LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge the Three Fires Confederacy (Ojibwe, Potawatomi, and Odawa) and the Traditional ancestral, unceded territory of Caldwell First Nation; the original people of Point Pelee, Pelee Island, and its surrounding waters. This territory is within the lands honoured by the Wampum Treaties; agreements between the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lenni Lenape, and allied Nations to peacefully share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes. We recognize and respect the First Nations who are stewards of the land and waters of Turtle Island and who have embraced this stewardship since time immemorial. We would also like to acknowledge all the moccasins who have walked the lands of Turtle Island.

ARTICLE 1 - PREAMBLE

1.01 It is the purpose of both parties to this Agreement:

- (a) To maintain and improve harmonious relations and settle conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union.
- (b) To recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in matters pertaining to working conditions, employment, service, and other matters mutually agreed to.
- (c) To promote the morale, wellbeing and security of all employees in the bargaining unit of the Union.
- (d) To maintain a high standard of care for children and promoting their intellectual, social, cognitive, physical and emotional development.
- (e) To encourage and promote co-operation and mutual support between childcare workers, the Employer and parents.

1.02 For the purpose of this agreement the following items will be defined as follows:

(a) Spouse

For the purpose of this agreement "spouse" shall be used to designate wife, husband, or common-law marriage partners, including 2SLGBTQUIA+ partners. This definition shall apply to all articles of this agreement.

(b) Family

- (1) For the purpose of this agreement "immediate family" shall be used to designate parents, spouse, brothers, sisters, step-family relationships, child, grandparents, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, (in-law family relationships shall include heterosexual, common-law and 2SLGBTQUIA+ relationships), grandchild, or any close dependency situation.

- (2) For the purpose of this agreement "extended family" shall be used to designate brother-in-law, sister-in-law, first aunt (first aunt-in-law), first uncle (first uncle-in-law), first niece and first nephew.

(c) Child

For the purpose of this agreement "child" shall be used to designate the child for whom the Employee acts as a parent or guardian. This definition shall apply to all articles of this agreement.

ARTICLE 2 - GENERAL CONDITION

2.01 Proper Accommodation

Employees will have access to a school staff lounge and locked storage space for personal belongings at each worksite.

2.02 Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide bulletin boards at each work location which shall be placed so that all Employees will have access to them and upon which the Union shall have the right to post notices of meetings and such other notices as may be of interest to the Employees.

2.03 Letter of Reference

On termination of employment for any reason, except termination for cause, the Employer shall provide a letter of reference on request.

2.04 First Aid and CPR Training

First Aid training required by the Employer shall be funded by the Employer for certification or recertification. Employees that fail to attend without reasonable cause shall reimburse the Employer for the cost of the training. Employees will not allow their certification to lapse as per the C.C.E.Y.A. First Aid/CPR must remain valid. If an employee has an expired certificate it will result in suspension the next business day after the certificate is expired and until a course is taken. A First Aid/CPR course must be WSIB approved. All employees must use the training provided through the City of Windsor or pay the full cost of training themselves.

2.05 Crossing of Picket Lines During Strike

No Employee who is a member of Local 123.2 will be disciplined for refusal to cross a legal picket line where to do so would present a real danger of physical harm to them and the member will not be paid.

2.06 Strikes and Lockouts

- (a) There shall be no strikes or lockouts as long as this agreement continues to operate.
- (b) The word "strike" and the word "lockout" shall be defined in accordance with the Ontario Labour Laws.

2.07 Professional Development

The Employer and the Union acknowledge and agree that continuous improvement in the efficiency of company operations is critical to the competitiveness of the childcare field and employees' job security. The Employer and the Union will therefore cooperate in implementing professional development opportunities and supporting members in continuous professional learning, improving efficiency.

All unionized staff members employed by the Employer, who have completed their probationary period, will be required to complete four (4) hours of professional development outside of regular working hours at the employees' regular base pay rate. The Employer will reimburse participation in this training with proof of completion, examples of this completion may be a certificate, or a letter from presenter, etc. Proof of participation will be required as part of the employee annual review. This is over and above the ministry required certifications (First Aid /CPR, Epi Pen Training etc.)

In addition, the Employer agrees that any In-House professional development will be paid out at the regular employee base rate of pay.

2.08 Management Rights

The Union recognizes that it is the right of the Employer to exercise the regular and customary function of management and to direct the workforce, subject to the terms of this agreement.

- (a) Manage, conduct and operate Discovery School Based Childcare of Kingsville Inc.

- (b) Maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
- (c) Establish and enforce rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this agreement, governing the conduct of the employees.
- (d) Hire, classify, direct, transfer, layoff, schedule, and for just cause discipline and discharge employees, subject to the right of the employees or the Union to lodge a grievance as herein provided.
- (e) The Employer has the right to manage hours of operation based on the needs of our community.

2.09 No Discrimination

The Employer and the Union agree that no Employee shall, in any manner, be discriminated against, nor shall they be coerced, restrained or influenced on account of membership or non-membership in the Union.

The Employer and the Union agree to abide by the provisions of the Ontario Human Rights code.

ARTICLE 3 - SCOPE AND RECOGNITION

3.01 Bargaining Unit

The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees and its Local 123 as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all employees of the Discovery School-Based Child Care Program of Kingsville, Inc., in the County of Essex, save and except for directors, bookkeeper, office administration staff, site supervisors, students working during their vacation period, and persons above the rank of site supervisor.

3.02 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Persons whose jobs (paid or unpaid) are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs, which are included in the bargaining unit, except for cases mutually agreed upon by the parties. Site supervisors shall be entitled to perform work of the bargaining unit in accordance with the Letter of Understanding - Site Supervisors, attached to this agreement.

3.03 Permanent and Temporary Employees

This collective agreement is fully applicable to all permanent and temporary employees unless otherwise specified.

3.04 Definition of Employees

RECE, Child and Youth Care, Recreation and Leisure Services, and a Bachelor of Education (OCT) can all be considered to run school aged classrooms without Ministry of Education approval.

Other degree/diploma may be considered by the Ministry of Education to Otherwise Approve an employee to run a school aged classroom. RECE's are the only ones, unless otherwise approved, can run an infant, toddler or preschool room.

Assistant will assist in the classroom and can cover breaks, vacations, and other emergency situations.

- (a) A full-time Employee, is a person employed by the employer who is in a permanent position who regularly works thirty-five (35) hours or more per week, between the hours of 6:00 am to 6:00 pm Monday to Friday.
- (b) A part-time Employee, is a person employed by the employer who is in a posted position who regularly works less than thirty-five (35) hours per week between the hours of 6:00 am to 6:00 pm Monday to Friday. With the exception of March Break, Summer Program and Winter Break, where they can work more than the thirty-five (35) hours per week.
- (c) A supply Employee is a person employed by the Employer who does not have a posted position with the Employer, who is available to work on an as-needed basis between the hours of 6:00 am – 6:00 pm, Monday to Friday. Supply staff will make themselves available for at least three (3) full business days per week and agree to work the shift of a regular absent employee.

The Employer shall endeavour to distribute hours/regularly scheduled shift based on seniority while prioritizing consistency in the classrooms.

Refusal of five (5) shifts in a two (2) month period will result in removal from the supply list (a missed or turned down call includes not answering a call). Special circumstances may be considered by the Employer.

If a supply requires a day off or slot of time off, they will fill out a request in the preferred method. Call-ins for employees will be done by seniority (i.e. looking for an assistant, no assistants available therefore, a R.E.C.E. can be called in or the same when filling in for an ECE position).

- (d) A student is a person from a community college or secondary school working in a co-op position designated by the parties. Parents and volunteers will be allowed to continue to offer their services at the program as previous as long as they do not replace one of the bargaining unit staff and are not a part of the collective agreement.

Summer students are hired and paid by the employer through Service Canada and the approval of the Summer Jobs application. Number of students is based on the approval from the government. Summer students do not replace a bargaining unit employee and are not part of this agreement. Summer students are hired to help employees with daily duties and activities. Summer students are never included in ratio or left alone with children.

- (e) Program Support Staff are placed in the classrooms to help reduce the ratio of staff to children. The City of Windsor approves Program Support to allow group sizes to be smaller, so the needs of children can be met. Program Support is in addition to regular staff needed for classroom ratios. Bargaining unit members will continue to accrue seniority. Employer's can hire a contract-based employee, which will not accrue seniority hours. Contract employees will sign time-based documents with start and end times. If this contract employee changes their job description within Discovery, their seniority will start from the new date of hire as a bargaining member.

Employers do have the right to move Program Support to meet the CCEYA staff to child ratio in an emergency situation. If it is necessary to pull a unionized member from Program Support to an Assistant/ RECE role, then they will pay union dues.

- (f) Otherwise Approved (OA) staff are employees that have been employed with the childcare and can provide a seamless transition for children. Employers will ask the Minister of Education for director approval, if the employee meets the proper criteria and no other RECEs are available for hire, then the staff will be approved. OA employees will follow all ministry guidelines. Approval status will be submitted to the Union. Employers will always exhaust all options before otherwise approving an employee. OA employees that continue with their education and graduate in a timely manner, will continue to remain in that position unless the ministry says different.

3.05 No Other Agreements

No Employee shall be required or permitted to make a written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representatives, which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

3.06 Representative of Canadian Union

The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees or any other advisors when meeting or negotiating with the Employer. Such representative(s) shall have access to the Employer's premises in order to investigate and assist in the settlement of a grievance.

ARTICLE 4 - NO DISCRIMINATION

4.01 Employer Shall Not Discriminate

The Employer agrees that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any Employee in the matter of hiring, wage rates, training, upgrading, promotion, transfer, lay-off, recall, discipline, classification, discharge or otherwise by reason of age, race, creed, colour, national origin, religion, political affiliation or activity, sexual orientation, sex, marital status, family relationship to adult working at the centre, place of residence, nor by reason of their membership or activity in the Union.

4.02 Respectful Workplace

The Employer and the Union jointly affirm that every Employee shall be entitled to a respectful workplace. The environment must be free of behaviour such as discrimination, harassment, disruptive workplace conflict, and disrespectful behaviour.

The principle of fair treatment is a fundamental one and both the Employer and the Union will not condone improper behaviour on the part of any person, which would jeopardize an Employee's dignity and wellbeing or undermine work relationships and productivity. In addition, the parties agree that a respectful workplace includes a safe and healthy workplace.

The parties also agree that there shall be no discrimination or harassment as defined by the Ontario Human Rights Act.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENT

5.01 Employees to Be Members

As a condition of employment, all employees of the Employer who are now members of the Union shall remain members in good standing of the Union according to the constitution and by-laws of the Union. As a condition of employment, all new employees who are members of the bargaining unit as defined in Article 3 shall become and remain members in good standing of the Union within ninety (90) days of employment. Furthermore, all employees will remit Union dues from the 1st day hired.

ARTICLE 6 - CHECK OFF OF UNION DUES

6.01 Check-Off Payment

The Employer shall deduct from every Employee 1.5% dues levied by the Union on its members. The Union shall inform the Employer in writing of the authorized monthly deductions to be checked-off as defined above.

6.02 Deductions

Deductions shall be made from each payroll of each month and shall be forwarded to the National Secretary-Treasurer of the Union not later than the tenth (10th) day following the end of the month, accompanied by a list of the names, addresses and classifications of employees from whose wages the deductions have been made. The list will also be forwarded to the Union.

6.03 Dues Receipts

At the same time that Income Tax (T-4) slips are made available, the Employer shall type on the amount of Union dues paid by each Union member in the previous year.

ARTICLE 7 - NEW EMPLOYEES

7.01 Employer to Acquaint New Employees

The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a Union Agreement is in effect, and with the conditions of employment set out in the articles dealing with union security and dues check-off.

7.02 Meeting with Union Representatives

Every new Employee shall be given an opportunity to meet their representative of the Union for a period of fifteen (15) minutes during a mutually agreed upon time following the first month of employment for the purpose of acquainting the new Employee with the benefits and duties of Union membership and their responsibilities and obligations to the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 8 - CORRESPONDENCE

8.01 Correspondence

All correspondence between the parties, arising out of this agreement or incidental thereto, shall pass to and from the Employer or the unit chair designate of the Union. Unless otherwise specified in this agreement, all correspondence between the parties, arising out of this agreement or incidental thereto, shall pass to and from the executive director and their designate and the unit chairperson, with a copy to the president of the Union. Nothing in this article will preclude the Employer from corresponding with the CUPE national representative or from the CUPE national representative with the executive director where deemed necessary.

A copy of any correspondence between the Employer, or their designate, and any Employee in the bargaining unit, pertaining to the interpretation or application of any part of this agreement shall be forwarded to the vice-president of the Union or their designate.

ARTICLE 9 - LABOUR RELATION AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

9.01 Representation

The Employer shall not bargain with or enter into any agreement with an Employee or group of employees in the bargaining unit. No Employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without the proper authorization of the Union. In representing an Employee or group of employees, an elected or appointed representative of the Union shall be the spokesperson.

In order that this may be carried out, the Union will inform the Employer in writing, of all present and newly elected officers, committee members, stewards and any official of the Union and from time to time keep the Employer apprised of any change in their elected officials. The Employer shall not recognize any Union representative until the official notification has been received.

9.02 Union Bargaining Committee

The Union Bargaining Committee shall be selected or elected by the Union, and comprised of not more than four (4) members, which one (1) will be the President or Union Designate. The Union will advise the Employer of the names of the Union members of the bargaining committee.

9.03 Function of the Bargaining Committee

The bargaining committee shall be responsible for negotiating all terms and conditions of this agreement and its renewal, aiming towards a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between the parties.

9.04 Meeting of Team

In the event either party wishes to call a bargaining meeting, the meeting shall be held at a time and place fixed by mutual agreement.

9.05 Time Off for Meeting

The bargaining committee, who is in the employ of the Employer, shall have the right to attend bargaining meetings with the Employer held within working hours without loss of remuneration. The Union will reimburse the Employer for these wages.

9.06 Disclosure Materials

Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of a written request by the Union, the Employer shall make available to the Union, job descriptions, positions in the bargaining unit, job classifications, and wage rates, for collective bargaining purposes only. The Union reserves the right to request any and all information beyond the above listed items.

9.07 Labour/Management Meetings

(a) A labour management committee shall be elected or appointed and consist of not more than two (2) members of the Local sub-unit and two (2) members of the Employer. The president of the Local and the CUPE national representative shall be ad hoc members for the committee.

(b) Meeting Committee

At the request of either party, a meeting will be schedule once every three (3) months at a mutually agreeable time and place to discuss matters or issues relating to the workplace. If there are no matters or issues related to the workplace the meeting may be cancelled or deferred on the agreement of both parties. Additional meetings may be scheduled with the written agreement of both parties. The party requesting the meeting to the other party at least 48 hours prior to the said meeting must supply an agenda.

Such meetings are not intended to replace or interfere with the established bargaining or grievance and arbitration procedures of this agreement. Time spent attending labour management meetings with the Employer will not result in a committee member suffering any loss of pay or benefits.

(c) The party who prepares an agenda for a labour management committee meeting shall post the agenda prior to the meeting.

- (d) The party who prepares the agenda shall prepare a summary of the status of items discussed at the meeting. Such summary will be presented for approval as to content to the other party, signed and each party will receive a copy of the summary.

ARTICLE 10 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

10.01 Recognition of Union Stewards and Grievance Committee

In order to provide an orderly and speedy procedure for the settling of grievances, the Employer acknowledges the rights and duties of the Union stewards. The steward may accompany any Employee when meeting with the Employer and shall assist in preparing and presenting their grievance in accordance to the grievance procedure as described herein.

10.02 Unit Stewards

Best efforts will be made collectively with the labour management team to have one (1) steward and one (1) alternate steward for each work location affected by this collective agreement. The name of the stewards for each location shall be posted on the staff bulletin boards. The Union shall provide these names to the Employer upon request. If collectively the best efforts fail a buddy system to unit site union stewards will be made.

10.03 Permission to Leave Work

The Union recognizes that the Employer employs each steward and that they will not leave their work without previously obtaining permission from their supervisor or supervisor's designate. Such time as is reasonably spent by the steward to perform their duties in accordance with the terms of this collective agreement shall be considered as time worked. The Union agrees not to abuse this provision.

10.04 Definition of Grievance

A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the collective agreement.

10.05 Settling of Grievances

An Employee's complaint shall first be discussed with their immediate supervisor or delegate or director within three (3) days of the time when the cause of the complaint occurred, prior to filing a written grievance. The employee shall be accompanied by their steward or designate. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within three (3) working days after the employee has contacted the supervisor or supervisor designate, the complaint may then be taken up as a grievance.

An earnest effort shall be made to settle grievances fairly and promptly in the following manner:

STEP 1

The steward will submit a grievance in writing to the supervisor or their designate within five (5) working days after the date on which the cause of the complaint occurred or ought reasonably to be known to the griever. The supervisor or their designate shall deliver their decision in writing to the steward within five (5) working days. The supervisor or their designate shall provide the Employee with a copy of the decision.

STEP 2

If the decision of the supervisor or their designate is not satisfactory to the griever concerned, then within five (5) working days the grievance may be referred to the executive director who shall arrange a meeting of the parties within ten (10) days. The executive director shall render their decision within five (5) days of the meeting.

STEP 3

If the decision of the executive director or their designate is not satisfactory to the griever concerned and provided the complaint and the grievance have been processed in the manner herein before provided, within the time limits prescribed the grievance may be taken to arbitration in accordance with Article 11 of this agreement.

10.06 Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of employees or the Union has a grievance the matter shall be referred to the executive director at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, subject to the timelines set out therein, within ten (10) working days after the date on which the cause of the complaint occurred or ought reasonably to be known to the Union.

10.07 Union May Institute Grievances

The Union shall have the right to initiate the grievance procedure on behalf of any Union member, or group of Union members, and to seek adjustment with the Employer in the manner provided in the grievance procedure.

10.08 Health and Safety Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of health and safety occurs, matter shall be referred to the executive director at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, subject to the timelines set out therein, within ten (10) working days after the date on which the cause of the complaint occurred or ought reasonably to be known to the Union.

10.09 Replies in Writing

Replies to grievances shall be in writing and provide reasons.

10.10 Facilities for Grievances

The Employer shall supply the necessary facilities for the grievance meeting.

10.11 Mutually Agreed Changes

Any mutually agreed changes to this collective agreement shall form part of this collective agreement and are subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

10.12 Termination of Probationary

Notwithstanding anything contained in this agreement, the provisions of the grievance and arbitration articles, and any other procedure or provisions of this agreement, shall not apply to probationary employees with respect to the termination of their employment by the Employer, provided only that the termination occurs within the probationary period as defined by this agreement.

ARTICLE 11 - ARBITRATION

11.01 Single Arbitrator

When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the request shall be made in writing within twenty (20) calendar days of the decision being appealed to the other party of the agreement, indicating three (3) proposed arbitrators for consideration. Within fifteen (15) days thereafter, the other party shall select one (1) of the proposed arbitrators and shall respond in writing.

11.02 Failure to Appoint

If the party receiving the notice fails to agree upon a chairperson within fifteen (15) days, the appointment shall be made by the minister of labour, upon request of either party.

11.03 Arbitration Procedure

The arbitrator shall determine its own procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. In its attempt to justice, the arbitrator shall, as much as possible, follow a layman's procedure.

11.04 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties, and may not be changed. The arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. However, the arbitrator shall have the power to amend a grievance, modify penalties or dispose of a grievance by any arrangement which it deems just and equitable. The arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction to alter, add to, subtract from, modify, amend or change any provisions of this agreement or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions or to make any decisions inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this agreement or to deal with any matter not covered by this agreement.

11.05 Expenses of the Arbitrator

Each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

11.06 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in both the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by consent of the parties and this must be done in writing. The time limits in this agreement are mandatory and may only be changed on consent.

ARTICLE 12 - DISCIPLINE

12.01 Principle of Innocence

In the event the Employer initiates a disciplinary action against an Employee who has completed their probationary period and which may result in the suspension or discharge of the Employee, the following procedure shall be followed:

The Employer shall only discipline an Employee for cause. The Employer agrees to employ progressive discipline procedures, hold a meeting with the employee and supervisor that could lead to discipline of verbal, written, suspension, termination where appropriate. The meeting will take place with the Union President or delegate in attendance.

All discipline action shall be taken within ten (10) working days after the cause for discipline came to the attention of the Supervisor.

All employees will sign off on all documents placed in their file. If an employee does not agree with having to sign a document, the employee will then follow the grievance procedure in order to have the document stricken from their file, but the employee is still expected to sign all documents.

12.02 Right to Have Steward Present

An Employee shall have the right to have their steward present at any discussion with management personnel or the board of directors, which the Employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a management designate intends to interview an Employee for disciplinary purposes, the manager or designate shall so notify the Employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the Employee may contact their steward to be present at the interview. There shall be two (2) Management delegates present at the time of any discussion of disciplinary action, one (1) to conduct the meeting, and one (1) to take meeting minutes. Any disciplinary action and/or penalty shall be in writing to the employee and a copy to the Union.

12.03 Warning

Whenever the Employer or their authorized agent deem it necessary to censure an Employee in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow any further infraction, or may follow if such Employee fails to bring their work up to a required standard by a given date, the Employer will present the censure in written form to the Employee.

12.04 Adverse Report

The Employer shall notify an Employee in writing of any expression of dissatisfaction, resulting from, but not limited to, parent complaints or unsatisfactory work appraisals such as a contradictory action to the Compliance and Contraventions Policy and Procedure in the Child Care and Early Years Act 2014, etc. which may be detrimental to an Employee's advancement or standing with the Employer, whether or not it relates to their work, within ten (10) working days of occurrence of incident. A copy shall be forwarded to the Union. This notice shall include particulars of the work performance, which led to such dissatisfaction. If this procedure is not followed, such expression of dissatisfaction shall not become part of their record for use against them at any time. The Employee's reply to such complaint, accusation or expression of dissatisfaction shall become part of their record.

12.05 Employee Record

The record of an Employee shall not be used against them at any time after twelve (12) months following a suspension or disciplinary action, including letters of reprimand or any adverse reports. All such disciplinary records will be removed from the employee's paper and digital files after twelve (12) months.

12.06 Access to Personnel File

Upon one (1) day prior notice, an Employee shall have the right at any time to have access to and review their personnel file and shall have the right to respond in writing to any documents contained therein. Such reply shall become part of the permanent record.

ARTICLE 13 - SENIORITY

13.01 Seniority Defined

Seniority is defined as the length of continuous service in the employ of their Employer.

13.02 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each Employee's service commenced with the Employer. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted within each centre in January of each year.

Seniority shall be based on the date of hire.

- (a) A seniority list setting out the date of hire for all current staff shall be posted as of the date of ratification of the herein collective agreement.
- (b) Probationary employees shall only be credited with the back to date of hire upon successful completion of the probationary period.
- (c) Temporary employees shall not accumulate seniority. This includes Emergency Staff and Seasonal/Contract Staff.

January 2021 – All staff currently on the seniority list will be grandfathered as they are currently placed on the Seniority list.

* If more than one staff are hired on the same day, seniority will be based in alphabetical order by staff's last name.

13.03 Probation for Newly Hired Employees

A newly hired employee shall be on probation for a period of 90 days worked or six (6) months from the date of hiring, whichever comes first. For new supply employees the probationary period shall be two hundred and forty (240) hours worked or eight (8) months whichever comes first. The evaluations of the newly hired Employee will be conducted at the sixty (60) working days or four (4) months, and ninety (90) working days or six (6) months whichever comes first. During the probationary period, the Employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of the agreement save for those provisions expressly excluded under Article 10.12. This contract does not protect those still within their probationary period from being terminated. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of employment.

Where a probationary employee is absent from work for a period in excess of one (1) month their probationary period shall be extended by a period equal to the period of their absence(s).

13.04 Loss of Seniority

An Employee shall not lose seniority rights if they are absent from work because of sickness, disability, accident, lay-off or leave of absence approved by the Employer.

An Employee shall lose their seniority only in the event:

- (a) They are discharged for just cause and is not reinstated;
- (b) They resign in writing and does not withdraw within two (2) working days;
- (c) They fail to return to work within five (5) working days following a lay-off and after receiving notice by registered mail to do so, unless through sickness or other just cause;
- (d) They are laid off for a period of longer than two (2) years;
- (e) An Employee accepts other employment while on leave of absence.
- (f) An Employee is absent from work due to illness or injury (including WSIB) for a period of twenty-four (24) consecutive months. Subject to WSIB Act and Ontario Human Rights Code.
- (g) When an employee returns from a non-bargaining unit position, they must be back in the bargaining unit for a minimum of twelve (12) consecutive months prior to going to a non-union position, based on Article 14.08 Restriction on Postings.

- 13.05 (a) The selection or appointment of an Employee for a temporary supervisory position or for any temporary position not subject to this agreement is not governed by this agreement. However, if any employee has been appointed to a temporary supervisory position or any temporary position not subject to this agreement, and later transferred back to a position which is governed by this agreement then the seniority of such employee will continue to accumulate while in such position not subject to this agreement for a period of one (1) year. An employee who returns from such position not subject to this agreement to a position within the scope of this agreement within a period of one (1) year as previously stated shall receive credit for full seniority both in and out of this agreement. Such employee shall have the right to return to their former position in the bargaining unit within sixty (60) calendar days. If an employee returns to the bargaining unit, they shall be returned to their former position and wage rate, without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former positions and wage rates, without loss of seniority.

- (b) An Employee who is or has been appointed to a temporary position not subject to this agreement, and who does not return from such position to a position within the scope of this agreement within a period of one (1) year from the date of such appointment, shall cease accumulation of seniority one (1) year from the date of such appointment.
- (c) An Employee returning to the bargaining unit from a temporary position not subject to this agreement within twelve (12) months shall be placed in a job consistent with seniority and no lay-off or bumping of a more senior employee shall result from such return.
- (d) Seniority will not accrue after twelve (12) months if the employee is in a non-bargaining unit temporary position.
- (e) For an extension to be considered there must be mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.
- (f) Temporary position(s) and extension(s) outside the bargaining unit will not exceed twenty-four (24) months. After twenty-four (24) months outside the bargaining unit all seniority will be lost.

ARTICLE 14 - PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

14.01 Job Postings

When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created, the Employer shall immediately notify the unit chair or designate of the Union in writing and post notice of the position on all designated bulletin boards for a minimum of one (1) week so that all members will know about the vacancy or new position. Positions shall be advertised within two (2) weeks of vacancy, so that it does not affect the currently posted schedules. However, vacancies arising from normal retirement shall be posted sixty (60) days prior to the Employee's retirement date if known to the Employer.

ARTICLE 20 – PERSONAL PAID HOLIDAYS

20.01 Amount of Personal Paid Holidays

- (a) Each employee shall be granted six (6) Personal Paid Holidays (PPH) per year. Paid days shall be calculated in accordance to the hours of their regular shift. PPH will not be carried forward. Staff that leave the workday early due to illness will have their hours topped up to a regularly scheduled work shift. Leaving ill will count as a PPH day if staff is leaving after working less than half of their scheduled shift.

Personal days will be used for scheduling medical appointments, mental health days, or any appointments scheduled for your family members, and will give the Employer as much notice as possible. The request will be approved within 48 hours of receipt of the employee notice. Personal days cannot be combined at any time unless of an emergency nature. A personal day cannot be used before or after a holiday. Scheduling requests are subject to rescheduling due to other staff's approvals or denied due to pre-approvals. Special consideration may be approved at the director's discretion.

If a staff member calls in for any reason, and they have banked personal days available, then a day will be paid out from their personal pot. If a planned personal day is approved, and the staff do not have the time in their bank to cover it, the staff must then use a vacation day or cancel that personal day. Special consideration may be approved at the director's discretion.

- (b) PPH days are pro-rated based on yearly employment after the probationary period is completed.
- (c) PPH days can be used for medical appointment, a Doctor's note may be requested, the employee will be reimbursed for the cost of this note once receipt is provided.
- (d) If the Employer requests a Doctor's note for a sick absence, the Employer will reimburse for the cost of this note once a receipt is provided.
- (e) Employees with PPH days still available can use these during the school year's winter break, if a shutdown occurs.
- (f) If any PPH days remain in their bank they will be paid on the last pay of the year.

ARTICLE 31 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

31.01 Duration

This Agreement shall be binding and remain in effect from July 1, 2026 to June 30th, 2030 and shall continue from year to year thereafter unless either party gives to the other party notice in writing 90 days prior to the expiration date that it desires its termination or amendment.

31.02 Changes in Agreement

Any changes deemed necessary in this agreement may be made by mutual agreement at any time during the existence of this agreement.

31.03 Notice of Changes

Either party desiring to propose changes to this agreement shall, between the period of thirty (30) and ninety (90) days prior to the termination date, give notice in writing to the other party. The parties shall exchange proposals at the first bargaining meeting unless mutually agreed upon. Within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of such notice by one party, the other party is required to enter into negotiations for a new agreement.

31.04 Agreement to Continue in Force

Where such notice requests revisions only, the following conditions shall apply:

- (a) The notice shall state specifically the revisions requested and bargaining negotiations shall be restricted thereto, unless the parties otherwise mutually agree;
- (b) Where notice to amend the agreement is given, the provisions of this agreement shall continue in force until a new agreement is signed, or the right to strike accrues, whichever occurs first. If negotiations extend beyond the termination of the agreement, any revision in terms mutually agreed upon shall apply retroactively to that date, unless otherwise specified.

31.05 Retroactivity

All changes in the new agreement shall be adjusted retroactively, unless otherwise specified and paid within thirty (30) days of ratification.

31.06 Wage and Salary Increases

The Employer agrees that in the event they receive additional funding from any level of government that is either assigned to or available for wage enhancements, it will notify the Union that funding has been received and distribute the additional funds on an equitable basis to all employees.

Dated this 31st day of August, 2026.

SCHEDULE "A" - WAGES AND CLASSIFICATIONS

Job Classification	June 30, 2026 Current	July 1, 2026 3%	July 1, 2027 3%	July 1, 2028 3%	July 1, 2029 3%
Asst. 1 <90 days	Ontario Gov't Minimum Wage as of 10/01/2026 + $2.00
Asst. 1 >90 days	21.23	21.86	22.52	23.20	23.89
Asst. 2	21.57	22.22	22.89	23.58	24.29
Asst. 3	21.92	22.57	23.24	23.94	24.66
Asst. 4	22.28	22.95	23.64	24.35	25.08
Assistants with 15+ years of service will be paid $25.83 and then increased by the above percentage.
RECE/OA 1	26.37	27.16	27.97	28.81	29.67
RECE/OA 2	27.96	28.80	29.66	30.55	31.47
RECE/OA 3	28.44	29.29	30.16	31.10	32.03
RECE/OA 4	30.48	31.39	32.33	33.30	34.30
RECE/OA with 15+ years of service will be paid $31.23 and then increased by the above percentage

In addition to the increases set out above, the employer agrees that it will apply for provincial wage enhancement funding each time such funding is made available during the term of this agreement.

Pay Equity is applied each year, based on 1% of last year's payroll expense. Or until pay equity matches the pay scale of equal work.

Employees will move to the next job class on their anniversary date in each of the years of the collective agreement.

If an employee has 4 years or more of seniority, you will move to the new classification for Assistant 4 or ECE 4's current job rate.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING - LOW ENROLLMENT BASED ON SENIORITY

The R.E.C.E. will maintain their position in the classroom if enrollment decreases.

Therefore, the assistant would lose hours prior to the R.E.C.E. regardless of seniority.

Furthermore, if there is more than one (1) R.E.C.E., the second staff can be an assistant if their seniority prevails over a third staff regardless of job classification, when enrollment drops.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING – SITE SUPERVISORS

The parties hereto agree that site supervisors shall be entitled to be scheduled for and perform the work of the bargaining unit, subject only to the below conditions and restrictions.

1. No site shall have more than one (1) assigned site supervisor at any time. Some sites may share a site supervisor, in which case the site supervisor may be scheduled for and perform the work of the bargaining unit at each site from time to time.
2. Site supervisors have no right to displace or bump bargaining unit employees.
3. The Employer agrees that it will not create new site supervisor positions at existing sites unless it is able to demonstrate to the Union that the volume of work and/or working conditions have changed to such an extent that it is reasonable to do so. Any disagreement in this regard may be resolved by the parties as a policy grievance.
