Re: Ruling on Regulations for election of National President

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

After consultation with the campaign managers for the two declared presidential candidates, and taking into account the late announcement, federal election and statutory holiday, I hereby rule:

Only those allowing their names to stand for the position of National President shall be allowed to send a one-page document out in a National mailing on Friday, October 16, 2015. This document shall be one of two printed pieces of material allowed for use at the National Convention.

This one-page document must be received by Gwen Hewitt, Managing Director Organizing and Regional Services, at the National Office no later than 12:00 p.m. on October 16th, 2015.

Furthermore, the document must be received translated and printed in sufficient numbers for the mail-out.

English 2200 copies
French 700 copies

The mailing will be completed the afternoon of October 16th.

Any materials remaining from the mail-out will be brought to the National Convention and returned to the candidates.

This information along with the Regulations Concerning Elections for National Office will be posted on the CUPE website.

In solidarity

GWEN HEWITT
