NOW THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 2 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall be for the period from and including 2022 January 01, to and including 2024 December 31, and from year to year thereafter subject to the right of either party to the Agreement at any time within four (4) months immediately preceding the last day of December in any year thereafter, by written notice, to require the other party of the Agreement to commence collective bargaining. The operation of sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 50 of the Labour Relations Code shall be specifically excluded from, and shall not be applicable to this new Agreement.

Should either party give written notice aforesaid, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect, and neither party shall make any change in the terms of the said Agreement (nor increase or decrease the rate of pay of any employee for whom collective bargaining is being conducted or alter any other term or condition of employment) until:

whichever is the earliest.

ARTICLE 3 - DEFINITIONS OF EMPLOYEE

Section 1: Definitions of Employees

Effective 2024 March 26:

"Employee" shall mean a person who is an "Employee" as defined in the Labour Relations Code.

A Regular Full-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis of thirty-five (35), forty (40) or such other number of weekly hours as is recognized in the Collective Agreement as normal for a particular class of positions, for an indefinite period of time.

A Regular Part-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a regular part-time schedule of weekly hours which are less than the number constituting full-time employment for a particular class of positions, for an indefinite period of time.

A Temporary Full-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis as set forth in the Regular Full-Time definition, for a definite and limited period of time (which may be extended or cut short by circumstances which could not be foreseen at the time of hiring).

A Temporary Part-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a temporary part-time schedule of weekly hours which are less than the number constituting full-time employment or a particular class of positions, for a definite and limited period of time (which may be extending or cut short by circumstances which could not be foreseen at the time of hiring).

Where Temporary Employees are hired for a specific project and are advised at the time of being hired of the expected duration of the project, the Employer will notify the Union as soon as possible in the event circumstances subsequently arise which have the effect of terminating the project earlier than had been expected and announced.

An Auxiliary Employee is any other employee. (For terms and conditions of employment, see Schedule "B".)

Section 2: Probationary Period

- (a) All new Regular Full-Time and Temporary Full-Time Employees shall complete a probationary period of one hundred and twenty (120) days worked.
- (b) Effective 2024 March 26, Regular Part-Time and Temporary Part-Time Employees shall complete a probationary period of the same number of hours as are applicable to a Regular Full-Time Employee occupying a similar classified position.
- (c) The probation referred to in (a) and (b) above shall not include employees on trial during the first sixty (60) days worked following a promotion or transfer.

ARTICLE 4 - RECOGNITION AND NEGOTIATIONS

Persons employed by the Employer whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except for the purpose of instruction, experimenting, or in emergencies when regular employees are not available, and provided that the act of performing the aforementioned operations, in itself, does not reduce the hours of work or pay of any employee.

No employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION MEMBERSHIP AND CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

Section 1: Union Membership

- (a) All employees who are now members of the Union and those employees who subsequently become members of the Union shall remain members of the Union as a condition of employment, provided that no employee shall be deprived of employment by reason of loss of membership in the Union for reasons other than failure to pay regular Union dues that all other members of the Union are required to pay to the Union, nor shall any employee be deprived of employment by reason of the refusal of the Union to admit such employee to membership.

All employees covered by the Union Certificate of Bargaining Authority shall pay to the Union an amount equal to the Union's dues, such payment to be made by payroll deduction. This deduction shall become effective on the first day of the pay period coincident with or next following the date of appointment, but the deduction shall be made only if the employee is still in the employ of the Employer on the final day of the first pay period.

Deductions shall be made in respect of all subsequent pay periods provided an employee works any part of the pay period. These arrangements shall remain in effect for so long as this Union remains the recognized bargaining authority.

- (b) The Employer agrees to acquaint all new employees covered by this Collective Agreement with the fact that a Collective Agreement between the Union and the Employer is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out herein dealing with the Definitions of Employees, Union Membership requirement and check-off of Union dues.

Section 2: Check-Off of Union Dues

The Employer agrees to the check-off of all Union dues, fees and general assessments levied in accordance with the Constitution and/or By-laws of the Union. The Union agrees to advise the Employer of the amounts of such Union dues and/or general assessments as may be determined from time to time by the said Union. The Employer, upon receipt of such advice from the Union, shall thereupon deduct from the earnings of the employees such dues, fees and general assessments and shall forward to the Union the total of such amounts deducted together with a list of those employees from whom such deductions were made, such deductions to be remitted to the Union Treasurer not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month.

In the event either party elects to have a three (3) member Arbitration Board, that party will notify the other party in writing within seven (7) calendar days of that party's decision to submit the difference to a three (3) member Arbitration Board and include in that written notification the name of that party's nominee to the Arbitration Board. Upon receipt of that notification, the other party will have seven (7) calendar days to provide written notification of that party's nominee to the Arbitration Board. The two (2) nominees shall endeavour to select a third (3rd) member of the Arbitration Board who shall be the Chairperson. Should the two (2) nominees fail to select such a third (3rd) member within seven (7) calendar days from the appointment of the last representative, either party may request the Director of the Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau to appoint a Chairperson. The expenses and compensation of the Chairperson shall be shared equally between the parties. The expenses and compensation of the representatives selected shall be borne by the respective parties.
- (d) Within fourteen (14) calendar days following the establishment of the Arbitration Board, it shall report its decision on the grievance. Where there is a three (3) member Arbitration Board, the majority decision of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding on all persons bound by this Agreement, but the Arbitration Board shall not have the power to alter the wording of the Agreement in any way.

Section 4: Sick Leave Reimbursement

The Employer is subrogated to the rights of an employee who has received sick leave payments pursuant to Article 13, Section 1 of this Collective Agreement, against any third party liable to that employee for damages, and may bring an action against the third party in the employee's name to recover the wages and/or benefits paid or payable by the Employer. The employee shall not enter any agreement for payment of legal fees relating to the wage or benefit portion of a claim for damages without the prior written consent of the Chief Constable or designate. Where a claim for damages is made to the courts, the employee or their representative shall request the presiding judge, or judge and jury, to specify the amount of any award plus interest which is attributable to recovery of wages and benefits.

Upon reimbursement of the wages and/or benefits, the Employer shall reimburse the Sick Leave Plan, the amount of money paid out of the Plan in proportion to the total amount of money the employee reimburses the Employer for wage loss and/or benefits and shall also credit the employee with any resultant gratuity days to which the employee is entitled. Where the Employer introduces, or intends to introduce a technological change, that:

- (a) affects the terms and conditions, or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Collective Agreement applies, and
- (b) alters significantly the basis upon which the Collective Agreement was negotiated, either party may, if the dispute cannot be settled in direct negotiations, refer the matter directly to an arbitration board pursuant to Article 7 of this Collective Agreement, by-passing all other steps in the grievance procedure.

The arbitration board shall decide whether or not the Employer has introduced, or intends to introduce a technological change, and upon deciding that the Employer has or intends to introduce a technological change the arbitration board:

- (a) shall inform the Minister of Labour of its finding; and
- (b) may then, or later, make any one or more of the following orders:

 - (ii) that the Employer will not proceed with the technological change for such period, not exceeding ninety (90) days, as the arbitration board considers appropriate;
 - (iii) that the Employer reinstate any employee displaced by reason of the technological change;

- (iv) that the Employer pay to that employee such compensation in respect of the employee's displacement as the arbitration board considers reasonable.

The Employer will give to the Union, in writing, at least ninety (90) days' notice of any intended technological change that:

- (a) affects the terms and conditions or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Collective Agreement applies, and
- (b) alters significantly the basis upon which the Collective Agreement applies.

ARTICLE 24 - JOB EVALUATION

The parties agree that no employee will have their wages reduced. Employees who are red-circled will continue to receive negotiated wage increases.

Section 2: Standing Job Evaluation Committee

The Standing Joint Job Evaluation Committee shall have equal representation and participation from the parties, consisting of two (2) representatives from the Employer and two (2) representatives from CUPE Local 825. Each party may appoint alternate representatives to serve as replacements for absent representatives. - (e) If the pay grade increases as a result of the review, such increase shall be retroactive to three (3) months from the date of hire of the incumbent; if the pay grade decreases as a result of the review, the incumbent shall receive full red-circling protection for the duration of their tenure in the job.
- (f) If a questionnaire is not submitted to the Standing Committee within eighteen (18) months of the date of hire of incumbent, the temporary pay grade will be confirmed as the established pay grade for the job.

Section 4: Job Evaluation for Changed Jobs

Whenever the Employer changes the job or the employee, or the Union feels the duties of the job have been changed, or the job description does not reflect the duties and responsibilities of the job the following steps shall take place:

- (a) The incumbent/union or supervisor may request a job evaluation review by completing and submitting a Job Evaluation Request form to the Standing Committee.
- (b) The Standing Committee shall gather accurate, up to date information on the job. The incumbent and supervisor shall complete an up-to-date Job Analysis Questionnaire. Where further information is required, interviews may be held with the incumbent and supervisor and a visit to the workplace. Based on this information, the Committee shall update the job description as necessary.
- (c) The Committee shall rate each factor of the job to establish a new rating for the job and advise the incumbent and the supervisor of its decision. The rating of the job shall determine the pay level for the job.
- (d) When an evaluation of an existing job results in a revised pay band, the new rate of pay will be effective thirty (30) calendar days following the submission of the questionnaire by the incumbent of the position or the date the Employer signs off on the questionnaire, whichever occurs earlier.

- (a) In the event the JJEC is unable to reach agreement on any matter relating to the interpretation, application or administration of the Joint Job Evaluation Program, the Co-chairperson of the Committee shall request within ten (10) working days, that each party designate an advisor to meet with the Committee and attempt to assist reaching a decision.

The jurisdiction of the arbitrator shall be limited to the matter in dispute, as submitted by the parties.
- (e) The Employer and the Union shall be the parties to the arbitration hearing and shall have the right to present evidence and arguments concerning the matter in dispute. The arbitrator shall have the authority to require the parties to present additional information and to require other person(s) to present evidence, as deemed necessary by the arbitrator.
- (f) The arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be divided equally between the parties.
- (g) The time lines contained in this article may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

Where a position has been identified by the Employer as being behind market and/or such a position has been difficult to recruit for or retain employees in, the Employer may increase the rate of pay for the position.

- (a) The adjustment in the rate of pay will be temporary and will be reviewed annually;
- (b) If the position is found to be above market as a result of the annual review, the rate of pay will return to the original job evaluation amount;
- (c) The adjustment is for the position rather than a specific incumbent and will apply to existing incumbents, not just the new hires recruited under the temporary rate of pay;
