PREAMBLE

It is the purpose of both Parties of this Agreement:

- (a) To maintain and improve harmonious relations and settle conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union;
- (b) To recognize the mutual value of joint discussions in all matters pertaining to working conditions;
- (c) To encourage efficiency in operations;
- (d) To promote the morale, well-being and security of all employees in the bargaining unit of the Union.

ARTICLE 1 – DEFINITION

- 1.1 The term "employee" whenever used in this Agreement means all employees employed by Aramark Canada Ltd. at the Donald Gordon Conference Centre and at the Queen's University Club in the City of Kingston, save and except Managers, and Chefs, and persons above such rank.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION

- 2.1 The Company recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees and Its Local 229, hereinafter referred to as the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent of the employees defined herein, in respect of wages, hours of work and other working conditions.
- 2.2
- (a) The Company shall deduct from each pay of each employee such dues and assessments as may be assessed from time to time by the Union and communicated to the Employer in writing. Such dues shall be remitted to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union by the thirtieth (30th) day of the month following the deduction, together with a list of the names, addresses and phone numbers of employees on whose behalf union dues have been deducted. The above list will also indicate the regular hours worked, wages paid, and dues deducted during the period for each employee and a total shall be indicated for each of these items.
 - (b) These dues shall be accepted by the Union as the regular monthly dues of those employees who are or shall become members of the Union and the dues deducted from the pay of non-members of the Union shall be treated as their payment towards the expense of maintaining the bargaining unit.
 - (c) The Union shall indemnify and save the Company harmless from any claims and from any form of liability as a result of such deductions in accordance with the foregoing authorization, and the Union will refund direct to all employees from which wrongful deductions were made.

2.3 No Other Agreements

No employee shall be required or permitted to make any agreements with the Employer, or his/her representatives, which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

2.4 Correspondence

All correspondence between the parties arising out of the agreement or incidental thereto shall pass to and from the General Manager and the President of the Union with a copy sent to the Chief Steward.

2.5 (a) Potential Employees

During the interview process, the employer will advise potential employees that a union collective agreement is in effect and will inform them of the conditions of employment set out in the articles dealing with Union Security and Dues.

(b) New Employees

On commencing employment in a position within the bargaining unit, the employee's immediate supervisor or other representative of the employer will introduce the new employee to their Union Steward or Representative, as designated by the Union.

A representative of the Union will be given an opportunity to meet privately with each new employee during the first month of employment to acquaint them with the structure, benefits, and duties of union membership. A maximum of thirty (30) minutes will be allowed for this purpose within regular working hours and without loss of pay for either employee.

Should more time be required for this meeting for a bonafide reason, the Union may request a second meeting of which that request will not be unreasonably denied.

(c) Orientation

Where the employer conducts staff orientation sessions, the union will be provided thirty (30) minutes during such session to make a presentation about membership in the Union. The employer will leave the room during the union presentation.

The Union will provide the employer with copies of materials used in such session and will not disparage the employer during the presentation.

(d) Notification of New Hires

The Union shall be notified of the full name, position and employment status (e.g., full-time, part-time, temporary), start date and work location of all employees hired into the bargaining unit within fourteen (14) days of their first day of employment.

(e) Regular Staff Meetings

The employer shall provide the union with five (5) days' or as much as reasonably possible notice of scheduled general staff meetings to allow the union sufficient time to prepare brief union announcements to be communicated at said general staff meetings.

(f) Access to Work-Site

Official representatives of the Union shall, after giving notice to the Company, be permitted to enter the premises at all reasonable times, during the course of normal working hours to meet with employees during their meal and other scheduled breaks, whether paid or unpaid, to attend to the business of the Union such as ensuring that the terms of this Agreement are being implemented.

It is understood that such visits shall not unduly interfere with the Company's operations. When a representative of the union is on-site for the purpose of doing the business of the union, they will be required to sign in and out at the front desk of the Donald Gordon Conference Centre in compliance with the Company's health & safety procedures.

ARTICLE 3 - NO DISCRIMINATION OR HARASSMENT

The parties agree that allegations of discrimination and harassment should be dealt with in a timely manner. Therefore, allegations of discrimination and harassment will be investigated on a timely basis. Upon mutual agreement, a qualified external third party may be utilized to conduct the investigation. The Parties shall share the costs and both be provided with the results in full.

3.1 The Employer and the Union agree that they will not discriminate against any employee, or intimidate, threaten, coerce or restrain any employee because of membership or non-membership, past or present in the Union.

The Employer and the Union recognize that all people, regardless of race, religion, ethnicity, or background, are entitled to an environment free from discrimination, harassment, and hate.

The parties are committed to creating and maintaining a working environment that is founded on the fair treatment of all members of the Company. Therefore, the parties do not condone behaviour that is contrary to the Ontario Human Rights Code, Workplace and Sexual Harassment Policy, Workplace Violence Policy or the Occupational Health and Safety Act.

The employer shall take all necessary and reasonable steps to provide a workplace free of discrimination, harassment and violence, including domestic violence.

Any employee who believes they have been subjected to discriminatory or hateful behaviour is encouraged to report the incident promptly to their supervisor, human resources, or a union representative. All such complaints shall be investigated in a timely, confidential, and thorough manner.

If a complaint of discrimination or hateful behaviour is not resolved to the satisfaction of the affected employee, the grievance procedure outlined in this agreement may be invoked.

In cases of harassment, the employee being harassed has the right to discontinue contact with the alleged harasser without incurring any penalty, pending determination of the grievance. In cases where the harassment may result in the transfer of an employee, it shall be the harasser who is transferred. The employee who is being harassed will not be transferred against his/her will.

3.2 Sexual Harassment

The Company recognizes that no employee shall be subject to sexual harassment. In this spirit, it agrees to notify all members of its commitment to this principle. Reference to sexual harassment shall be as defined in the Human Rights Code.

3.3 Where it is appropriate and necessary to transfer an employee in cases where sexual harassment has been determined to have occurred, it shall be the harasser who is transferred, and the victim shall not be transferred against his/her will. Nothing in this Article is intended to limit the Employer's ability to respond to harassment by imposing other remedies or penalties.

3.4 Harassment in the workplace is defined as engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against another person or persons in the workplace that is known or ought to reasonably be known to be unwelcome. It includes objectionable acts, comments or displays that demean, belittle, or cause personal humiliation or embarrassment, and any act of intimidation or threat.

3.5 Harassment is not properly discharged supervisory responsibilities including performance evaluation, disciplinary action, day-to-day management of the operation, or conduct that does not interfere with a climate of understanding and respect for the dignity and work of Aramark employees.

3.6 The Employer agrees that information and training regarding harassment and discrimination is essential and will work with the Union to ensure bargaining unit members are provided with appropriate information and training on the contents of the harassment policies and programs as well as legislation pertaining to the matters of harassment and discrimination.

3.7 The parties agree that allegations of discrimination and harassment should be dealt with in a timely manner. Therefore, allegations of discrimination and harassment will be investigated on a timely basis.

3.8 If an allegation(s) pursued under the grievance procedure is against the person who would normally deal with the first step of such a grievance, the next level of supervision will hear the grievance.

3.9 Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence is any form of violence between intimate partners. The violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, or psychological abuse, including financial control, stalking and harassment. It occurs between mixed or same sex intimate partners, who may or may not be married, common law, or living together. It can also continue to happen after a relationship has ended. It can be a single act of violence or a number of acts that form a pattern of abuse.

The Company agrees to recognize that employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal lives that may affect their attendance or performance at work. For that reason, the Company agrees that an employee who is in an abusive or violent situation will not be subject to discipline if the absence or performance issue can be linked to the abusive or violent situation. The Company shall provide five (5) paid days, as per the Employment Standards Act for employees in situations of domestic violence. An employee is not entitled to this leave if the employee committed the domestic or sexual violence. Additional absences, which are not covered by sick leave or disability insurance, will be granted as absent with permission without pay. Requests submitted under the terms of this article will be treated as confidential by the Company.

If the Company becomes aware, or ought reasonably to be aware, that domestic violence that would likely expose a worker to physical injury may occur in the workplace, the Company shall take every precaution reasonable in the circumstances for the protection of the worker. (OH&SA S32.0).

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

4.1 The Union recognizes and acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the employer to:

- (i) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
- (ii) hire, discharge, layoff, direct, classify, transfer, promote, demote and suspend or otherwise reasonably discipline any employee provided that it is not done in an arbitrary, discriminatory or bad faith manner, and a claim that any such employee has been discharged or disciplined without just cause, may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as hereinafter provided; and

4.2 The Company has the right to make and alter reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by employees provided that these rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement and are made known to both the Union and the employees in writing with as much notice as possible before they are introduced.

ARTICLE 5 – JOB SECURITY

- 5.1 Persons whose jobs (paid or unpaid) are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except as required to provide relief during breaks or in an emergency situation. It is specifically recognized that all events and operating hours of the Company, will be scheduled and staffed only by bargaining unit personnel except as required to provide relief during breaks or in an emergency situation. It is also further and specifically recognized that supervisors and other non-bargaining unit personnel will not perform bargaining unit work, including while bargaining unit employees are on layoff and awaiting an opportunity of recall.

ARTICLE 6 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 6.1 Any complaint, disagreement, or difference of opinion between the Employer and the Union, or between the Employer and an employee covered by this Collective Agreement which concerns the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of the terms and provisions of this Collective Agreement, may be considered as a grievance.
- 6.2 If there occur grievances, complaints, disputes and differences arising between the Company and the employees as to the interpretation, application or non-application of the provisions of this Agreement, an earnest effort shall be made to settle such differences in the following manner:
- (a) Complaint: An aggrieved employee shall meet with the Manager to resolve the matter and may be accompanied by his/her steward. If the alleged grievance is not settled within forty-eight (48) hours, it may be carried to step (b).
 - (b) The written grievance shall be submitted to the General Manager within ten (10) days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance or within ten (10) days of the time the Employee should reasonably have been aware of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance and the General Manager shall give his/her written decision within a five (5) days period. The grievor and the steward will attend this meeting. Replies to the grievances will be sent to the Union with a copy to the grievor.

6.3 Group Grievance

The Company will recognize a group grievance as one which affects more than one employee with respect to whom the issues and facts are substantially the same.

6.4 Policy Grievance

Any difference arising directly between the Union and the Employer involving the interpretation or alleged violation of this Agreement which cannot otherwise be dealt with under this Article because of the inability or refusal of an employee to submit a grievance, or where the grievance affects a group of employees, or a department, or the Company as a whole, may be submitted by the Union in writing at the step as stated in Article 6.2 (b) of the Agreement.

Failing satisfactory solution within the time limit as stated in Article 6.2 (b), such grievances may be referred to Arbitration.

6.5 Discharge Grievances

A claim by an employee that he/she has been discharged will be dealt with at Step 6.2(b) above of the grievance procedure, provided the grievance is submitted within ten (10) calendar days after the discharge occurs.

- (i) Such grievances may be resolved by confirming the discharge, or by re-instating the employee with full compensation, or by any other arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties.
- (ii) It is agreed that the stewards and the Union Representative will be notified immediately of the dismissal of any employee in the bargaining unit.

6.6 Representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees

The Union shall have the right, at any time, to be assisted by a Representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees and/or the President or Vice-President of the Local as designated by the Local.

6.7 All time spent to complete grievance meetings with the employer shall be considered time worked. Such time shall include 30 minutes before the beginning of the meeting with the employer.

6.8 The Company will schedule grievance meetings during the regular work hours of both the aggrieved employee and the steward unless it is not possible to do so.

6.9 Whenever the Employer asks any employee that is to attend a meeting regarding the application of discipline, or the investigation of a potential disciplinary matter, as long as the employee is the subject of the investigation, the Employer shall ensure that union representation will be arranged unless the employee elects to forego said representation.

If the Employee foregoes representation, the Employer will document this in writing and informs the union.

6.10 With as much notice as possible and before the meeting happens, the Company will advise the Union of the nature and content of the meeting.

6.11 The Company will schedule such meetings during the regular work hours of both the employee and the Union Representative unless it is not possible to do so.

6.12 In the event the Company has a grievance, the Company and/or designate shall file the grievance in writing within ten (10) days of the circumstances giving rise to a grievance. The Union shall meet with the Company and/or designate within ten (10) days of the receipt of such grievance. In the event the Union do not provide redress satisfactory to the Company, the Company and designate may process the grievance to arbitration in accordance with the arbitration provisions as set out in this Agreement, with the necessary changes being made.

6.13 The time limits specified herein may be extended by mutual consent.

6.14 Mediation

Once the Union or Employer has processed a grievance to arbitration, both parties may within forty (40) days agree to use the services of a mutually agreeable Mediator to assist the parties in resolving the grievance. The Grievor(s) will attend the mediation meeting at the request of Union. Time spent in attendance at mediation during an employee's regular working hours shall be without pay. The parties will jointly, in equal shares, bear the expenses of the Mediator. Any mutually agreeable resolution reached by the parties through such mediation shall be binding upon the parties. In the event that no mutually agreeable resolution is reached, the grievance will proceed to arbitration.

ARTICLE 7 – ARBITRATION

7.1 Where a difference arises between the Parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either of the Parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure established by this Agreement, and within two (2) months of the completion of step 6.2(b) of the grievance procedure, notify the other Party in writing of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

7.2 Timelines to refer grievances to arbitration may be extended by mutual agreement.

7.3 The Parties agree to select a sole arbitrator by mutual agreement, failing which either Party may request that an appointment be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario.

7.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing either Party may make application for an expedited hearing pursuant to the provisions of the Ontario Labour Relations Act, 1995.

7.5 The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference of allegation and shall issue a decision, and the decision shall be final and binding upon the Parties and upon any employee affected by it.

7.6 Each Party shall pay its own costs, and the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Parties.

ARTICLE 8 - STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS

- 8.1 During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no lock-out by the Company nor shall there be any strike (either complete or partial), slow-down, or other such concerted activity by the Union or employees. There shall be no strike or lock-out as long as this Agreement continues to operate. "Strike" and "lock-out" shall be as defined in the Ontario Labour Relations Act.
- 8.2 Should a strike occur during the term of this Agreement, the Union shall advise its members to abide by the Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 - HOURS OF WORK

- 9.1 All employees shall be scheduled on the basis of forty (40) hours per week, eight (8) hours per day, including a one-half (1/2) hour paid meal or lunch/dinner break. This shall be the maximum hours of work to be paid at straight time rates of pay, however it shall not be construed as a guarantee of either a minimum or maximum of hours of work per day or per scheduled period. Schedules will be posted to provide employees with as much advance notice as possible and in no case will such notice be less than at least five (5) consecutive days in advance of the scheduled work week. Schedules will be offered by seniority within each location and will be selected beginning with the most senior. Changes to the posted schedules may not be made without at least 48 hours' notice to the affected employee.
- 9.2 All authorized hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day, or in excess of forty (40) hours per week, shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate. In computing hours of work for purposes of overtime, sick leave with pay, bereavement leave, and paid statutory holidays shall be considered as time worked.
- 9.3 The Parties agree that employees will, whenever possible, notify their manager with as much notice as possible in the event that the employee is unable to attend work. Where the employee has given notice of inability to attend work, the Company shall not call the employee back to discuss scheduling, staffing difficulties, or other work related matters, unless failing to call would result in a disadvantage to the employee.
- 9.4 All employees shall be entitled to:
- one fifteen (15) minute paid break for scheduled shifts greater than three (3) hours;
 - one fifteen (15) minute paid break and thirty (30) minutes paid lunch for scheduled shifts greater than five (5) hours;
 - two fifteen (15) minute paid breaks, one in each half of the shift, and thirty (30) minute paid lunch for scheduled shifts of eight (8) hours (inclusive of lunch);
 - should the Employer require an Employee to work during their break, they may return and restart the break when available.
- 9.5 When the Employer needs additional staff, they will call available and qualified staff by seniority beginning with the most senior in the location, followed by the staff in the other location, beginning with the most senior.

- 9.6 An employee reporting for work by instruction of the Company and at the commencement of his/her scheduled work day, but for whom no work is available, will be offered a minimum of three (3) consecutive hours' employment in other work at his/her regular hourly rate or, at the Company's option, shall be entitled to three (3) hours' pay at his/her regular hourly rate. This guarantee shall not apply in the event that the operations of the Company are affected by a labour dispute, fire, electrical failure, major mechanical failure or other major occurrence beyond the control of the Company. This guarantee shall not apply in the case of an employee who has been absent from his/her scheduled work and who has failed to inform the Company of his/her intention to return and the date thereof.
- 9.7 Any employee called in to work outside his/her scheduled shift hours, other than those immediately before or immediately after (with or without a mealtime break) his/her scheduled shift, shall be given at least three (3) consecutive hours' work or paid for three (3) hours' time at his/her regular hourly rate.
- 9.8 No shift of less than three (3) hours will be scheduled.
- 9.9 Any employee who is entitled to paid overtime in accordance with this Article, or to compensation for premium pay as set out in Article 13, may elect time off or a portion thereof in lieu of payment. An employee may accumulate time off up to a maximum of three (3) weeks at any one time. The time off will be taken at a time which is mutually convenient to the individual and the Company.
- 9.10 Employees will, whenever possible, notify their supervisor with as much notice as possible but not less than one (1) hour before their shift starts, in the event that the employee is unable to attend work. Where the employee has given notice of inability to attend work, the Company shall not call the employee back to discuss scheduling, staffing difficulties, or other work related matters, unless failing to call would result in a disadvantage to the employee.

ARTICLE 10 – SENIORITY

- 10.1 For the purposes of this Article, service shall mean the service as an employee as defined in Article 1 - Definition.
- 10.2 Seniority is based on an employee's total length of unbroken service. A break in service is defined as an absence of greater than thirty (30) consecutive days.
- 10.3 No employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without the employee's consent. An employee who accepts a position outside the bargaining unit or who ceases to be an employee as defined in Article 1, but who remains in the employ of the Company at Donald Gordon Conference Centre, shall retain credit for his/her accumulated seniority, and shall be entitled to such seniority if he/she subsequently resumes a status as an employee under this Agreement within a six (6) month period.

- 10.4 If there is a break or breaks in an employee's service, his/her seniority shall be based on his/her length of unbroken service which shall have accumulated since his/her last rehiring by the Company.
- 10.5 A break in an employee's service with the Company shall be deemed to have occurred:
- (a) If he/she leaves the employ of the Company;
 - (b) If he/she is discharged for just cause and not reinstated through the grievance procedure, including an instance where an employee is absent from work without notice to the Company for three (3) consecutive working days and subsequently fails to provide the Company with a reasonable explanation for his/her absence and failure to give notice;
 - (c) If he/she is laid off because of lack of work and is not recalled within two (2) years.
 - (d) If the employee is absent from work for three (3) consecutive working days without proper notification to the Employer unless a reasonable explanation is provided by the employee.
 - (e) If a State of Emergency is declared by the government and/or any other shutdown, which results in a layoff and employees are not recalled within two (2) years, the Employer agrees to meet with the Union to discuss Article 10.5 (c) of the collective agreement.
- 10.6 (a) A new employee shall be on probation until he/she has completed sixty (60) days of work for the Company. Thereafter, his/her length of service shall be calculated from his/her date of hiring.
- Employees, at the discretion of management, may be removed from probationary status earlier than sixty (60) working days.
- No employee will be required to serve more than one (1) probationary period.
- (b) An employee who is rehired within a one (1) year period shall not be regarded as a probationary employee nor shall they be required to have a trial period as described in Article 11.1 (e). Length of service shall be calculated from date of rehiring.
 - (c) A probationary employee shall have all rights under the terms of this Agreement, except where such employee is discharged by the Company during this period; it shall not be open to review under the grievance procedure set out in this Agreement and/or arbitration. Any employee who has completed their sixty (60) days of probation may be dismissed but only for just cause.

- 10.7 The Company will provide up-to-date seniority lists to the Union and will also post the lists in all work locations by the 1st of January, April, and October.

The list will also indicate the employee's location and employment status (such as full-time, part-time, temporary, seasonal, casual), and if the employee is on a leave of absence.

The employer will provide to the Union a list of all the employees in the bargaining unit. The list will include each employee's name, job title/classification, home mailing address, home telephone number (and other available personal telephone numbers, such as cellular numbers), and, if available, personal e-mail. The list shall be provided in March and September of each year.

When two (2) or more members of the Bargaining Unit have the same seniority date, the employer will forward the names and addresses of the employees and the positions awarded to the Union. The Union shall draw the names of the employees by lot at a regular or special meeting of the Union. The employee whose name is chosen earlier shall be deemed to have greater seniority. The Union will advise the employer of the outcome and the employer shall be entitled to rely upon the results as provided.

- 10.8 It is not the intent of the Company to replace full-time employees with part-time employees.

ARTICLE 11 - PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

- 11.1 Whenever a new job is created or when a vacancy occurs, notice shall be posted on the same boards and at the same time as the work schedules, for seven (7) calendar days. Any employee may apply for the posted job, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) Each posting shall contain a brief description of the duties of the job, the qualifications required, the classification, shift, and wage rate.
- (b) Each application must be submitted in writing during the seven (7) day posting period;
- (c) Subject to the foregoing, vacancies shall be filled on the basis of seniority within the location provided that the employee meets the qualifications and can demonstrate the ability to perform the normal duties of the posted job (any employee who is in a full-time position at the date of ratification, will not require formal qualifications, e.g., Red Seal, Gold Seal).
- (d) In the event that there is no successful applicant within the location, the Company shall consider applicants from other locations prior to considering applicants from outside the bargaining unit.
- (e) In the event that no employee bids for a posted job during the seven (7) day posting period, or should no applicant meet the posted requirements for the job, the Employer may fill the position from sources outside the bargaining unit;

- (f) Successful applicants under this section shall have a trial period of sixty (60) days of work to familiarize themselves with the new job, during which time they shall have the option of returning to their former position within the bargaining unit. The Employer may, during this trial period, return the employee to his/her former position where the employee is incapable of performing the job.

- 11.2 Temporary transfers within the same classification or temporary promotions for periods in excess of ten (10) working days will be selected according to Article 11.1.

Temporary transfers between classifications of less than ten (10) consecutive working days shall be filled at the Company's discretion. Seniority, qualifications, skill(s), and ability to perform the work required shall be governing factors. Employees shall have the option to decline the temporary transfer provided they are not the least senior and/or they are the only qualified employee. The rate of pay shall be the higher rate between the two (2) positions.

ARTICLE 12 - LAY-OFF AND RECALL

- 12.1 In the event of a permanent lay-off, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) The Employer will lay-off the most junior employee(s) in the classification in the location to be affected by the lay-off.
- (b) The Employer will give the Union and the employee(s) affected thirty (30) days advance notice of such permanent lay-off. The employee(s) affected by the permanent lay-off will be entitled to exercise his/her seniority in accordance with this Article. At the same time, the Union will be provided with an updated seniority list.
