARTICLE 13 - LAY-OFFS AND RECALLS

- 13.01 (a) In the event of a pending lay-off of a permanent or long term nature, the Employer will notify the Union ninety (90) calendar days in advance of such lay-off and will meet with the Union immediately to review the following:
- (i) the reasons causing the lay-off;
 - (ii) the service which the Employer will undertake after the lay-off;

- (iii) the method of implementation, including areas of cutback and the employees to be laid off;
 - (iv) Methods of reducing the impact of the lay-off, which may include reducing hours rather than laying off employees. Where the Employer and/or the Union can demonstrate that some other alternative(s) is in the best interest of the South East Local Health Integration Network clients, agreement on the alternatives shall require the consent of both parties.
- (b) It is understood that if a lay-off is necessary, all casual employees shall be laid off first in order of reverse seniority, it being understood that casual employees are not entitled to any bumping rights.
- 13.02 (a) An employee in receipt of notice of lay-off may, if qualified to do the work to be performed, displace an employee with less bargaining unit seniority, in the following order, according to the following provisions:

 - (iii) failing the availability of such a position, she may displace a junior employee in reverse order of seniority in any classification, equal, different, or fewer number of hours of work, in any location.
 - (iv) she may accept the lay-off and be placed on the recall list.
- 13.02 (b) Placement on the Wage Grid Following Displacements
- (i) An employee who displaces an employee in a lower paying classification will be placed on the salary grid of the lower classification at the step which provides the rate of pay closest to her current rate of pay.
 - (ii) If an employee is displacing to a higher rated classification, the employee will go to the increment level which will not result in a decrease in salary and will then progress in accordance with the time spent in the new classification.
 - (iii) If displacing into another classification, the displacing employee must meet the normal requirements of the position. It is acknowledged that training and orientation will be provided as necessary.

- (c) An employee will inform the Employer in writing of her decision to displace or accept the lay-off within five (5) calendar days of the receipt by the employee of her notice of lay-off or of being displaced by another employee.
- 13.03 (a) Employees will be recalled from a lay-off to an available opening in order of seniority, provided they are qualified to do the work, before such opening is filled under a job posting procedure. The posting procedure in the Collective Agreement shall not apply until the recall process has been completed.
- (b) The Employer shall notify the employee of recall opportunity by registered mail, addressed to the last address on record with the Employer (which notification shall be deemed to be received on the third day following the date of mailing). The notification shall state the job to which the employee is eligible to be recalled and the date and time at which the employee shall report for work. The employee is solely responsible for her proper address on record with the Employer.
- (c) An employee recalled to work in a different classification from that which she was laid off shall have the privilege of returning to the position she held prior to the lay-off should it become vacant within six (6) months of being recalled.

- 13.05 No new employee will be hired until qualified employees on lay-off have been given opportunity to return to work and have failed to do so, in accordance with the loss of seniority provision. Should an employee who is recalled be found unable to perform the duties of the position she will revert to lay-off.
- 13.06 Notice of termination and severance pay will be provided in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.
- 13.07 The Employer agrees to pay its share of coverage for all employee benefit plans for employees laid off for periods of sixty (60) days or less, provided that the employee pays her share of the said benefit plans and conditional that an employee who takes employment outside of the bargaining unit shall forfeit her rights under this Article.
- 13.08 In the event that an employee's position is relocated to another site more than thirty-five (35 km) from her current site, and she does not wish to transfer with her job, such employee may exercise her rights under this Article and the vacancy will be staffed in accordance with Article 12 - Job Postings.

ARTICLE 14 – HOURS OF WORK

(c) Extended Services

- (i) The normal daily extended services shift may extend beyond seven (7) hours and not exceed eleven (11) consecutive hours, exclusive of a total of one (1) hour of unpaid meal time and is subject to all hours of operation.
- (ii) Where the duration of a shift worked is between seven (7) hours and eleven (11) hours worked, employees working such shifts will be entitled to a third paid rest period of fifteen (15) minutes after completion of seven (7) hours of work. In addition, such employees will be entitled to one (1) hour of unpaid meal time.
- (iii) The Employer agrees that employees shall not be required to take time off to avoid payment of overtime.
- (iv) The allocation of staffing and scheduling of work will support all hours of operation and are subject to change to meet the needs of the South East Local Health Integration Network clients. Such change in hours will not be effected without prior discussion with the Union. The Employer will provide at least four (4) weeks' notice to affected employees unless otherwise agreed between the parties.
- (v) Employees shall not be pre-scheduled in excess of seven (7) consecutive shifts.

14.02 (d) Should the Employer receive a directive from the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care and/or the South East LHIN that will change the hours of operation, the Employer will meet with the Union prior to implementation to discuss the methods of implementing the changed hours of operation, in order to comply with such directives.

- (e) Employees who are currently in positions not previously posted as "all hours of operation" shall continue to work their current hours until such time as they accept a permanent position which includes "all hours of operation". 14.03 No employee shall be required to work split shifts.

14.05 Scheduling Provisions

- (a) The allocation of staffing and scheduling of work will support all hours of operation as outlined in Article 14.02.
- (b)
 - (i) Should the Employer be required to change the schedule of hours or days off with less than forty-eight (48) hours of notice the employee involved in such change will be paid time and one-half (1½) the regular straight time hourly rate for the first shift of the new schedule.

- (f) Regular full-time employees, regular part-time employees and casual employees filling a temporary position of three (3) months or longer, may, by mutual agreement of the employee and the Employer, alter the number of hours worked in a day to provide for flex time to be taken during the pay period. This arrangement is not meant to provide for a compressed work week. If circumstances prevent the reconciliation of work hours owing by either party within the pay period, the hours of work must be reconciled within the next two (2) pay periods. No additional flex time will be approved until the hours of work have been reconciled.
- (g) Regular part-time employees will have regularly prescheduled hours. Additional shifts will first be offered to part-time employees within their assigned team or assigned office location by seniority who indicate an interest in such work, and then to casual employees.

Refusal of such extra work will not prejudice the employee's status, and acceptance on an intermittent basis does not remove an employee from part-time status.
- (h) Should a casual employee decline an offer of a shift on any calendar day, the employee will not be offered a shift at an alternate location/assignment on the same calendar day.

14.06 Weekends Off

The reporting allowance outlined herein shall not apply whenever an employee has received not less than four (4) hours notice not to report for work.

An employee must accept available work as assigned. In case of cancellation or change of a scheduled shift if the employee is not given at least four (4) hours' notice of cancellation she shall be entitled to four (4) hours pay or four (4) hours work within her classification at the option of the South East Local Health Integration Network.

Refusal by the employee to work in an assigned area within her assigned office location will result in non-payment of this provision. This does not apply to part-time employees who make individual arrangements for less than four (4) hours of work per shift, or who were prescheduled for less than four (4) hours.

14.09 Evening, Weekend and Holiday Relief

It is understood and agreed that acceptance of such shift by a part-time or casual volunteer will not incur overtime premiums but will be subject to Article 16 - Paid holidays. If no volunteer is found the shift will be assigned as follows:

The Employer will assign the shift to relevant team staff on a rotating basis in reverse order of seniority according to the following principles:

- (i) Each employee will only be assigned to one of the shifts to be filled unless an employee agrees or requests to work both shifts. The Employer will ensure that an employee working such entire weekend will not be scheduled to work the day following the weekend.
- (ii) Each employee so assigned will receive pay at time and one-half (1½) her regular hourly rate of pay for the hours so assigned and worked, and will be allowed to bank such time in accordance with the current compensating time provisions as provided in Article 15.03.
- (iii) Each employee so assigned to a shift on a designated holiday shall receive payment in accordance with Article 16 - Paid Holidays.
- (iv) Employees may exchange among themselves such assigned shifts providing no further premium payments are incurred.
- (v) It is understood that at no time will an employee be assigned to work if they have been approved for vacation or other pre-approved leaves of absence under this Agreement.
- (vi) Where an employee volunteers or is assigned an additional shift in accordance with this Article it will be counted as a turn worked.

14.10 With the approval of management an employee may be allowed to work out of worksites other than that to which their position is assigned providing both parties agree.

14.11 Unless otherwise agreed by the Union and the Employer, work performed by full-time employees will not be assigned to part-time employees for the purpose of eliminating full-time positions.

ARTICLE 15 – OVERTIME

15.01 Overtime is defined as any hours which management authorizes an employee to work beyond the normal work day or in excess of seventy (70) hours in a pay period.

15.02 Overtime shall be at the rate of time and one-half (1½) the employee's basic hourly wage rate.

15.03 Employees shall be entitled to the following regarding overtime payment:

- (a) Payment of overtime premium at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times the employee's regular straight time hourly rate of pay for the time so worked; or,

- (b) Overtime shall be made available to employees who are willing and qualified to perform the available work. Work beyond the normal length of a daily shift will not be unreasonably refused by an employee. If overtime is pre-planned more than forty-eight (48) hours in advance, it will be offered to employees within the team, based on seniority, who are willing and qualified to perform the available work.

- (c) Confirmed overtime, at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance, will be considered scheduled time. Any cancellation with less than four (4) hour's notice, the employee will receive four (4) hours compensation or the length of the time scheduled, whichever is less.

The Employer agrees to discuss with the Union the effect of such technological change which may significantly alter the employment status of employees and to consider ways and means of minimizing the adverse effect, if any, upon the employees concerned.

Employees will be given notice of the impending change in employment status and/or working conditions at the earliest possible time.

Where new or greater skills are required as a result of the introduction of new technology, employees shall be given a period of training to acquire the necessary skills for the operation of the new equipment. The Employer will provide the training at its expense. Employees attending training programs under this clause shall not suffer any reduction in normal earnings during the training period. Wherever possible, training shall be given during the employee's normal working hours.

ARTICLE 24 - JOB SHARE

24.01 Job sharing requests shall be considered on an individual basis and shall be initiated through a written application by a full-time employee who wishes to share her position.

Applications shall be in writing to the Supervisor/Manager and will be approved or denied by the relevant Director or delegate.

The Employer may limit the total number of job sharing positions. The Employer shall meet with the Union and consider any recommendation it makes for additional job sharing positions. If there are more full-time employees interested in job sharing than can fill the number of job sharing positions determined by the Employer to be appropriate, seniority shall determine which full-time employees fill the position(s) providing the senior employees can meet the Employer's staffing and scheduling requirements.

Any incumbent full-time employee wishing to share her position may, upon approval by the Employer do so without having her half of the position posted. The other portion of the job sharing position will be posted.

Upon the termination of the job sharing arrangement for a full-time position, the position will revert back to a full-time position.

If both applicants to a job share are full-time, the job share position need not be posted. The resulting full-time position shall be managed in accordance with the collective agreement provisions.

If one of the job sharers leaves her position or is granted a leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) days, and both the remaining job sharer and the Employer wish to continue with the job sharing arrangement, the vacated portion of the job share will be staffed in accordance with the Collective Agreement provisions.

Where the vacant portion of a job share position cannot be filled, the position shall revert to its full-time status. If the job sharer who remains was not the job sharer whose position was originally modified to suit the job sharing arrangement, the full-time position will be posted.

The Employer and the employees involved retain the right to assess the job sharing arrangement on an ongoing basis. For greater certainty, notwithstanding the fact that the review process is ongoing, formal reviews of the job share position will be made at three (3) months, six (6) months, and twelve (12) months, and on an annual basis thereafter.

Either party may discontinue the job sharing process with sixty (60) days notice. It is understood that it is not unreasonable to discontinue job sharing if its costs are greater than the costs for a regular full-time position and those excess costs are not outweighed by the benefits of job sharing to the Employer.

Each job sharer shall be treated as a regular part-time employee for all purposes under the collective agreement except as otherwise expressly provided:

Each job sharer shall;

- (i) Work one half of the total number of hours of the full-time position, or such other amount as may be agreed by all the parties, with the actual schedule of work to be determined by the employees involved, subject to approval of the relevant Director.
- (ii) Ensure her job share partner is fully informed about their shared work, and those South East Local Health Integration Network communications that are not generally distributed but rather are only issued to attendees at individual meetings.
- (iii) Be expected to cover her partner for illness and vacation. If because of unavoidable circumstances, one cannot cover the absence of the other, the Manager must be notified.

ARTICLE 25 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

25.01 The Agreement shall be binding and remain in effect until March 31, 2025 and shall continue from year to year thereafter unless either party gives to the other party notice in writing within ninety (90) days prior to March 31, 2025 that it desires its termination or modification.

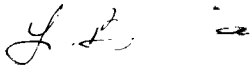

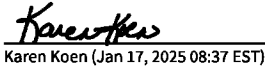

25.02 Either party desiring to propose changes or amendments to this Agreement shall, between the period of thirty (30) and ninety (90) days prior to the termination date give notice in writing to the other party of the changes or amendments proposed. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice by one party, the other party is required to enter into negotiations for a renewal or revision of the Agreement, and both parties shall thereupon enter into such negotiations in good faith and make every reasonable effort to consummate a revised or new Agreement.

25.03 Both parties shall adhere fully to the terms of this Agreement during the period of bona fide collective bargaining, and if negotiations extend beyond the anniversary date of this Agreement, any revision in terms, mutually agreed upon, shall unless otherwise specified, apply retroactively to that date.
