ARTICLE 7 – CALCULATION OF SENIORITY

7.01 Every employee shall be placed on probation for a period of three (3) consecutive months of service from the date on which employment commenced. Days absent, excluding training, during the period of probation will be added to extend the period as required.

7.02 Seniority shall be established on the basis of an employee's service with the bargaining unit, calculated from the date upon which the employee commenced their present employment with the Employer. 7.03 Term/casual employees shall have no seniority rights in matters of promotion, demotion, layoff and recall.

7.04 Service as a term employee shall be counted for seniority purposes in the event that such service is changed, by unbroken service, into permanent employment.

ARTICLE 8 – STAFF CHANGES

8.01 Prior to filling positions either inside or outside the bargaining unit, the Employer shall email said notices to all members of the bargaining unit. The postings shall be open for a period of a minimum of three (3) working days, in order that all members know about the positions and be able to make written application thereof. Such notice shall contain the following information: nature and location of the position, required knowledge and education, ability and skills, whether day or evening shift, salary rate or range, and closing date and time of posting. Bulletins shall be e-mailed to the address on file with the Employer for employees on sick leave or on leave of absence.

8.02 Governing Principles

Seniority shall be the determining factor in matters of promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff and recall, provided the employee has the necessary qualifications to meet the requirements of the job. Qualifications necessary to perform the requirements of the position may be determined by a testing procedure. Prior to the closing of the bulletin, the applicant shall meet with the immediate supervisor(s) in order to discuss expectations and provide opportunity for clarification of job requirements. The successful applicant shall have one (1) working day to accept or reject the position. In a case of promotion or transfer, the successful applicant shall be placed on trial for a period of three (3) months. Conditional on satisfactory service, such trial promotion or transfer shall become permanent after a period of three (3) months.

8.03 The Employer shall, not later than ten (10) working days from when the decision was made, notify all applicants, and the Union, in writing, of the appointment. An employee who is notified that they are an unsuccessful applicant for a vacant or new position shall be supplied, upon request, with the reasons for non-acceptance within ten (10) days of being notified.

8.04 Term employees may be required to complete their term assignment before being considered for a permanent position within the bargaining unit.

8.05 The successful applicant may return to their prior position within the first twenty (20) working days, if the employee feels the position is not suited to them.

8.06 In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the aforementioned trial period, the employee shall be returned to their former position with no loss in pay or seniority.

8.07 The Union recognizes that the Employer may fill positions outside of the Bargaining Unit as it sees fit.

8.08 The Employer recognizes, in principle, the desirability of training for promotion, if it is (a) necessary (b) practicable.

8.09 Employees of all genders shall be given equal opportunity provided the applicant is suitable for the position vacant.

8.10 Union Objection to Appointments

Any objection by the Union to staff changes shall be construed as a difference between the parties bound by the Agreement as provided for under the grievance procedure.

8.11 New Positions and Reclassifications

Where new positions are created or current positions reclassified, one (1) class up (or down) the incumbent shall be given the opportunity to retain the position without bulletining the position. Positions where the reclassification involves more than one (1) class change shall be bulletined. The Employer shall advise the Union in advance of the nature of the position and the proposed wage or salary rate. In the event that the Union shall disagree with the said rate, the rate shall be negotiated between the Employer and the Union. Failing agreement, the matter will be referred to mediation. A mediator will be assigned that is mutually agreeable to both parties, and be subject to Article 10.02.

8.12 Where the Employer and the Union agree but there has been a substantial change in an existing job, they shall enter into negotiation to arrive at a mutually agreeable pay grade and rate. Failing agreement, the matter will be referred to mediation. A mediator will be assigned that is mutually agreeable to both parties and be subject to Article 10.02.

8.13 Positions Requiring Higher Certification

In cases of promotion requiring higher certification, the Employer shall give consideration to employees who do not hold the required certificate, but are writing for such certificate prior to filling the vacancy. Such an employee shall be given an opportunity to qualify within a reasonable length of time and to revert to their former position if the required certificate is not obtained within such time.

8.14 All vacancies including those of a temporary nature having a known duration of more than twelve (12) weeks shall be bulletined.

8.15 When a position becomes vacant thirty (30) calendar days, or less, after the position was filled:

(a) The position does not have to be bulletined, but rather, the position may be offered to the next qualified applicant, as outlined in Article 8.02, from the original competition.

(b) If there was only one (1) applicant in the original competition the position will be bulletined.

[Signature]

(c) If the position was originally filled from outside the bargaining unit, notice of the position vacancy will be posted in all offices for a period of two (2) working days. If no applications are received, the appointment will be made to an applicant outside the bargaining unit.

8.16 (a) When an employee is absent on extended sick leave including LTD for two (2) years or less, or maternity/adoptive/parental leave or personal leave of eighty (80) weeks or less, the incumbent's position will be bulletined as a term position. Should this position become permanent, it is not required to be re-bulletined.

(b) When an employee is absent on extended sick leave, including LTD for more than two (2) years or maternity/adoptive/parental leave or personal leave for more than eighty (80), the incumbent's position shall be bulletined as an established position.

(c) Should the employee return from leave in (a) above they will return to their former position.

(d) Should the employee return from leave in (b) above, they will replace the employee in the least senior position in their position's pay grade.

Where replacement of the employee in the least senior position results in a reduction in hours worked, there shall be no loss in salary until a comparable position is available in that pay grade, for which the employee may apply.

If the employee does not choose to apply, salary shall be reduced to compensate the employee for actual hours worked.

(e) An employee returning from any of the above leave conditions shall notify the Employer at least two (2) weeks in advance of their intended date of return.

8.17 Unless otherwise specifically provided for in the Collective Agreement, the following conditions shall apply where such a term is posted and, a full-time or part-time employee is the successful applicant, at the completion of the term the full-time or part-time employee shall be returned to their former position. If their former position no longer exists, the employee shall be returned to an equivalent position at no loss of salary, and until a position in a comparable classification is available, for which the employee must apply.

8.18 The Employer agrees to draw up job descriptions for all positions for which the Union is the bargaining agent. These descriptions shall be emailed to the Union and the Union may provide written feedback within thirty (30) days from which the email was received. Thereafter, the Employer will, in its sole discretion, establish the job descriptions. Established job descriptions shall form part of the Employer's administrative procedures.

Handwritten initials and date: "Jal", "1/15", and a circled signature.

The Board of Trustees shall render a written decision within fifteen (15) working days of the hearing.
