In obtaining such permission, the Steward shall state his destination to his immediate Supervisor and report again to him at the time of his return to work. The Steward must not be absent longer than is reasonably necessary on an issue that must reasonably be dealt with during working hours. In accordance with this understanding, the Steward, when dealing with employees' grievances during his regular hours of work, shall not suffer any loss in pay. The Employer reserves the right to limit such time if it deems the time so taken to be excessive. ### 7.04 Preamble:

Differences or disputes arising between the Employer and an employee with regard to the meaning, interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement shall be considered as grievances and shall be dealt with in the manner which follows below.

7.05 Complaint Stage:

The complaining employee (with a Steward if the employee so desires) shall discuss the complaint verbally and identify if it is a potential grievance with the Department Head to see if it can be explained or adjusted within ten (10) days from when the employee became aware or ought reasonably to have become aware of the occurrence that gave rise to the complaint.

The Department Head shall provide a verbal response within three (3) days.

The Union shall provide the information within five (5) days of the request.

The Department Head shall give his reply in writing to the employee and the Union representative when next scheduled to work and a minimum of five (5) days following the receipt of the written grievance or the receipt of additional information, as the case may be.

Failing a satisfactory settlement, the second step of the Grievance Procedure may be invoked within five (5) days of the Department Head's response at Step 1.

- 7.07 Policy Grievance - It is agreed that a grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union shall be originated under Step 2 and the time limits set out with respect to that Step shall appropriately apply. It is understood, however, that the provisions of this section may not be used with respect to a grievance directly affecting an employee or employees and that the regular Grievance Procedure shall not be thereby bypassed.
- 7.08 Grievances concerning lay-offs or recalls shall be initiated at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.
- 7.09 A claim by an employee who has completed his probationary period that he has been unjustly disciplined, suspended or discharged shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Employer at Step 2 within ten (10) days after the discipline, suspension or discharge is effective. Such grievance may be settled by the parties under the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure by:
- a) Confirming the Employer's action in dismissing the employee;
  - b) Reinstating the employee without or with payment to him for such time lost due to discipline, suspension or discharge at his regular rate of pay for his normally scheduled work for such period less any amounts of money earned while gainfully employed; or
  - c) By any other arrangement which may be deemed just and equitable.
- 7.10 The suspension or discharge of a probationary employee shall not be subject to the just cause standard.
- 7.11 Any step of the Grievance Procedure may be waived by mutual agreement in writing between the Employer and the Union.

7.12 Mediation:

Either party may notify the other of its desire to proceed to Mediation prior to Arbitration. Mediation and choice of Mediator shall only be through mutual agreement. Within fifteen (15) days of a failed mediation attempt, the Union shall provide notice of its desire to proceed to Arbitration. The Parties shall jointly share the expense of Mediation. The parties agree that information exchanged during the mediation process is privileged and discussions are on a without prejudice basis.

7.13 Witnesses:

At any stage of the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure, the parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the Arbitrator/Arbitration Board to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the grievance.

ARTICLE 8 - ARBITRATION

- 8.01 Should any grievance fail to be resolved after properly following all required steps of the Grievance Procedure outlined in Article 7, either party may notify the other party of its desire to submit the grievance to arbitration within fifteen (15) days, while at the same time appointing a nominee. Within five (5) days thereafter, the other party shall appoint a nominee. Should either party fail to appoint a nominee, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario shall have the power to effect such appointment upon application thereto by the party invoking the Arbitration Procedure. The two nominees so appointed shall attempt to select by agreement a Chairperson of the Arbitration Board. If they are unable to agree upon such a Chairperson within a period of ten (10) days, they shall then request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint an impartial Chairperson.
- 8.02 No person may be appointed as a Chairperson who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance unless mutually agreed.
- 8.03 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all required steps of the Grievance Procedure.

- 8.04 The Arbitration Board shall not make any finding or decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Collective Agreement, nor shall it have the power to add to, alter or modify, amend or delete any part of this Collective Agreement, nor to substitute any new provision in lieu therefore no deal with matters not covered by this Collective Agreement.
- 8.05 The Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision which shall be final, binding and enforceable upon the parties and upon any employees affected by it, and may not be changed. The decision of the majority is the decision of the Arbitration Board. Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chairperson shall govern.
- 8.06 Each of the parties hereto will bear the fees and expenses of the nominee appointed by it and the parties will jointly bear the fees and expenses, if any, of the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board.
- 8.07 Notwithstanding article 8.01, the parties may agree to have any grievance heard by a single arbitrator. In such a case, the relevant parts of article 8 will apply with the necessary changes.
- 8.08 Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the decision, either party may apply to the Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration to reconvene the Board to clarify the decision.
- 8.09 The time limits fixed in both the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure are mandatory and not simply directory, unless otherwise agreed to in writing between the parties and may only be extended by mutual consent in writing of the parties to this Collective Agreement.
