CUPE MEMBERSHIP SURVEY ON THE FEDERAL RESPONSE TO THE OPIOID CRISIS

1. Are you a CUPE member?
□ Yes
□ No
2. What sector do you work in?
☐ Child care
□ Communications
□ Education
☐ Emergency and security services
□ Energy
☐ Health care
□ Library
□ Municipal
☐ Post-secondary
☐ Social services
☐ Transportation
□ Other:
3. What job do you do?
RESPONSE TO OPIOIDS OR OPIOIDS RELATED ISSUES
4. Does your job directly require you to provide a response to individuals in possession of opioids or experiencing an overdose?
□ Yes
□ No

	ase tell us what kinds of responses to the opioid crisis your job directly requires you to form or that you've already performed while at work.
•
_
plea	lough your job may not directly require you to provide a response to opioid-related issues ase describe any opioid-related experiences you've had while at work or the kinds of eriences you feel you can reasonably expect to encounter.
Are	naloxone kits available at your workplace?
	Yes
	No
	I don't know

8.	Does your employer require you to administer naloxone as a part of your job or have you been asked to administer naloxone on a voluntary basis?
		I'm required to administer naloxone as a part of my job
		I can or have volunteered to administer naloxone at my workplace
		Not applicable
9.		ou're required or have volunteered to administer naloxone while on the job, have you eived training for this?
		Yes
		No
		Not applicable
10). Ha	as the opioid crisis impacted people you know?
		Yes
		No
		I don't know
lf	yo	u answered YES to question 10, please answer the follow-up question below
11	. In	what ways has the opioid crisis impacted people you know?

	What kinds of things do you think our governments should be doing to respond to the opioid crisis? Please check all that apply.
	Declare the opioid crisis a public health emergency
	Expand harm reduction strategies (such as access to technology that tests drugs for fentanyl)
	Increase access to supervised injection sites across the country
	Expand treatment options for people living with an addiction to opioids
	Implement a national public education campaign designed to raise awareness of the risks of recreational opioid use and to reduce the stigma of addiction
	Decriminalize all drugs
	Change opioid prescribing and dispensing practices
	Expand social and affordable housing, including supportive housing and housing employing a harm reduction approach
	Implement a national poverty reduction strategy
	Make naloxone available at no cost
	Increase funding dedicated to solutions to the opioid crisis
	Other (open text box to type in other answers)
13. Is there anything else you think CUPE should look at when developing its response to the opioid crisis and considering what solutions are the most important to our members?
_
_

Please mail your completed survey to
Attn: Amanda Vyce – Research Branch – CUPE National Office
1375 St-Laurent Blvd, Ottawa, ON K1G 0Z7