PREAMBLE

Collective Agreement between –

The Ottawa Community Housing Corporation
(herein called “The Employer”) of the first part and –

The Canadian Union of Public Employees and its Local 503
(herein called “The Union”) of the second part

It is the intent and purpose of this Agreement to recognize the community of interest between the Employer and the Union, in promoting the utmost co-operation between the Employer and its employees, consistent with the rights of both parties. It is the further intent of this Agreement to foster a friendly spirit which shall prevail at all times between the Employer and its employees and to this end this Agreement is signed in good faith by the two parties. This Agreement is designed to set out clearly the rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment to be observed by the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

1.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the Ottawa Community Housing Corporation, save and except the following:

- (a) Positions excluded under the Labour Relations Act;
- (b) Positions represented by the Civic Institute of Professional Personnel:
Architectural Officer, Asset Planning Officer, Assistant Project Manager, Business Analyst, Business Systems Analyst, Capital Programs Officer, Communications and Design Specialist, Communications Specialist, Energy and Sustainability Officer, Finance Process and Funding Officer, Finance Officer, Information Analyst, Procurement Officer, Project Manager, Project Manager Construction, Project Manager Development, Project Manager Land Development, Project Planning Officer, Release Coordinator, Security and Network Analyst, Senior Business Systems Analyst, Senior Security and Network Analyst, Strategy and Corporate Performance Officer, Systems Analyst.
- (c) Legal Counsel.

ARTICLE 2 – DEFINITIONS

2.01

- (a) “Employee” means a person in the bargaining unit described in Article 1.
- (b) “Probationary Employee” means one who is employed in the bargaining unit and has not acquired seniority.
- (c) “Part-Time Employee” means an employee who is regularly scheduled for twenty- four (24) hours, or less, per week. It is recognized that a part-time employee may be required from time to time in excess of twenty-four (24) hours per week to replace an employee absent from work under the terms of the Collective Agreement.
- (d) “Temporary Employee” means an employee who has been hired to replace a permanent or probationary employee while on sick leave, vacation leave, leave without pay, WSIB, in receipt of Long Term Disability benefits, parental leave, special or compassionate leave, educational leave, while seconded to a management or bargaining unit excluded position or while participating in career development.

or

With the consent of the Union a temporary employee may be hired in special situations which arise from such things as experimental and/or special programs, for a defined period not to exceed 12 months. Consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Employer may, with the approval of the Union, extend the employee's temporary employment.

The hiring of temporary employees shall not derogate from the requirement to fill vacancies and new positions of a permanent nature as set out in the collective agreement.

- (e) "Continuous Service": No employee shall be deemed to have ceased to be continually employed by reason only of being absent from work on statutory holidays, on parts of regular working days, or on any leave duly authorized under the provisions of this Agreement or because of any layoff lasting not more than 90 calendar days, or because of absence due to an industrial accident under the terms of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act and consistent with the terms of this Agreement.
- (f) "Standard Hours of Work" shall be interchangeable with "Hours of Work".
- (g) In relation to "working hours", "working day", "work week", the word "Standard" shall be interchangeable with "normal".
- (h) In relation to rate of pay the word "normal" shall be interchangeable with the word "regular".

2.02 Plural

Wherever the singular is used in this Agreement it shall be considered as if the plural has been used wherever the context so requires.

ARTICLE 3 – RESPONSIBILITY OF THE EMPLOYER

- 3.01 Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, it is the function of the Employer:

- (a) To maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
- (b) To classify positions;
- (c) To hire, transfer and promote;
- (d) To suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline employees for proper cause subject to the right of the employee concerned to lodge a grievance under the orderly procedure outlined in Article 9;
- (e) Determine function, complement, organization and location;
- (f) Determine assignment of work, work methods and procedures;

3.02 The Employer agrees not to interfere with the rights of its employees designated within the scope of this Agreement, and there shall be no discrimination, interference, restraint and coercion by the Employer, or any of its representatives against any employee because of Union Membership, or against any Union Representative because of union activity within the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

3.03 The Employer agrees that during the life of this Agreement and during the period of negotiation of any revisions to this Agreement, or of a new agreement including the period of arbitration, there shall be no lockout.

3.04 The Employer agrees that there shall be no discrimination against any person because of citizenship, race, place of origin, ethnic origin, creed, colour, ancestry, age, disability, family status, sex, marital status, same sex partnership status, political affiliation, place of residence, or sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or record of offences. The Employer further agrees not to discriminate in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

3.05 The Employer recognizes and accepts the provisions of this Agreement as binding upon itself and upon each of its authorized representatives and pledges that it and each of its duly authorized representatives will observe the provisions of this Agreement.

3.06 The Employer agrees to provide the Union with public reports and recommendations to be dealt with by the Board of Directors at the same time as they are sent to the members of the Board. Should the Union not make its views known prior to the Board dealing with the report or recommendation, this shall not be construed as concurrence by the Union with the report or recommendation.

- 3.07 The Ottawa Community Housing Corporation agrees to provide the CUPE Local 503 President a copy of new or amended policies related to any matter covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 – RESPONSIBILITY OF THE UNION

- 4.01 The Union agrees that it will not intimidate or coerce employees into membership in the Union.
- 4.02 The Union agrees that membership solicitation and other Union activity not pertaining to this Agreement, will not take place during working hours or on the premises of the Employer or on any work project the Employer may be engaged in.
- 4.03 The Union agrees that during the life of this Agreement and during the period of negotiation of any revision to this Agreement, or of any new agreement including the period of arbitration, there shall be no strike or other cessation of work.
- 4.04 The Union agrees that there shall be no discrimination against any person because of citizenship, race, place of origin, ethnic origin, creed, colour, ancestry, age, disability, family status, sex, marital status, same sex partnership status, political affiliation, place of residence, or sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or record of offences. The Union further agrees not to discriminate in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.
- 4.05 The Union recognizes and accepts the provisions of this Agreement as binding upon itself, each of its duly authorized officers, representatives and employees represented by the Union, and pledges that it, and each of its duly authorized officers and representatives and employees represented by the Union, will observe the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION SECURITY AND DUES

- 5.01 The Employer shall deduct from the pay cheque of present members of the Union and all future employees represented by the Union, all normal dues chargeable by the Union and shall remit the same to the Secretary- Treasurer of the Union biweekly. “Normal dues” shall not include entrance fees or special assessments levied by the Union. Following the negotiation of a new Collective Agreement, the dues retroactively owed by members, if any, shall be deducted from the member’s retroactive pay cheques and remitted to the Secretary- Treasurer of the Union.

- 5.02 The Employer shall supply the Union with an alphabetical order dues check-off list on a bi-weekly basis and the list shall include the following information: name, address, employee identification number, seniority date, classification, dues paid, total payroll and length of service.
- 5.03 The Employer agrees to provide the Union, on an annual basis, the number of full-time male and female employees in the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 6 – LABOUR MANAGEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

- 6.01 The Union shall provide the Employer with the names of its Negotiating Committee, and the Employer shall provide the Union with the names of the Employer's Negotiating Committee prior to commencement of negotiations. Any additions or deletions from the list of names provided shall be communicated to the other party without undue delay.
- 6.02 The Union shall have the right to have the assistance of representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees in meetings arranged with the Employer.
- 6.03 In the event of one party wishing to call a meeting of the Negotiating Committees the other party shall be notified. The meeting shall be held at a time and place as shall be fixed by mutual agreement.
- 6.04 The Employer and Union agree to share equally, the cost for meeting rooms used during negotiations and the cost of printing the Collective Agreement.
- 6.05 The Negotiating Committee shall have the right to attend meetings held within working hours in order to prepare amendments for the next Agreement up to a maximum of three (3) days per member. Such employees shall be paid at their regular rate of pay.
- 6.06 The Employer shall grant leave-of-absence without loss of pay or benefits to members of the Union who participate in negotiations, conciliation or interest arbitration, provided that not more than three (3) employees at one time shall be permitted such leave for any one set of negotiations. The Union may request a leave-of-absence of one (1) additional member and shall reimburse the Employer for all associated costs for said member.

ARTICLE 7 – UNION MANAGEMENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

7.01 Statement of Purpose

It is to the mutual benefit of both the Union and the Employer to establish and maintain a sound communicative and co-operative relationship. A Union Management Advisory Committee is hereby established where an exchange of information and ideas may take place and with the responsibility for dealing with matters of mutual interest which cannot be dealt with through any alternate procedures.

7.02 Scope

The Committee will discuss areas of mutual concern including such items as work methods, operating efficiencies, and morale, and shall seek to promote understanding and agreement between the parties. However, it will not perform any of those functions which are exclusively the functions of Management and/or the Union. It is understood that the Committee shall act in an advisory capacity and shall have no power to alter or amend, add to or modify, the terms of the Collective Agreement. The Committee is not intended in any way to replace or infringe upon the grievance or negotiating procedures.

ARTICLE 8 – UNION REPRESENTATION

8.01 In order to provide for an orderly and speedy procedure for the settling of grievances, the Employer agrees to recognize as steward any employee appointed by the Union. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of such stewards at the time of their appointment. The Employer shall not be required to recognize any stewards until it has been so notified.

- (a) The Union recognizes that each steward is employed full-time or part time by the Employer and that they will not leave their work during working hours to perform their duties as a steward except in accordance with this Collective Agreement.
- (b) No steward shall leave their work to perform their duties as a steward without obtaining the permission of their immediate supervisor. Permission shall be given within an hour unless an emergency situation requires the employee to continue their work for the Employer, in which case the steward shall be permitted to immediately contact the Union office.

- (c) When requesting permission to leave their work during working hours to perform their duties as a steward, the steward shall indicate the anticipated time of return and should it be necessary to revise the time of return, they shall notify their immediate supervisor. The steward shall report to their immediate supervisor upon their return to work.
- (d) The Union recognizes that a steward shall not use such time away from their work except to perform their duties as a steward.

8.03 An employee shall have the right to have a Union Representative or Steward present at any discussion with management, security, or supervisory personnel which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview any employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall so notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact their Steward or Union Representative to be present at the interview. The Employer may suspend the employee with pay, pending the interview.

8.04 In the administration of the Collective Agreement, it is recognized that the Ottawa Community Housing Corporation will have at least (4) stewards chosen from the employees of the Corporation. One steward per District entity and one representing head office, where possible.

ARTICLE 9 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

9.01 It is the intent of this Agreement to discuss and resolve as quickly as possible any complaints or differences between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged contravention of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

9.02 An employee shall discuss their complaint with their immediate supervisor within seven (7) days of the occurrence giving rise to the complaint so as to afford the supervisor an opportunity to resolve the complaint. The employee may be accompanied by a representative of the Union when the complaint is being discussed with the supervisor.

9.03 When an employee has presented their complaint to their supervisor and the complaint has not been resolved to their satisfaction within five (5) days of the meeting, they may file a grievance within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of their supervisor's reply to their complaint with the Division Director.

9.04 The Division Director or designate shall meet with the grievor and the Union Representative within ten (10) days from the day on which it was presented and shall, within ten (10) days from the meeting, render their decision in writing.

9.05 If the Division Director, or designate:

- (a) Fails to meet the grievor and the Union Representative, or
- (b) Fails to render their decision to the grievor and the Union Representative within ten (10) days of the meeting, or
- (c) The decision is not acceptable to the grievor and the Union Representative, a copy of the grievance may be forwarded to the Department Vice President within ten (10) days from the day on which the grievance was presented to the Division Director, or designate.

9.06 The Department Vice President or their designate shall within five (5) days after the serving of the copy of the grievance upon them, meet with the Union and the Division Director or designate of the employee's department, and shall within ten (10) days after the meeting with the Union provide a written decision with regard to the grievance.

9.07 In the event that the decision of the Department Vice President is not acceptable to the Union, the Union may notify the Department Vice President within ten (10) days of the receipt of the decision of the Department Vice President that it desires to submit the grievance to arbitration for final disposition in accordance with the procedure for Arbitration of Grievances contained in this Agreement.

9.08 Discharge Grievance

Where the grievance relates to the discharge of an employee, the grievance procedure shall start with the Department Vice President in accordance with the provisions of Article 9.06.

9.09 Policy Grievance

Where a Policy Grievance is initiated by either the Union or by the Employer, the procedure shall start with the Department Vice President in accordance with the provisions of Article 9.06.

9.10 At any stage in the grievance procedure an employee may be present and shall be represented by the Union in the presentation of a complaint or grievance.

9.11 Group Grievances

A Group Grievance is defined as a single grievance signed by the authorized Labour Representative, on behalf of a group of employees whom the Union represents and who have the same complaint. Such grievances must be dealt with at successive steps of the grievance procedure as set out in this Article.

9.12 Union Representation at Disciplinary Meetings

Where a meeting is called by Management regarding a disciplinary matter, the employee involved may request the attendance of a Union Steward or alternate at the meeting.

Management will endeavour to provide reasonable notice in order that the employee can arrange for appropriate Union representation. Should the Union Stewards or alternate be unable to attend within a reasonable time frame the Employer shall contact the President of Local 503 to provide an alternative representative.

9.13 Time Limits

The time limits expressed in this Article are working days and may be extended by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer. In each case, a request to extend the time limits must be in writing stating the reasons for the request. The Employer or the Union shall reply in writing.

9.14 Harassment

Cases of harassment shall be considered as discrimination and shall be eligible to be processed as grievances. Employees are encouraged to follow the process outlined in Article 9.02 or any processes defined in relevant OCH policy and procedures. Where the alleged harasser is the person who would normally deal with the first step of such grievances, the grievance will automatically be sent forward to the next step.

- 9.15 The Union will provide a copy of any grievance correspondence to the Director, Human Resources.

ARTICLE 10 – ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 10.01 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after duly exhausting the grievance procedure established by this Agreement, notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to a single arbitrator mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto.

- 10.02 Should the parties hereto fail to agree upon a person to act as a single Arbitrator, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario will be asked to appoint a person to act as a single Arbitrator.
- 10.03 The decision of the single Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and any employee affected by it.
- 10.04 The Arbitrator shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.
- 10.05 Each of the parties to this Agreement will jointly bear the expenses, if any, of the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 11- PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 11.01 The Employer shall notify the Union of all newly hired employees during the first week of employment. A Union Representative shall be allowed, during working hours, to meet up to a maximum of two (2) hours with a newly hired employee.
- 11.02 All new employees will serve a probationary period in accordance with this Article. During the probationary period, an employee may have their employment terminated without recourse to the grievance procedure, save and except where the termination is arbitrary, discriminatory, or in bad faith.
- a) New permanent or temporary full-time employees shall be on a probationary period normally not exceeding six (6) calendar months
 - b) For the purpose of this article, six (6) consecutive calendar months shall be defined as being employed without a break in service for which an employee receives pay except where an employee requests and is granted leave of absence without pay for a period not exceeding one calendar month.
 - c) The Employer, may with the approval of the Union, extend the probationary period of a full-time employee as specified above for an additional three (3) months. The Employer will provide the Union with a rationale for the request. The Employer shall make the affected employee aware of the request to extend the probation and the reason for the extension. In all cases, the request and confirmation will be signed off by the Employer and the Union.

- d) It is understood that all employees must complete the probationary period prior to applying for any other position within the bargaining unit, except when applying from part-time to full-time status and/or temporary to permanent status in the same position.
- e) A permanent or temporary part-time employee shall have a probationary period equivalent to 1,040 hours of work or twelve (12) months, whichever occurs first.
- f) The Employer, may with the approval of the Union, extend the probationary period of a part-time employee as specified above for an additional six (6) months or 520 hours, whichever occurs first. The Employer will provide the Union with a rationale for the request. The Employer shall make the affected employee aware of the request to extend the probation and the reason for the extension.
- g) When a probationary part-time employee is promoted to full-time status in the same position, they will be required to complete their remaining probationary period in accordance with this Article.

ARTICLE 12 – SENIORITY

12.01

- (a) Seniority, as referred to in this Agreement, shall mean the length of continuous service of an employee within the Bargaining Unit.
- (b) Seniority shall include the following:
 - i. Continuous service with the Ottawa-Carleton Housing Authority and the Ottawa Housing Corporation, and
 - ii. Continuous service with the City of Ottawa, the City of Ottawa Non- Profit Housing Corporation (City Living) and the Ottawa Community Housing Corporation.

12.02 Seniority shall commence from the first day of continuous employment provided that the employee has completed the probationary period.

12.03 Seniority shall accumulate under the following circumstances:

- (a) When the employee is on the active payroll of the Employer;
- (b) When the employee is off the payroll due to an authorized lay off of twelve (12) months or less;

- (c) When the employee is off the payroll due to an accident and when the employee is receiving compensation under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act and the predecessor Worker's Compensation Act, and when the employee has not accepted employment with another employer;
- (d) When the employee is off the payroll on any leave of absence authorized by the Employer and/or under the provisions of this Agreement, except in those situations covered by a leave of absence without pay in excess of twenty (20) days.

12.04 An employee shall lose seniority when they:

- (a) Voluntarily resigns or leaves the employment of the Employer or are absent from work without authorization for a period in excess of five (5) working days, unless the employee has a reason acceptable to the Employer, in which case it shall be deemed to be a voluntary termination;
- (b) Are discharged and not reinstated;
- (c) Are off the payroll for a continuous period of more than twelve (12) months as a result of a lay off;
- (d) Fails to report to work within three (3) working days after having been notified of a recall to work following a lay off unless the employee has a reason acceptable to the Employer;
- (e) Fails to return to work upon termination of authorized leave of absence unless the employee has a reason acceptable to the Employer, such failure shall be considered as a voluntary termination.

12.05 No employee shall be transferred outside the scope of this Agreement without their consent. In the event an employee, covered by this Agreement, accepts to be transferred to a position outside the scope of this Agreement and at a later period, returns to a position within the scope of this Agreement, the employee shall retain the seniority which the employee held at the time of transfer but shall not accumulate any additional seniority for the period during which the employee held a position outside the scope of this Collective Agreement.

12.06 Seniority Lists

- (a) The Employer shall provide the Union with a yearly seniority list, in April, in seniority order and in alphabetical order detailing the employees' names, classifications, Divisions, currently assigned work locations, and seniority dates. Employees on Long Term Disability will be included in this seniority list.

- (b) At all times the Employer shall supply sufficient copies for posting in appropriate work places and / or electronically distributed. This list shall be provided to all employees in April of each year.
- (c) Copies of all lay-off notices shall be sent to the Union and shall contain the following information: the employee's name, address, employee identification number, commencement of service (i.e., seniority date) and classification and department.

ARTICLE 13 – PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

- 13.01 All job vacancy notices shall contain the following information: job title, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift, salary range or wage rate. Such qualifications may not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.
- 13.02 All vacancies and new positions within the Bargaining Unit (except temporary positions lasting less than six (6) months) shall be posted for a period of five (5) working days. A copy of the notice shall be sent to the Union office.

Notice of job postings shall be distributed via email to employees with direct access to the OCH email system and via hard copy to staff without access to this email system.

- (a) Appointment shall be made based on the Employer's evaluation of the relative skill, ability, experience, knowledge and training of applicants. It is understood that the Employer has a right to establish the qualifications for the required vacancy or new position. These qualifications shall be those that are actually required to perform the normal functions of the position. A statement of qualifications will be made available to the Union or to interested employees, upon request. The employee's absenteeism may be considered where appropriate. The employee's past record and ability to perform the work of the Employer, shall also be considered. It is understood that where the qualifications of two applicants are relatively equal, the most senior candidate will be selected. Should the successful candidate be from within the Bargaining Unit, such selection where possible shall be made within four (4) weeks from the initial date of posting.
- (b) The Employer shall endeavour to notify the successful applicant within 30 calendar days of the closure of posting and the successful applicant shall be placed in the position within 30 calendar days of this notification.

- 13.04 The Employer shall notify unsuccessful candidates or, post the name of successful internal candidates in all competitions.
- 13.05 A successful applicant from the bargaining unit who has completed a probationary period shall have a trial for a period of three (3) months. The purpose of the trial is so that the employee can ascertain whether the work of the position is suitable to them and so that the Employer can determine if the employee is suitable and capable of performing the work of the position. The employer may, with the approval of the Union, extend the trial period for an additional three (3) months, if further evaluation regarding suitability is required. While on such trial the employee shall receive the salary to which an employee is entitled on promotion in accordance with the Collective Agreement. As well, should the employee be confirmed in the position, this trial period will not delay the employee's increment. Should the employee find the work suitable and should the Employer find the employee suitable and capable of performing the work of the position, after three (3) months, the Employer shall confirm the employee in the position. However, should the employee find the work unsuitable and/or the Employer find the employee unsuitable or incapable of performing the work of the position, the employee shall be returned to their former position and salary or wage rate and any other employee promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former position and salary or wage rate, except in cases where a temporary employee moves into a new position and is required to serve a trial period. If the employee is unsuccessful in completing the trial period they may be returned to their previous position if a vacancy exists. It is understood that the Employer has no obligation to hold the employee's previously held temporary position.

It is understood that "suitable" and "unsuitable" above refers to performance of work.

- 13.06 Employees shall be trained on equipment and provided with on-the-job training in accordance with their seniority providing they have the capability, with a view to the needs of the Employer at that time, and such training shall be on the Employer's time. Employees who desire such training may make application to the employee's Manager in writing. A reply, in writing, shall be given to such request.
- 13.07 When an employee is requesting a lateral transfer to the same position the employee shall not be required to pass any test and shall be deemed to be qualified for the vacancy.
- 13.08 Employees may submit a request for a lateral transfer, in writing to their Manager or to Human Resources. OCH will respond to such requests within ten (10) business days. The parties recognize that the transfer of employees from one work location to another does not constitute discrimination in accordance with Article 3.04.

13.09 The Employer may use the candidates from the original job competition to fill subsequent vacancies or new positions without having to post the vacancies or new positions subject to the following conditions:

- (a) The vacancies and/or new positions become available within six (6) months following the appointment of a successful candidate into a posted position; and
- (b) Any shift information, language requirements and salary range as indicated on the original job competition remains the same.

ARTICLE 14 – HOURS OF WORK & OVERTIME

14.01 Standard Hours of Work

The standard week for full-time employees shall consist of:

- (a) For maintenance employees (except as identified in 14.01 (a) (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv)) five (5) days of eight (8) hours per day to be scheduled between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday;
 - (i) For Maintenance Workers who volunteer to be on-call, work may be scheduled on Saturdays and Sundays, between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m., as a standard practice during an on-call rotation;
 - (ii) For Maintenance employees who deliver after-hours maintenance services, the standard work week will consist of five (5) days of work followed by two (2) consecutive days off. Hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day with a half hour lunch period;
 - (iii) For Maintenance employees who deliver after-hours maintenance services, work will be scheduled between 3 p.m. and 1 a.m. from Monday to Friday and on Saturday, Sunday and designated holidays between 8 a.m. and 1 a.m. Work may be scheduled outside of these hours for the purposes of training and meetings.
 - (iv) For Landscape Maintenance Workers, hours of work shall be (5) days of eight (8) consecutive hours to be scheduled between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday.

- (b) For Tenancy Support Workers and Community Developers, hours of work shall be five (5) days of seven (7) consecutive hours to be scheduled between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday. When a Tenancy Support Worker or Community Developer is required to attend a scheduled community meeting or event, the hours may be scheduled between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m. Monday to Friday.
- (c) For Rental Coordinators, Tenant Debt Resolution Coordinators and Subsidy Loss Prevention Coordinators, five (5) days of seven (7) hours per day to be scheduled between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. from Monday to Thursday and on Friday between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m.
- (d) Community Safety Workers will be scheduled to the terms and conditions as outlined in Appendix #8. Subject to the provisions of the memorandum, should either party terminate the memorandum, the standard hours of work will allow for 4/6/8/10/12 hour shifts, subject to operational requirements.
- (e) For Call Centre and Dispatch employees, the standard work week will consist of five (5) days of work followed by two (2) consecutive days off. Hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day and are subject to operational requirements.
- (f) For all other employees who work a 35 hour or 40 hour work week, five (5) days of seven (7) hours or eight (8) hours per day to be scheduled between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday.

14.02 Reporting

Employees shall report for duty at the place directed by the person in charge and shall go to and from such place on their own time within the limits of the Corporation of the City of Ottawa.

14.03 Lunch Period

For all scheduled shifts of more than five hours, lunch time, as specified in this Article, is outside the limitation of the hours to be worked as imposed in the sections and is not paid time. Employees shall receive a paid lunch period when they are not permitted to leave the work location and are required by the Employer to be available during the lunch period.

14.04 Daily working hours referred to in this Article are to be worked consecutively.

14.05 Rest Periods

Employees shall be entitled to a paid fifteen (15) minute rest period for each uninterrupted work period of three (3) hours, non-cumulative.

14.06 Overtime

- (a) Overtime shall be defined as time worked before or after the standard hours of work as well as time worked in excess of the normal hours of work per day and hours worked in excess of the standard week when directed by the employer.
- (b) No employee shall work overtime unless authorized in advance by the Manager or a person delegated by the Manager, except in cases of emergency. Emergency overtime shall be reported to the appropriate supervisor within one (1) working day for approval.
- (c) When scheduling overtime, the Employer shall endeavour to provide for the equitable distribution of overtime, where operationally feasible.
- (d) All employees who are called upon to work overtime hours shall be paid as follows: any hours worked as overtime hours (defined in Article 14.07(a)), shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times the employee's regular hourly rate of pay.
- (e) No employee shall be required to work in excess of sixteen (16) hours in any twenty-four (24) hour period, or to exceed thirty-two (32) overtime hours in any bi-weekly pay period. It is recognized, however, that the limitation of thirty-two (32) overtime hours may be exceeded in those situations where it is deemed that an emergency exists which requires the employee to exceed the overtime limit.
- (f) All employees may opt to accumulate compensating leave on a time and a half basis in lieu of pay at the overtime rate in accordance with Article 15.01 and 15.02. Compensating time shall be taken at a time mutually convenient to the employee and the employee's immediate supervisor. Compensating time shall not exceed one hundred twenty (120) hours at any time. Any credits over the maximum will be paid out in cash.
- (g) Compensating leave accumulated in a calendar year, that is not taken before January 31 of the following year, shall be paid at the overtime premium on the base rate at which it was earned. Employees can get paid for all or part of any time accumulated in their compensating time bank at any time upon giving fifteen (15) working days notice in writing.

- (h) An employee scheduled to work overtime on the employee's day off shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours at time and one-half (1 ½) of the employee's basic hourly rate.
- (i) Overtime meal allowance
 - a) Subject to (b) below, all employees required to work unscheduled overtime in excess of three (3) hours contiguous with their regular or normal work day shall be provided with a meal allowance of twelve dollars ($12.00), and for each additional five (5) hours, shall be provided with a further meal allowance of twelve dollars ($12.00).
 - b) Where a meal is provided by the Employer at no cost to the employee, the overtime meal allowance shall not be applicable.

14.07 Premium Pay

- (a) All hours worked on Saturday and/or Sunday shall be subject to a 7% premium on the base rate.
- (b) An employee in Community Safety Services, After Hours Maintenance, or the Call Centre shall be paid a 7% shift premium on base rate for all hours worked between 5:00pm and 8:00am Monday to Friday.

14.08 No Pyramiding

There shall be no pyramiding of overtime on premium pay under the terms of this Agreement and under no circumstances will more than one basis of calculating overtime or premium pay be used for the same or similar hours.

14.09 Shift Schedule

The Employer shall implement scheduling practices in order to assign shifts in an equitable manner to Employees in Community Safety Services and the Call Centre.

A schedule of hours of work covering an eight (8) consecutive week period shall be posted two (2) weeks in advance. It shall not be changed by the Employer without two (2) weeks notice being given to the employee concerned. This will not apply in the case of emergencies when schedules may be changed without notice. Any changes in the posted schedule requested by the Union, to permit employees to attend to business of the Union or mutual changes of shift between employees shall be allowed with the written consent of the Employer provided that the change does not involve any cost to the Employer and that the essential services can be maintained.

14.10 Part-Time Hours of Work

- (a) Part-time employees will be regularly scheduled for twenty-four (24) hours, or less, per week in accordance with Article 2.01 (c). Shifts will be scheduled in an equitable manner, based on operational requirements, with consideration given to availability and seniority.
- (b) On a monthly basis, employees must provide a current statement of availability with a minimum availability of three (3) days/full shifts per week in alignment with operational requirements.
- (c) Changes in an employee's availability will be considered and approved by the employer provided they continue to meet operational requirements.

ARTICLE 15 – SALARIES AND WAGES

- 15.01 Wages shall be paid on a two-weekly basis every second Friday. Where the regular pay day falls on a designated holiday, the employee shall be paid on the day preceding the holiday. An employee will be provided each pay day with an itemized statement of wages and deductions therefrom.
- 15.02 The hourly rate of pay is the official rate for all employees and the other rates of pay are for information purposes only.
- 15.03 All employees of the bargaining unit shall be paid in accordance with the salary schedules attached and forming part of the Collective Agreement.
- 15.04 For a part-time employee, salary increments will be given after completing 2,080 hours paid or twenty-four (24) months, whichever occurs first.
- 15.05 Except as provided in Articles 15.06 and 15.07, every employee shall be granted salary increments on their salary increment date until reaching the maximum in the range of rates for the relevant classification.
- 15.06 The Employer may deny a salary increment to an employee if they are dissatisfied with the employee's performance. Where the Employer intends to deny a salary increment to an employee, they shall at least two (2) weeks, but not more than six (6) weeks before the due date for the salary increment of the employee, give the employee the reason for the denial, in writing.

15.07 The Employer having denied a salary increment, shall subsequently grant the salary increment on the first day of any period prior to the employee's next increment date, and the employee shall retain their original increment date.

15.08 An employee who is promoted to a position having a higher salary scale, or whose position has been re-classified upward, shall be paid at the salary rate next higher to the rate they received prior to their promotion, provided their salary rate represents a minimum of 104% of the remuneration which the employee would have received in the next 52 week period, had no promotion taken place. The effective date of the promotion will become the date for establishing the date of implementation of future salary increments.

15.09 Salary Protection on Downward Reclassification

- (a) When a position has been reclassified downward the employee (present incumbent only) in the reclassified position will be fitted into the new classification (at a level not less than the employee's current earnings) provided the employee's earnings do not exceed the maximum of the salary for the new classification. In this circumstance, the employee's increment date will not change and the employee shall receive the negotiated increases, as well.
- (b) Should the employee's salary be in excess of the salary for the new classification such salary will be frozen as of the date of the reclassification save and except any increases negotiated by the Parties.

15.10 Call-Out & Reporting Allowance

- (a) Each employee who has completed a regular day's work and leaves the place of work (including On-call Maintenance Workers who have completed their regular shift and the on-site time) and who is subsequently called back prior to the starting time of the next scheduled shift, shall be paid a minimum of three (3) hours at time-and one-half (1½) the employee's basic hourly rate. An employee shall be allowed to refuse a call-out.
- (b) An On-call Maintenance Worker shall not be entitled to more than one call- out and reporting allowance unless such a second call-out occurs more than two (2) hours after the time of the first calling.

- (c) A full-time employee may opt to accumulate compensating leave on a time and a half time basis in lieu of pay at the overtime rate in accordance with Article 14.07. Compensating time shall be taken at a time mutually convenient to the employee and the employee's immediate supervisor.

15.11 Pay During Acting Assignments

(a) Acting Pay

- (i) Employees directed by the Employer to temporarily perform the substantial duties of a position in a classification having a higher salary range shall be paid acting pay, provided the assignment is for a period in excess of three (3) continuous working days.
 - (ii) In such cases, the employee shall be paid acting pay from the first (1st) day of such assignment. (It is recognized that "duties" refers to the normal duties of the position at the time of acting.)
 - (iii) Employees will be selected for acting assignments based on required qualifications that would include skills, abilities, experience, knowledge and training. It is understood that where the qualifications of two employees are relatively equal, the most senior will be selected.
- (b) When a Maintenance Worker 2 is required to perform the duties of a Maintenance Worker 3 for a period in excess of one and one-half (1 1/2) hours in one (1) day, the corresponding rate of pay for such higher position shall be paid for the whole period during which time duties at the higher level are performed.
- (c) Acting Pay - Calculation

The acting pay received for assignments as set out in Article 15.11 shall provide for the greater of:

- The first year rate in the position in which such employee is acting; or
- The equivalent to a placement in the new salary range which will give the employee at least 104% of the employee's present normal salary, and shall be paid for the period in which acting on such assignment. In no case, however, shall such acting pay exceed the maximum of the applicable salary range.

(d) Salary Increment While Acting

Should an employee act in a position for one (1) year or more, the employee so acting shall be eligible to receive an increment in the salary scale in which they are acting, provided that they are not already at the maximum of that salary scale. It is recognized that upon return from acting to the employee's position, the employee's increment date remains unchanged and the employee will be returned to the salary scale of their position (except in those circumstances covered by Article 15.09) at the increment level to which they are entitled in accordance with Article 15.11(e), Increment Date Upon Appointment.

(e) Increment Date Upon Appointment

Should an employee, acting in a position, be the successful applicant in a competition for that position the date the employee commenced acting duties shall be the employee's new increment date.

(f) When an employee accepts an acting assignment to perform the duties and responsibilities of a position not covered by this Collective Agreement, the employee shall retain all rights and obligations under the Collective Agreement. An acting employee's minimum hours of work shall be based on the position in which they are acting and compensation shall be no less than 104% of their normal rate of pay averaged over a two (2) week pay period.

(g) When an employee is directed by the Employer to perform an acting assignment in a position with a lower rate of pay, the pay of such an employee shall not be changed.

15.12 Promotional Increase from an Acting Appointment

The salary placement of an employee, acting in one position, who is promoted to another position while acting, shall be based upon the employee's normal salary, not the acting salary, unless acting for over six (6) months, in which case the salary placement shall be based upon the Acting Pay.

15.13 The provisions in respect of acting pay shall not derogate from the provisions in respect of vacancies and new positions.

ARTICLE 16 – LEAVE

16.01 Sick Leave

Sick leave credits are established for use during periods of absence from work due to illness, injury or properly certified quarantine, and are not available to an employee for absence caused by any other reason, except as outlined in Article 16.01.

- (a) Each full-time employee shall accumulate sick leave credits at the rate of 1 1/2 days for each calendar month of permanent employment to a maximum bank of 120 days of paid leave. Employees, who commence employment during the first 15 days of a month, will be granted credits for that month. Employees, who commence employment on or after the 16th of a month shall receive pro-rated credits.

Each part-time employee who has completed a probationary period shall be entitled to seven (7) sick days per year provided that they continue to work a minimum of 416 hours per year.

- (b) The balance of available sick leave credits that are accrued according to (a) shall be reduced according to paid sick leave that is claimed by the employee.
- (c) An employee shall receive no credit in respect of any month in which there is an absence from duty for any reasons other than:
 - (i) vacation leave
 - (ii) leave absence with pay, or
 - (iii) authorized leave of absence without pay for a period that does not exceed ten (10) working days in a month.
- (d)
 - (i) Sickness must be substantiated by a satisfactory medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner, if the absence is for more than four (4) consecutive working days, or for each and every absence, if so required by written notice, given in advance by the employee's manager. The notice will specify the duration of the requirement and may be extended upon notification to the employee. Medical certificates must be submitted to the employee's supervisor within a reasonable timeframe. Should timely and sufficient medical information not be provided, the employee's entitlement to paid sick leave credits may be denied.

- (ii) In all cases of sickness, the employee's supervisor shall be notified one (1) hour before the commencement of regular duties on the first day of absence. Where the supervisor is not accessible, steps must be taken by the employee to notify a designated alternate. If an employee is not able to give a return to work date during the original call, the employee shall be required to call in daily until such time as the employee can give an exact date of return. In cases of absence of more than four (4) days and no return to work, the employee shall furnish prior to ten (10) days of absence, a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner, giving the probable date on which the employee will be able to return to normal duties.

Employees in Community Safety Services, After Hours Maintenance and the Call Centre shall provide sufficient notice, a minimum of two (2) hours notice prior to the commencement of their scheduled shift, to enable the scheduling of replacement staff when they are unavailable for a scheduled shift due to illness.

- (e) If the Employer so requires, the employee will supply a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner for every twenty (20) consecutive working days thereafter until the employee returns to work or until an LTDI application is approved, whichever is the latter.
- (f) The Employer shall reimburse all employees up to a maximum of fifty dollars ($50) for the cost of all medical certificates required under this Article or otherwise required by the Employer.
- (g) When an employee is waiting on a decision on a claim or an appeal from WSIB or the LTDI insurer as to the employee's entitlement for WSIA payments or LTDI benefits, the Employer shall provide access to accrued sick leave credits. Upon approval of a WSIB claim these sick leave credits shall be reinstated to the employee.
- (h) For the purpose of this Agreement, a qualified medical practitioner shall be defined as a general practitioner, medical specialist, nurse practitioner, psychiatrist, registered clinical psychologist, physiotherapist, chiropractor, dentist, oral surgeon, and midwife.

16.02 Vacation Leave

Vacation and vacation pay will accrue on the following basis:

- (a) A full-time employee shall earn vacation credits at the following rates:

- (i) One and one-quarter ($1 \frac{1}{4}$) days per month during the first five (5) years continuous service;
 - (ii) One and two-thirds ($1 \frac{2}{3}$) days per month after five (5) years continuous service;
 - (iii) Two and one-twelfth ($2 \frac{1}{12}$) days per month after fourteen (14) years of continuous service;
 - (iv) Two and one-half ($2 \frac{1}{2}$) days per month after twenty-two (22) years of continuous service.
 - (v) Effective December 31, 2028: Two and nine-tenths ($2 \frac{9}{10}$) days per month after (30) thirty years of continuous service.
- (b) An employee shall be allowed to carry over a maximum of one (1) year's accrual to the next vacation year.
- (c) In the event that vacation is paid out to an employee, it will be paid based on the rate at which it was earned.
 - (i) Managers must notify employees in writing by September 1st if they are in a position of excess carry over of vacation leave. Employees with excess vacation must submit leave requests by September 15th to utilize the excess on or before January 31st of the following year. Employees who have submitted vacation leave requests, shall be given priority by their Manager to ensure that excess leave will be utilized on or before January 31st.
 - (ii) Consideration for such priority leave requests in 16.02 (c) (i) above will be granted in accordance with seniority. Should the initial leave request(s) not be approved, the employee must submit a request for additional dates within five (5) working days.
 - (iii) If excess leave is not scheduled by January 31st, it will be automatically paid out by the end of March of that year.
- (d) After the first year of continuous employment an employee may be granted vacation leave in excess of the earned credits to the extent of credits that would accumulate to the end of that year.
- (e) Approval for vacation requests as outlined below will be subject to operational requirements:

- (i) An employee shall submit a vacation request for the period starting July 15th to January 14th in writing to the supervisor by Feb 15th and the Employer shall post the approved vacation schedule by March 15th. It is understood that an employee will not be allowed to schedule more than three (3) consecutive weeks in the period between July 1 and August 31.
- (ii) An Employee shall submit a vacation request for the period starting January 15th to July 14th in writing to the supervisor by September 15th and the Employer shall post the approved vacation schedule by October 15th.
- (iii) All vacation requests submitted according to the deadlines identified above shall be scheduled according to seniority.
- (iv) All vacation requests submitted after the deadlines identified above shall not be scheduled according to seniority and shall not displace the approved vacation of any employees who submitted their vacation request by the identified deadlines.
- (v) Approval for vacation requests shall not be unreasonably denied.
- (f) An employee shall be paid for any earned and unused vacation standing to the employee's credit at the date the employee status ceases, or at the date the employee qualifies for payments under the Long Term Disability Insurance plan.
- (g) An employee, upon completion of their twenty-fifth (25th) year of service shall receive a bonus of one (1) week of vacation leave in addition to their normal entitlement set-out in Article 16.02(a). It is understood that this additional one (1) week of vacation leave is only provided in the employee's twenty-fifth year and it is not available to the employee in any subsequent year(s) of service.
- (h) An employee earns but is not entitled to receive vacation leave with pay during their probationary period.
- (i) In the event an employee suffers an injury or illness while on vacation leave, the employee may claim paid sick leave for this applicable period, if the applicable period is certified by a qualified medical practitioner, and the relevant vacation leave credits shall be reinstated to the employee's account. The employee must notify their manager that they have suffered an injury or illness on the first day that the employee intends to claim paid sick leave.

- (j) If an employee has taken more leave than they have earned at the time when the employee's services are terminated for a reason other than lay-off or death, the salary overpayment resulting from the use of unearned vacation leave shall be recovered from the employee by the Employer.
- (k) An employee is not eligible for the entitlement under Article 16.02 in respect of:
 - i) A period of twenty (20) consecutive working days in which they are absent from duty for a reason other than vacation or leave of absence with pay.
 - (l) A part-time employee shall receive a payment of 4% in lieu of vacation leave during the probationary period. After completing the probationary period a part-time employee shall receive a payment in lieu of vacation leave in accordance with the following schedule:
 - (i) During the equivalent first five (5) years' continuous service to be paid 6%.
 - (ii) After five (5) equivalent years but less than fourteen (14) equivalent years' continuous service to be paid 8%.
 - (iii) After fourteen (14) equivalent years but less than twenty two (22) equivalent years' continuous service to be paid 10%.
 - (iv) After twenty-two (22) years of equivalent continuous service to be paid 12%.
 - (v) Effective December 31, 2028: After thirty (30) years of equivalent continuous service to be paid 14%.
- (m) For the purposes of Article 16.02(k), one year of continuous service is equivalent to 2,080 hours paid.

16.03 Designated Holidays

- (a) In each calendar year the following will be observed as holidays:

New Year's Day	Labour Day
Family Day	National Day for Truth and Reconciliation
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Easter Monday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day
Civic Holiday

and any other day proclaimed by the Federal Government and/or the Government of the Province of Ontario.

- (b) When any of the aforementioned holidays fall on a Saturday or Sunday or on an employee's scheduled day off, the following normal working day shall be deemed to be a holiday for the purpose of the agreement. If any of the above paid holidays falls on a normal non-working day for an employee, they shall receive a lieu day (at regular pay) to be taken on the next normal working day which shall be deemed to be the straight time paid holiday.
- (c) For employees in the Call Centre, Community Safety Services and After Hours Maintenance, who work on a rotational shift schedule, the holiday will be observed on the actual date of the designated holiday.
- (d) If any of the above paid holidays falls on a normal non-working day for a full-time employee who work on a rotational shift schedule, they shall receive a lieu day (at regular pay) which shall be deemed to be the straight time paid holiday.
- (e) Any full-time employee who is required to work on a designated holiday shall be paid one day's pay at their regular rate for the designated holiday, and for such hours as they work, at one and one-half (1 ½) times the employee's regular hourly rate of pay.
- (f) Part-time employees shall receive public holiday pay calculated in accordance with the terms of the Employment Standards Act.

16.04 Pregnancy and Parental Leave

- (a) An employee, upon written request to the employer, shall be granted pregnancy and/or parental leave of absence without pay in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Standards Act, as amended from time to time. This leave shall only be used for adoption or birth of an employee's child. The timing and notices related to this leave shall be as set out under the Employment Standards Act, 2000, as amended from time to time.
- (b) While on Pregnancy and/or Parental Leave:
 - (a) The employee shall accumulate seniority and service,
 - (b) The employee's increment date shall remain unchanged,
 - (c) All the employee's benefits including Pension contributions shall be maintained, provided the employee makes the necessary arrangements to pay their share (if any) of the premium cost.
- (c) All permanent employees shall be entitled to receive a "topping-up" of Employment Insurance benefits to ninety-five percent (95%) of normal salary to a maximum of twenty-five (25) weeks of such leave where an employee elect's standard employment insurance benefits. Where the employee elects extended employment insurance benefits, the employee shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the entitlement they would have received had they chosen the standard employment insurance benefit.

- (d) The employee shall be entitled to return to their job upon the completion of this Leave, if it still exists, or to a comparable position, if it does not.

16.05 Leave of Absence for Union Business

- (a) Leave to attend Union Conventions

The Employer shall grant Leave of Absence with pay to union delegates to the following:

Canadian Labour Congress;
Canadian Union of Public Employees;
Ontario Division of C.U.P.E.;
Ontario Federation of Labour.

The Union will attempt to notify the Division Manager of each delegate at least twenty (20) days prior to the date that delegates will be leaving to attend the Convention. A copy of this notification will be provided by the Union to Human Resources.

- (b) Leave for Union Business

The Employer shall grant reasonable leaves of absence with pay to representatives of the Union from within the bargaining unit elected or appointed by the membership to a maximum total of two hundred and ten (210) working days in a calendar year. Individual use of such leave shall be capped at 30 days and applications for such leave shall be submitted in a businesslike and timely fashion. The individual cap may be exceeded at the discretion of the Employer upon application from the President. This leave relates solely to the affairs of the Union. Leave to attend at grievance hearings will not be included in the above-mentioned totals.

- (c) Reimbursement by the Union

The Union shall reimburse the Employer for the costs of such absences as set forth in subsections (a) and (b) above.

16.06 Leave of Absence Without Pay

- (a) Employees who desire leave of absence without pay shall make application to the employee's Manager.
- (b) An employee who is elected or selected for a full-time position with the Union or anybody with which the Union is affiliated may apply to the Employer for leave of absence without loss of seniority; such leave will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (c) Except where otherwise provided, when an employee is on authorized leave of absence without pay in excess of twenty (20) consecutive working days, the employee's seniority date, increment date, and all benefits enjoyed by the employee immediately prior to the commencement of such leave of absence without pay, shall be suspended. When the employee returns to full-time employment with pay, the employee's seniority date, increment date, and the benefits, shall resume at the level at which they were when they absented themselves, recognizing any negotiated changes. It is understood that arrangements may be made between the employee and the Employer for continuation of the insured benefits while on such leave of absence without pay.
- (d) During leave-of-absence without pay, employees may continue participating in Basic Life, Extended Health Care and the Dental Plan by arranging to pay full premiums at least one (1) week in advance of the first of each month of coverage.

16.07 Jury and Witness Duty

- (a) Full-time employees who are called upon to serve as jurors or who are subpoenaed all reset as witnesses to a court proceeding:
 - i. For such purposes provided that upon completion of the service such employee shall present to the Employer a satisfactory certificate showing the period of such service; and,
 - ii. shall be paid full salary or wages for the period of such service provided the employee shall pay the Employer the full amount of compensation received for such service, excluding any amount received for mileage and/or meal allowance, and shall be given an official receipt thereof.

16.08 Court Duty

- i. Shall be granted leave-of-absence for such purposes provided that upon completion of the service such employee shall present to the Employer a satisfactory certificate showing the period of such service; and,
- ii. Shall be paid full salary or wages for the period of such service provided the employee shall pay the Employer the full amount of compensation received for such service, excluding any amount received for mileage and/or meal allowance, and shall be given an official receipt thereof.

Full-time employees on authorized vacation leave who are required to testify or are subpoenaed as a witness to give evidence on behalf of the Employer shall have their vacation leave entitlement restored for the period of time required to attend court or any legal proceeding and will, in addition for the hours so required to attend, receive twice their regular or normal salary.

16.09 Campaigning For Public Office

An employee shall be allowed a leave of absence without pay, to campaign for the employee's election for a public office.

16.10 Education or Compassionate Leave

Leave-of-absence without pay and without loss of seniority may be granted to an employee for compassionate reasons or for educational purposes if the request meets the operational requirements of the Employer for a period of up to one (1) continuous year with the approval of the Chief Executive Officer or designate. Application for leave under this section should be submitted in writing at least fourteen (14) days prior to commencement of requested period of leave, except in cases of emergency when as much notice as possible should be given.

16.11 Citizenship Leave

An employee who would otherwise have been at work shall be allowed one (1) day leave-of-absence with pay to attend a formal hearing to become a Canadian citizen.

16.12 Blood Donors

The Employer agrees to allow the necessary time off with no loss of pay to employees who are called upon to donate blood to the Canadian Blood Services.

16.13 Time Off for Voting

- (a) Every employee who is a qualified elector in a municipal or provincial election shall, for the purpose of casting their vote on an election day, be excused from their regular duties for a period sufficient to allow them three (3) consecutive hours immediately prior to the closing of the polls.
- (b) Every employee who is a qualified elector under the Canada Election Act shall, for the purpose of casting their vote on an election day, be excused from their regular duties for a period sufficient to allow them four (4) consecutive hours immediately prior to the closing of the polls.
- (c) The above shall not apply if the employee works on any shift that provides an equal number of hours to vote as set out above, on the employee's own time.

16.14 Adverse Weather Conditions

The following provision shall apply to employees during adverse weather conditions necessitating closure of all highways, as declared by appropriate provincial or municipal authorities, between the employee's residence and place of employment, for the duration of the closure:

When an employee, through no fault of their own, is unable to report for work because of the above, such employee shall suffer no loss of pay or other benefits, nor shall they be required to make up, in any way, for time lost due to not reporting to work.

16.15 Reporting Pay

In the event of an employee reporting for work in the ordinary course of their employment and not being able to perform their regular work because of inclement weather, they shall be provided with work to the end of the half shift or pay in lieu thereof.

16.16 Self-Funded Leave

- (a) An employee may apply to participate in the Self-Funded Leave Plan as permitted under the Income Tax Act (Canada) in order to defer pre-tax salary dollars to fund a leave of absence. The deferral period must be at least one (1) year and not more than four (4) years. The funds being deferred will be held in a notional account managed by the Employer with interest being paid annually. The funds will be paid out to the employee on a bi-weekly basis during the leave of absence.

- (b) During the leave, the employee's insured benefits will be continued where the employee continues to pay for their portion.
- (c) At the end of the leave, an employee shall return to the position held immediately prior to going on leave and shall be paid at the step in the salary range that they had attained when the leave commenced. If the position no longer exists, the provisions of Article 25 - Organizational and Technological Changes shall apply. It is understood, however, that the notice period begins when the position is declared surplus by the Ottawa Community Housing Corporation, not when the employee returns from leave.

16.17 Bereavement Leave

An employee scheduled to work and who would otherwise have been at work shall be allowed:

- (a) Five (5) consecutive working days leave-of-absence with pay in the event of the death of the employee's spouse, parent, child, brother, sister, grandchildren or a legal ward of the employee or their spouse.
- (b) Three (3) consecutive working days leave-of-absence with pay in the event of the death of the employee's immediate family as follows: parent-in-law, brother and sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, and grandparents, and legal guardian.
- (c) One (1) day leave-of-absence with pay to attend the funeral of a niece or nephew or the spouse of aunt or uncle.

For the purpose of Bereavement Leave, the relationships specified in Article 16 are deemed to include a common-law spouse, step relationships and a partner of the same sex.

In addition, an employee shall be entitled to a special leave without pay up to a maximum of 2 days to travel if the distance is greater than 350 kilometers from their residence.

It is understood that a portion of the bereavement leave may be postponed by the bereaved employee to a later date, to deal with matters concerning the estate.

Employees who request bereavement leave may be required to produce satisfactory documentation.

16.18 Special Leave

Employees may, with the approval of the Employer, be allowed to use up to four (4) days per year special leave credits for the following types of reasons:

- (a) Professional appointments such as medical, dental, legal, optical and parent/teacher interviews for the employee and/or their child;
- (b) The unexpected or sudden illness of the employee's spouse or child which prevents the employee from reporting to duty;
- (c) The care of aging parents;
- (d) Emergency situations which prevent the employee from reporting to duty. Employees who request special leave may be required to produce satisfactory documentation.

16.19 Domestic or Sexual Violence Leave

An employee shall be granted paid leave, limited to the equivalent of their average work week, in accordance with Article 14 in addition to entitlements as outlined in the Employment Standards Act as amended from time to time. Leave under this article can be taken in one (1) hour increments.

16.20 Personal Day with Pay

Upon completion of the probationary period, Full Time employees will be entitled to one (1) personal day with pay per calendar year.

- (a) The employee shall provide advance notice of the request of at least seven (7) calendar days. The personal day with pay shall be taken subject to operational requirements and the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to grant the leave at such time as the employee may request.
- (b) The Employer shall not request supporting documentation for leave requests under this Article.
- (c) Employees are not permitted to carry-over the personal day with pay into the following calendar year and the unused personal day shall not be paid out by the Employer.

- (d) The personal day with pay may be taken in half-day increments.

16.21 Leave Categories Not Applicable to Part-Time Employees

The above articles do not apply to part-time employees:

Article 16.04 Parental Leave (c)

Article 16.06 Leave of Absence Without Pay (d) Article 16.07 Jury and Witness Duty

Article 16.08 Court Duty

Article 16.16 Self-Funded Leave Plan Article 16.18 Special Leave

Article 16.20 Personal Day with Pay

ARTICLE 17 – BENEFITS

17.01

- (a) Articles 17.02 to 17.08 will apply to full-time employees after the completion of six (6) months of continuous service. Employee eligibility will be governed by the terms and conditions of the specific plans.
- (b) When a probationary part-time employee is promoted to full-time status in the same position, eligibility will be granted upon completing the equivalent of 1,040 hours of work.
- (c) A part-time employee who has completed the probationary period shall be entitled to a payment of 10% in lieu of benefits added on the hourly rate of pay.

17.02 For the purpose of “family” benefit coverage, common-law spouse and partner of the same sex are deemed to be included after twelve (12) months of co-habitation.

17.03 Life Insurance

- (a) The Group Life Insurance shall be at the level of two and one half (2 ½) times the employee’s basic annual earnings (to the nearest $1,000 of benefit) per employee with a minimum of $100,000 in coverage. The Employer shall pay 75% of the cost of membership in the Group Life Insurance Plan.
- (b) Employees, at their option, may purchase optional life insurance on themselves and/or their eligible spouses. The employee pays the full premium for this coverage.

17.04 Extended Health Care Benefits

The Employer shall pay 100% of the cost for membership in the following plans:

- (i) Canada Life Plan (Supplementary for Hospital Care);
- (ii) Canada Life Extended Plan:

Note: The Extended Health Care Plan provides payments to registered clinical psychologists/social workers/psychotherapists of up to a maximum of $800.00 per claimant during a benefit year. Coverage will also include chiropractors, osteopaths, podiatrists, naturopaths, massage therapist and speech therapists to a maximum of $500.00 and physiotherapists to a maximum of $750.00 per claimant during a benefit year. Claims per visit will not exceed fees that are customary and reasonable as defined by the insurer.

Note: The amount payable under this plan is $400.00 net per claimant in any period of twenty-four (24) consecutive months.

- (iv) Eye Examinations - One (1) visit every twenty-four (24) months by a licensed ophthalmologist or optometrist to a maximum of $100.00 per person.
- (v) Claims per visit will not exceed fees that are customary and reasonable as defined by the insurer.
- (d) Subject to Appendix 7, an employee who retires and is in receipt of a non-actuarially-reduced pension shall be entitled to the benefits identified in Article 17.04(a) until age 65 and the costs shall be borne by the Employer.

17.05 Dental Plan

- (a) The Employer shall provide a dental plan and pay 100% of the premium cost of this plan.
- (b)
 - (i) The Employer shall ensure that the coverage is such that it provides full payment in accordance with the current O.D.A. Schedule of Fees.
 - (ii) Coverage for regular dental check-ups and regular teeth cleaning will be limited to once every 6 months for children up to the age of 18 years and once every 9 months for all persons over the age of 18.

(iii) Coverage will include:

Basic coverage, including re-lining and re-basing of dentures, covered by 100% of Schedule.

Major restorative – dentures, crowns and bridges covered to 50% of Schedule with a $1,000 annual maximum per claimant.

Orthodontics covered to 50% of Schedule with a $4,000 lifetime maximum per claimant.

17.06 Healthy Living Account

The Healthy Living Account provides flexibility for employees by providing them with the ability to allocate funds between their Wellness Account and Healthcare Spending Account (HCSA), based on the following schedule:

Up to 15 years of service – a combined maximum of $600 per calendar year.
Over 15 years of service – a combined maximum of $700 per calendar year.

a) Wellness Account

- (i) Employees will receive reimbursement for their expenses related to health and/or wellness initiatives.
- (ii) The Employer reserves the right to determine eligible expenses.
- (iii) This right shall be exercised in a reasonable manner.

(b) Health Care Spending Account

- i. The Employer agrees during the duration of this contract to pay one hundred percent (100%) of the cost of the monthly premium for eligible employees for a Health Care Spending Account (HCSA).
- ii. This amount cannot be carried over into the following year.
- iii. The HCSA is subject to Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) rules and requirements, including its definitions regarding eligible expenses and will be administered by the Employers' benefits provider in accordance with the terms and conditions of their plans.

17.07 Long Term Disability Insurance Plan

- (a) The Employer shall pay the full premium cost for coverage by a Long Term Disability Plan which provides the following:
 - (i) Seventy-five percent (75%) of the employee's gross salary or wage earned on the date immediately prior to the disability (to a maximum of $9,000 of benefit per month). It is understood that the benefits received by an employee under this plan are taxable in accordance with Canada Customs and Revenue regulations. Employees who are currently in receipt of Long Term Disability benefits shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the plan in force at the time of their application.
 - (ii) Employees shall be eligible for benefits after 120 calendar days of continuous disability provided their application for benefits has been accepted by the insurer.
 - (iii) The Long Term Disability benefits will be increased annually to the CPI Index to a maximum of 4%.
 - (iv) While the claimant is in receipt of Long Term Disability benefits, the Employer agrees to pay 100% of the premium costs of the following benefits:
 - a) Life Insurance
 - b) Extended Health Care
 - c) Dental Insurance
- (b) "Totally Disabled" for all employees shall mean for the Qualifying Period and thereafter, the employee is wholly and continuously disabled by illness or accidental bodily injury which prevents the employee from performing any and every duty of their normal occupation.
- (c) An employee's position may be declared vacant, even though the employee may be receiving Long Term Disability benefits, after the expiry of a two year period from the initial date of the disability.
- (d) Should a disabled person who has been on Long Term Disability benefits wish to return to work the Employer shall endeavour to secure suitable employment consistent with the applicant's education, qualifications, training and health and the Employer's needs at the time.

- (e) Eligibility for enrollment shall be after six (6) months of continuous service.
- (f) In the event that an employee who does not qualify for long term disability benefits is able to return to light or modified duties, the Employer shall attempt to provide light or modified duties.

17.08 Critical Illness Insurance

The Employer shall make available, to employees who are eligible for extended health care benefits, the option of Critical Illness Insurance. Premiums for this insurance shall be 100% paid by individual employees who elect to access such insurance. The Employer shall provide information to all eligible employees about the coverage, availability and cost for such insurance.

17.09 Health & Wellness Benefit for Part Time Employees

The Employer shall provide reimbursement for costs paid by a part time employee, who has completed the probationary period, for expenses related to health and/or wellness initiatives, according to the following schedule:

Up to 10 years of service	$150 per year
Up to 15 years of service	$200 per year
Over 15 years of service	$250 per year

The Employer reserves the right to determine eligible expenses. This right shall be exercised in a reasonable manner.

17.10 OMERS

Employees shall be enrolled in the Ontario Municipal Employees Retirement System (OMERS) Plan subject to terms and conditions of the Plan.

ARTICLE 18 – WORKPLACE SAFETY & INSURANCE

- 18.01 An Employee who suffers an occupational injury or illness arising out of and in the course of employment (within the meaning of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act) shall report such injury to the Employer as soon as the Employee is aware of such injury or illness and in compliance with the timelines under the Act.

18.02 Every employee who is absent from duty as a result of an occupational illness or injury arising from their employment within the meaning of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act will be provided with medical care and treatment as provided in the Act and shall comply with Article 16.01 of this Agreement.

18.03 Every employee who is absent from duty as a result of an occupational illness or injury arising out of and in the course of their employment (within the meaning of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act) and, who has not completed the probationary period as provided for in this Agreement, shall receive compensation from the Employer to the level provided under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act effective from the date of disability. Compensation paid by the employer, pending a decision from WSIB, will be paid in accordance with Article 16.01 (g). Where a claim has been disallowed by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board all payments made by the Employer will be recovered from the employee's accrued sick leave bank or from future earnings paid to the employee. The employee shall have the discretion to choose one of these options.

In addition, every employee who has completed the probationary period, and who suffers an occupational illness or injury arising out of and in the course of employment (within the meaning of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act) shall be entitled to the following:

- (a) Payment of salary or earnings by the Employer to the maximum allowable under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act. The Employer will also pay to the employee, where applicable, the difference between the maximum allowable under the Act and the actual amount equal to 75% of the employee's salary or regular wage.
- (b) In addition, the Employer will pay on behalf of the eligible employee, the total payment or premium for the following plans:
 - (i) Pension;
 - (ii) Medical plans as specified in the Agreement;
 - (iii) Life insurance;
 - (iv) Long term disability;
 - (v) Dental insurance;

provided that in any calendar month the employee is absent 5 or more working days.

- (c) When the employee returns to full and regular duties, the employee shall be returned to a position equal to the one which was held prior to the compensable injury and the benefits specified in (a) or (b) above shall cease. When the employee is able to return to modified duties, the benefits specified in (a) and (b) above shall cease.

18.04 Should any employee be off work in excess of three (3) consecutive months without any regular pay for work done, the employee shall not accumulate leave credits for this period of time.

18.05 In the event that an employee is able to return to light or modified duties as determined by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board of Ontario, the Employer shall attempt to provide such work and the employee shall continue to receive the hourly rate of pay or bi- weekly salary the employee was receiving prior to the date of the accident.

18.06 Any employee who returns to modified or light duties shall be assessed on an on-going basis by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board of Ontario. In the event such assessments determine that the employee is able to return to full and regular duties, Article 18.03 (c) above shall apply.

In the event the employee's condition is assessed as deteriorating, the Employer shall provide rehabilitation as recommended by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board of Ontario for employment with the Employer or other employers. In this case, the Employer will make a reasonable effort to offer the employee on-going alternate employment. In any case, when the employee returns to light or modified duties, the Employer shall be guided by the assessment of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board of Ontario.

18.07 The Union recognizes that reassignment of a permanently partially disabled employee to alternate employment, may necessitate a change of classification and pay.

18.08 It is recognized that where the employee has been reassigned or offered, and accepts alternate employment with the Employer, the employee shall be entitled to any lump sum payment or permanent award payable as determined by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board of Ontario, and such payments will not reduce the wage or salary the employee will be receiving.

18.09 No employee shall have their employment terminated until, all benefits, which are standing to the employee's credit at the time the assessment is made, are paid to the employee.

- 18.10 In the event the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board revenue should become taxed as normal income, the Employer and the Union agree that the employee receiving Workplace Safety and Insurance shall not receive less than their normal salary or wage. The details of such rearrangement shall be negotiated between the Union and the Employer at the time of such change in the legislation.
- 18.11 The Employer agrees to inform Employees, at the time of an injury or illness that arises from their employment, of their right to have Union representation dealing with any related WSIB claim.

ARTICLE 19 – ALTERNATIVE WORK ARRANGEMENTS

19.01 Flexible / Compressed Work Hours / Week

- (a) Upon Employee request, flexible work hours may be agreed to between the Employee and the Employer, subject to operational requirements.

The flexible work arrangement will be for a defined period of time and will not exceed the standard hours of work for the position within a bi-weekly pay period.

- (b) The Union will be provided copies of all flexible work arrangements under this article.
- (c) New flexible work arrangements may be subject to a one-month trial period, after which time, should the flexible work arrangement be terminated, the Employer shall provide notice of at least two (2) weeks, following which the employee will be scheduled in accordance with Article 14.01.
- (d) Where a flexible work arrangement is in effect and no longer meets operational requirements, the Employer shall provide notice of at least four (4) weeks, following which the employee will be scheduled in accordance with Article 14.01.

19.02 Hybrid Work Arrangements

A Hybrid Work Arrangement allows for employees to carry out their regularly assigned duties at the employee's home, or at another location in close proximity to the work location. It is understood that employees may be required for in person attendance as required by the Employer.

- (a) Hybrid Work Arrangements are voluntary and must be agreed upon by the employee and the Employer in writing prior to the start of the arrangement, with a copy provided to the Union. The Hybrid Work Arrangement shall be for a defined period of time and will be subject to renewal.
- (b) Approval of Hybrid Work Arrangements are at the Employer's discretion. Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to approve Hybrid Work Arrangement requests. If a request is denied, reasons shall be provided to the employee in writing.
- (c) New Hybrid Work Arrangements may be subject to a one-month trial period, after which time, should the Hybrid Work Arrangement be terminated, the Employer shall provide notice of at least two (2) weeks.
- (d) Where a Hybrid Work Arrangement is in effect, prior to its termination, the Employer must advise the employee in writing, with a copy provided to the Union, at least four (4) weeks in advance, including the reasons for terminating the Hybrid Work Arrangement.
- (e) While working under a Hybrid Work Arrangement, employees shall retain all rights and benefits of the Collective Agreement. It is understood that job responsibilities will not change due to participation in a Hybrid Work Arrangement.

19.03 Job Sharing

- (a) The parties agree that job sharing can occur where there is written agreement between the employees who wish to job share, the Employer and the Union.
- (b) It is agreed that job sharing results from two employees or one employee and one prospective candidate sharing a full-time position and as such the position shall continue to be identified as a full-time position.
- (c) Employees do not need to have the same classification level in order to job share. However, in cases where the employees do not share the same classification level, it will be the position and classification level of the employee proposing the job sharing that will apply. Any employee interested in the second half of the job sharing arrangement must meet the required qualifications of the job, pursuant to Article 13 – Promotions and Transfers. If no employee is interested in or qualified for the second half of the job sharing arrangement, it will be subject to the normal job posting procedure as a job sharing opportunity.

- (d) Job sharing will be on the basis of equal sharing of the number of hours of work in a pay period for the position.
- (e) Employees in a job sharing arrangement shall maintain their full rights under the collective agreement except that entitlement to salary shall be pro-rated and benefits shall be as applicable to permanent part-time employees.
- (f) In the event that one employee in the job sharing arrangement leaves that arrangement on a permanent basis for reasons other than normal retirement, the remaining employee would first be offered the opportunity to assume the position on a full-time basis. If the remaining employee declines the full-time opportunity, the vacant portion of the job sharing arrangement shall be posted as a job sharing vacancy subject to the provisions of the collective agreement.
- (g) However, if both employees in the job sharing arrangement leave that arrangement concurrently or if one of the employees terminates due to normal retirement, the position will be posted as a full-time one, unless the Employer determines that the position is no longer required. In the case of normal retirement, if the remaining employee is unsuccessful in being awarded the full-time position, they will be subject to the provisions of Article 25 – Organizational or Technological Changes.

ARTICLE 20 – MILEAGE

- 20.01 The Employer agrees to reimburse all employees who are required to use their private automobile on business of the Employer at the prevailing mileage rates as determined by the Department of Finance as a maximum reimbursement that is allowed as a non-taxable benefit.
- 20.02 Claims for mileage must be submitted in a timely manner after the completion of each month. Employees are not eligible for reimbursement if claims are submitted more than sixty (60) days after the end of the month in which the claim has occurred.
- 20.03 The foregoing mileage rates are inclusive; no claim shall be allowed for repair, storage, maintenance, operation, etc.

ARTICLE 21 – PERSONNEL FILES

21.01 Access

An employee shall have the right upon sufficient notice to have access to their personnel file and shall have the right to respond in writing to any document contained therein. Such reply shall become part of the permanent record. With the written permission of the employee, a Union Representative or Shop Steward shall also have the right of access to an employee's personnel file.

21.02 Disciplinary Records

Any disciplinary records, as well as letters of instruction or expectation, shall be removed from an employee's file after eighteen (18) months from the date of the offence, provided that there have been no similar warnings in that period, in which event the time for the application of this section shall be counted from the date of the succeeding warning.

Absences of two (2) or more consecutive months will extend this period by the duration of the absence. It is understood that disciplinary records include any written records of verbal warnings, written warnings and letters of suspension.

ARTICLE 22 – OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

22.01 The Employer and the Union shall continue their Joint Occupational Health and Safety Committee in an endeavour to provide a safe and healthful environment for employees.

22.02 The Employer shall provide Occupational Health & Safety education and training to its employees to ensure that they are aware of and engage in safe work practices to minimize the risk of occupational injury and illness. The Joint Health and Safety Committee, which includes union representation, shall review the Corporation training and education programs on an ongoing basis to ensure that they are satisfactory.

22.03 The Employer shall forward copies of all Joint Occupational Health and Safety Committee Minutes, as identified within the Terms of Reference, to the Office of the Union, in a timely fashion.

ARTICLE 23 – LAY OFF AND RECALL

23.01

(a) A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in hours of work for a full-time employee as instituted by the Employer;

- (b) A layoff for part-time employees shall be defined as an involuntary permanent reduction in the work force. It shall not be considered to be a layoff where the Employer creates a full-time position from one or more vacant part-time positions.

23.02 Any employee being laid off, who has standing to their credit an entitlement to vacation leave or time off in lieu of overtime may elect to take either during the period of layoff but their recall to work shall be governed by the regulations set forth in this section.

23.03 The Employer will notify employees one week prior to a layoff provided that the employee has completed their probationary period. An employee who has not completed the probationary period, will not be entitled to notice of layoff under the terms of this Agreement.

23.04 No new employee will be hired until those employees who have been laid off have been given an opportunity of re-employment subject to the conditions of recall set forth in this Agreement.

23.05 Seniority Rights - Layoff and Recall

- (a) In the event of a layoff, an employee shall be given the opportunity to revert to a classification equal to or less than the classification they held prior to the layoff. In the wage schedule, a classification shall be equal to or less than another classification if the hourly rates of pay are equal or less than those paid in the other classification.
- (b) In the event of a layoff, the employees may exercise their seniority rights on a bargaining unit wide basis.
- (c) If the employee fails to exercise their seniority rights as outlined in Article 23.05 (a) or (b), they shall be subject to recall in the classification they held prior to the layoff.
- (d) The classification of a wage employee for the purpose of seniority shall be the highest classification which the employee has occupied for more than 5 consecutive days in the two pay periods immediately preceding the layoff or recall.
- (e) For part-time employees, the provisions of Article 23.05 Seniority Rights – Lay-Off and Recall shall be limited to other part-time positions.

- 23.06 Layoffs and recalls to work following such layoffs shall be in accordance with seniority provided that the employee has the required knowledge and ability to perform the normal duties of the position available.
- 23.07 It is the responsibility of every employee to notify the Employer promptly of any change of address or telephone number. If an employee fails to make this notification to the Employer, the Employer shall not be responsible for the failure of notice of recall to reach the employee.
- 23.08 Should employees exercise their seniority in accordance with 23.05 (a) or (b) above, it is understood that the employee must be qualified to do the work of the “new” position. It is recognized that there may be a period of familiarization.
- 23.09 Should the Employer close some or all operations between Boxing Day and New Year’s Day of any given year, it is understood that employees shall not be entitled to exercise their seniority rights to bump for this period. Affected employees may elect to use any accumulated vacation or time off in lieu credits.

ARTICLE 24 – ON-CALL PROVISIONS

- 24.01 A schedule of hours of work shall be posted thirty (30) days in advance, and shall not be changed by the Employer without two (2) weeks notice being given to the employee concerned. This will not apply in the case of emergencies when schedules may be changed without notice. Any changes in the posted schedule requested by the Union, to permit employees to attend to business of the Union or mutual changes of shift between employees shall be allowed with the written consent of the Employer provided that the change does not involve any cost to the Employer and that essential services can be maintained.
- 24.02 On-Call Premiums
- (a) Maintenance Workers who volunteer to be on-call who are scheduled for on call duties will be paid on call premium of $1.40 per hour. Such premium will be paid from completion of their regular scheduled shift to 12:00 midnight.
 - (b) Maintenance Workers who volunteer to be on-call must carry a communication device provided by the Employer and be readily available to respond for work during the scheduled on-call hours.

24.03 On-Call Rotation

This Article shall apply to Maintenance Workers who volunteer to be on-call only.

- (a) Maintenance Workers who volunteer to be on-call shall respond to all calls in the assigned district and be paid at the overtime rate during the period of on- call duty. This includes all types of housing units in the area.
- (b) On-call Maintenance Workers who volunteer to be on call and are called out shall be paid the call-out allowance in accordance with Article 15.10.
- (c) For the purpose of this Article “on-call” is defined as being physically on call for the division from the completion of the regular scheduled shift to 12:00 midnight and be able to respond immediately to communications from management.
- (d) In the event that a Maintenance Worker who volunteers to be on-call is away for any reason, the next on- call Maintenance Worker in the rotation schedule shall be appointed to cover the period of absence.
- (e) Maintenance Workers may elect to be available for on-call rotation in their assigned district. The Employer will consider available volunteers when developing the on-call rotation schedule as identified in Article 24.01. This voluntary election will involve a commitment by the employee for a period of at least six (6) months.

ARTICLE 25 – ORGANIZATIONAL OR TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGES

25.01 When the Employer is proposing the introduction or implementation of technological or organizational change which may result in employees/positions being declared surplus/redundant:

- (a) The Employer agrees to notify the Union as far as possible in advance of its intentions and to update the information provided as new developments arise and modifications are made.
- (b) The foregoing notwithstanding, the Employer shall provide the Union in advance of the organizational and/or technological change, with the detailed description of the project it intends to carry out and the intended effects on employees/positions within the organization. Individual employees who are in positions that may be affected by such change will also be provided with reasonable notice prior to the implementation of such change.

- 25.02 The incumbent in any position which has been declared surplus or redundant, as a result of organizational or technological changes may be placed in a similar position which is vacant on the establishment of the Employer, without competition.
- 25.03 If this is not possible, and if a vacancy exists for which the employee can be retrained by the Employer within a period of six (6) months, the Employer shall retrain the employee for the position. This option shall be subject to the agreement of the employee.
- 25.04 If no vacancy exists in which the employee may be placed (or retrained within six (6) months pursuant to Article 25.03), the Employer may place the employee in a lower level position. In such a case, the employee would maintain their rate of pay. As increases in pay are negotiated, the employee would be entitled to receive only one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the negotiated increase until the employee's higher rate of pay falls within the pay band of the position they were placed. If, after three (3) years from the date of placement into the lower level position, the employee is continuing to receive a salary in excess of the salary that corresponds to the lower level position, they shall immediately be placed at the maximum of their position's pay band. This option shall be subject to the agreement of the employee.
- 25.05 Employees who are placed in a new position as a result of Article 25.02 or Article 25.03 shall have a trial period of three (3) months.
- 25.06 If neither Article 25.02 or 25.03 is possible and the employee has not accepted a placement, if available, in accordance with Article 25.04, the employee may exercise their seniority rights in accordance with the lay off provision in this Collective Agreement, although it is recognized that this is not a lay off, as defined in the Collective Agreement.
- 25.07 Should the employee not be placed in accordance with Article 25.02 or Article 25.03 nor accept a placement into a lower level position in accordance with Article 25.04, and should the employee not exercise their rights under Article 25.05 then the employee shall be entitled to notice or pay in lieu of notice as well as the separation allowance outlined below:
- (a) More than one (1) but less than three (3) years continuous service, payout of two (2) months' pay;

- (b) Three (3) but less than five (5) years continuous service, a payout of three (3) months' pay;
- (c) Five (5) but less than eleven (11) years continuous service, a payout of four (4) months' pay;
- (d) Eleven (11) but less than sixteen (16) years continuous service, a payout of six (6) months' pay;
- (e) Sixteen (16) but less than twenty (20) years continuous service, a payout of ten (10) months' pay;
- (f) Twenty (20) but less than twenty-five (25) years of continuous service, a payout of fourteen (14) months' pay;
- (g) Twenty-five (25) or more years continuous service, a payout of eighteen (18) months' pay.
- (h) Payment shall be made at the rate of pay the employee was earning when the position became redundant.

25.08 A part-time employee who is displaced as a result of organizational or technological change may be placed in another part-time position. If this is not possible they shall be entitled to a pro-rated pay-out based on hours of service as outlined above.

ARTICLE 26 – JOB DESCRIPTIONS AND JOB EVALUATION

26.01 Where the duties of a bargaining unit position are significantly changed, the Union will be informed and shall be supplied with the revised job description.

26.02 The following provisions shall apply:

- (a) The evaluation of all positions within the bargaining unit shall be conducted by a Joint Job Evaluation Committee (JJEC).
- (b) Terms of Reference for the JJEC shall be negotiated between the parties.
- (c) The JJEC shall be composed of six (6) members, an equal number of members shall be appointed by the Union and by the Employer.
- (d) All members of the JJEC shall receive full pay and benefits during their work on the committee.

- (e) One co-chair shall be appointed by the Union and one co-chair shall be appointed by the Employer.
- (f) The rating of positions shall be done on a unanimous basis by rating teams that shall consist of four JJEC members. Two (2) members of each rating team shall be Union members and two (2) shall be members appointed by OCH.
- (g) Where substantive changes make the re-classification of a position change in value, either upward or downward the parties will make the appropriate salary administration of such change within Appendix 3.
- (h) Where the JJEC is not able to reach consensus on a rating of a position, or the appropriate re-classification of a position, a third party may be engaged to mediate a resolution.
- (i) Ratings by the JJEC are not grievable.

26.03 Job Rating Reviews can be requested, where there has been a substantive change to the duties, and or responsibilities, and or job requirements or where there is a new and unique permanent or temporary position.

The Union will be informed and shall be supplied with the applicable job description.

ARTICLE 27 – GENERAL CONDITIONS

27.01 Bulletin Boards

The Employer will provide appropriate bulletin boards upon which the Union will have the right to post notices of Union meetings, and such other notices referring to Union activities as may be of interest to employees.

27.02 Workplace Amenities

The Employer where appropriate will provide accommodation for meals and for the keeping of clothes.

27.03 Tools, Protective Clothing, Uniforms and Footwear

(a) Tools

The Employer will supply employees work tools, as required and approved and in accordance with job requirements.

(b) Protective Clothing

Where protective clothing items are supplied, they must be worn as a condition of employment. Protective clothing items will be replaced when required and approved.

(c) Uniforms

Where uniforms are supplied, they must be worn as a condition of employment. Uniforms will be provided by the Employer in accordance with the Uniform Program Directive.

(d) Footwear

Where protective footwear is required, they must be worn as a condition of employment. Employees required by the employer to wear protective footwear shall be eligible to receive a maximum of two hundred and fifty ($250.00) toward the purchase of protective footwear. Subject to seasonal requirements, an additional pair of protective footwear to a maximum of two hundred and fifty ($250.00) will be provided when required and approved.

Employees will have the option of receiving a voucher for use at an approved provider or reimbursement, subject to the provision of supporting purchase documentation and out of pocket expense claim. When protective footwear is damaged during the course of work, they will be replaced when required and approved.

27.04 Winter Outerwear

- (a) The Employer will supply appropriate winter parkas to all maintenance employees who work outside in accordance with the Uniform Program Directive.
- (b) The Employer will supply snow pants to Landscape Maintenance Workers and Maintenance Workers who work outside in the winter as required and approved.

27.05 Hepatitis B Vaccination

The vaccination against Hepatitis B will be available on a voluntary basis to those employees who, as a condition of employment, have a possible high exposure to body fluids. The Joint Health and Safety Committee will identify job functions with potential for high exposure to body fluids in order to determine entitlement to the vaccination.

Under these approved conditions, the Employer will be responsible for such costs.

27.06 Clean-Up Time

Maintenance employees will be allowed ten (10) minutes clean-up time before lunch and before getting off duty.

27.07 Accommodating Employees with Disabilities

- (a) Any employee who has become unable to do the normal and regular duties owing to partial disability shall be given consideration for work within the employee's capabilities and qualifications in accordance with applicable legislation. In assigning an employee to a vacancy under this Article, it should be understood that the provisions of Article 13.02 would not apply.
- (b) If an employee, who is disabled, is capable of returning to perform the essential duties of the pre-disability position, the employee shall provide relevant medical documentation and co-operate with the Ottawa Community Housing Corporation in securing appropriate accommodation in accordance with applicable legislation.
- (c) The parties recognize that the accommodation of an employee with a disability to alternate employment, may necessitate a change of classification and pay.

27.08 Change of Address

In the event of change in home address or telephone number, it shall be the responsibility of the employee to notify the Employer and the Union in writing of such change. Failure to comply with this provision will save the Employer and the Union harmless with respect to any notification directed to an employee's last known address or telephone number.

27.09 Legal Representation

The Employer agrees to continue to provide legal representation to employees in those situations arising directly from the responsible discharge of official duties by the employee or resulting from the carrying out of an official order or orders.

27.10 Car Parking

All employees who are required by the Employer to use their own cars for the Employer's business shall be provided with free parking facilities or shall be reimbursed for the cost of parking where such parking facilities are not available.

27.11 Identification Cards

The Employer agrees to continue a system of Photo Identification Cards. Employees shall display or produce identification cards as required.

27.12 Licenses and Accreditations

When it is a requirement of a position for an employee to have a license

(e.g. driver's license, security license) or an accreditation to perform the duties of the position, it is the Employee's responsibility to maintain such license or accreditation and to notify OCH immediately of any suspension or loss.

It is understood that the employer may obtain, on an annual basis, the driver's abstract for any employee in a position which requires a driver's license.

27.13 Reimbursement of Expenses

Employees are required to submit expense claims in a timely manner after incurring an expense. Employees are not eligible for reimbursement if expenses are submitted beyond sixty (60) days after the month in which the expense is incurred.

ARTICLE 28 – DURATION OF AGREEMENT

28.01 This Agreement shall be in force and effect from January 1, 2025 (except where a clause otherwise provides) to December 31, 2028 and thereafter from year to year.

28.02 Should either party to the Agreement wish to seek amendments to or modifications of the Agreement or to terminate the Agreement and negotiate a new Agreement, it shall give notice to the other party not later than the first (1st) day of November in the year in which the contract expires.

APPENDIX 4 – CASUAL AND SHORT TERM PLACEMENTS

A. CASUAL EMPLOYEES:

The parties agree that in accordance with the terms and conditions as outlined in this Agreement, casual employees may be hired to:

- i. replace some contracted services at various buildings
- ii. cover intermittent operational requirements

1. It is understood and agreed that OCH will continue to utilize contracted services above and beyond the use of casual employees.

2. The Union agrees that in the event OCH decides there is a shortage of workforce under this Agreement or decides to have this work performed by a third party contractor, in part or in whole, following the performance of this work under the terms of this Agreement, no grievance, complaint or action of any kind will be filed by CUPE 503 or any of its members claiming a violation of any provision of the collective agreement or related employment legislations alleging a restriction on the Employer's right to have such services performed under contract, based on or in relation to the performance of said work under this Agreement.

3. An employee who retires, or who terminates their employment with OCH, and who is hired as a casual employee under this Agreement shall be considered as a rehire and no previous service or seniority with OCH shall be recognized.

4. Employees hired under this Agreement shall be assigned hours that become available and other employees falling under the terms and conditions of the CUPE 503 collective agreement shall not have priority to such work under this Agreement. The Union agrees not to accept or file any grievances on behalf of employees alleging an entitlement to casual hours under this Agreement.

5. Casual Priority List - There is no obligation to call any employee who has worked less than 1,040 hours. Casual wage employees who have worked 1,040 hours or more shall have priority over other casual employees provided such employee does not have a break in service greater than ninety (90) calendar days. Priority to hours shall be vis-à-vis other casual employees within the casual labour pool.

B. SHORT TERM DEVELOPMENT PLACEMENTS:

The parties recognize the importance of providing developmental placements in support of OCH's commitment to building stronger communities. As such, the parties agree that in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, employees may be hired under the following circumstances:

- i. To retain students on a part time basis between September 1 – March 31;
- ii. To provide on the job training as part of a non-recognized academic internship and/or work experience program of less than six months

Below outlines the specific terms and conditions pertaining to employees hired as:

- A. Casual employees; and/or
- B. Short Term Development Placements

1. It is understood that the hiring of employees under this Agreement shall not derogate from the requirement to fill vacancies and new positions of a permanent or temporary nature as set out in Article 13 of the collective agreement.
2. Employees hired under this Agreement will be scheduled based on employee availability subject to operational requirements, and in accordance with applicable program requirements (if required). It is understood that there is no guarantee of shifts.
3. All employees referred to under this Agreement shall pay Union dues from their initial date of employment in their position as defined under the applicable section A. i) or ii), or B. i) or ii) of this Appendix.
4. Employees covered under this Agreement shall be entitled to the provisions of the collective agreement unless otherwise stated or amended herein:

Article 11 – Probationary Period – not applicable

Article 12 – Seniority – 12.01 (b); 12.06 – not applicable

Article 14 – Hours of Work and Overtime – not applicable

Article 15 – Salaries and Wages – not applicable

Article 16 – Leave – not applicable

Article 17 – Benefits – not applicable

Article 18 – Workplace Safety and Insurance – 18.03 through 18.10 not applicable

Article 19 – Alternative Work Arrangements – not applicable

Article 23 – Lay Off and Recall – not applicable

Article 24 – On-Call Provisions – not applicable

Article 25 – Organizational or Technological Changes – not applicable

Article 26 – Job Descriptions and Job Evaluation – not applicable

Appendices 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 – not applicable

5. Seniority Accrual - Upon hire or rehire an employee shall accumulate seniority on the basis of hours worked but their seniority shall only be recognized when competing for any position in accordance with Article 13, Promotions and Transfers. An employee hired under this Agreement who is appointed to another position shall be subject to a probationary period.

6. Hourly Rate – Effective the date of ratification, the minimum hourly rate for employees hired under this Agreement shall be in accordance with the general minimum wage as established by the Employment Standards Act, 2000, as amended from time to time, plus $1.50 less statutory deductions.
7. Vacation Leave - In lieu of vacation leave, employees who have worked less than 1,040 hours shall receive vacation pay of 4% based on gross earnings and paid bi-weekly. Employees who have worked 1,040 hours or more shall receive vacation pay of 6%.
8. Benefits and Insurance – Employees who have worked 1,040 hours or more shall receive 10% added to their hourly rate for all hours worked in lieu of benefits received by full-time employees.
9. Overtime – shall be defined as time worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week.

APPENDIX 5

MEMORANDUM OF SETTLEMENT

(Renewal of Collective Agreement)

THE OTTAWA HOUSING

CORPORATION AND

THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES LOCAL 503

The Parties herein agree to the terms of this Memorandum of Settlement of all matters in dispute.

The undersigned representatives of all the parties do hereby agree to recommend complete acceptance of all the terms of this memorandum of settlement to their respective principles.

The parties herein agree that the term of the Collective Agreement shall be from January 1st, 2025 to December 31st, 2028.

The parties herein agree that the said Collective Agreement shall include the terms of the previous collective agreement which expired December 31st, 2024 and the following amendments as incorporated:

- (a) All matters settled and agreed to by the parties herein attached.
- (b) Retroactivity pay, if any, will be subject to deductions required by law and dues deduction.

APPENDIX 6

MAINTENANCE WORKER 3 PRACTICAL TESTING

The parties agree that Ottawa Community Housing Corporation will establish and maintain a list of qualified candidates for the Maintenance Worker 3 position.

A Maintenance Worker 2 may elect to be tested in accordance with the practical component of the Maintenance Worker 3 position.

If successful, this person shall be pre-qualified with respect to the practical component of the promotional process for the Maintenance Worker 3 position.

APPENDIX 7

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

The parties hereby agree to enter into meaningful discussions regarding retiree benefits for retirees in receipt of non-actuarially reduced pension. The parties shall meet within three (3) months of the expiration of the Collective Agreement.

It is understood that any agreements must be cost neutral to the Employer, save and except administration costs, if any.

Notwithstanding the above, the entitlements under Article 17.04(b) shall not apply to new employees hired after December 31, 2019.

APPENDIX 8

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT - SHIFT SCHEDULE FOR COMMUNITY SAFETY SERVICES EMPLOYEES

In recognition of the shift schedule for Community Safety Workers working in Community Safety Services (“CSS”), the parties agree to continue to vary the terms of the Collective Agreement as necessary to support the implementation of the shift schedule as follows:

1. Part Time employees in CSS will be scheduled based on back-fill requirements to replace a Full-Time employee absent from work under the terms of the Collective Agreement. Notwithstanding the above, it is agreed that Part-time CSS employees will not be scheduled for more than twenty-four (24) hours per week on a regular basis.

- a) Part Time employees must provide their availability on a quarterly basis as follows:

Jan 1 – March 31 (Q1)	01-December	15-December
April 1 – June 30 (Q2)	01-March	15-March
July 1 – Sept 30 (Q3)	01-June	15-June
Oct 1 – Dec 31 (Q4)	01-September	15-September

- b) Any changes in an employee’s availability must be updated within a reasonable timeframe.
 - c) It is understood that once a schedule is posted, should an employee not be scheduled to work, they are not required to maintain their stated availability for the days not scheduled.
2. Pursuant to Article 14.01(d), the Standard Hours of Work for employees in CSS will also include 11 and 11.5 hour shifts. For full-time employees, a standard week is defined as, from Sunday to Saturday one week at 46 regular hours and one week at 34 regular hours over a 2-week scheduling period.
3. For the purposes of special leave entitlements and accruing sick leave and vacation leave as defined in Article 16 of the Collective Agreement, the current practice of defining a “day” as 8 hours will continue. For the purposes of using sick leave, vacation leave and special leave, the current practice of deducting the actual time taken from the employee's entitlement will continue.

4. Pursuant to Article 14.07 (d) and 16.03 (a), employees who work on a designated holiday will receive a lieu day (at regular pay). For the purposes of banking the lieu day, an employee's entitlement to public holiday pay will be divided by the employee's regular hourly rate of pay on the designated holiday to determine the number of applicable hours to be banked as the lieu day.
5. Pursuant to Article 16.03 (a) and (d), when the designated holiday falls on a normal non-working day, Full Time employees will receive a lieu day (at regular pay). For the purposes of banking the lieu day, an employee's entitlement to public holiday pay will be divided by the employee's regular hourly rate of pay on the designated holiday to determine the number of applicable hours to be banked as the lieu day.
6. The provisions of this agreement shall be reviewed and agreed to by the parties on an annual basis.

APPENDIX 9

SALARY SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS

The parties agree to amend the salary schedules according to the following adjustments:

- An increase of 3.50% effective January 1, 2025, an increase of 4.00% effective January 1, 2026, an increase of 3.50% effective January 1, 2027, and an increase of 3.00% effective January 1, 2028.
